

SALEM PRESS

Online Access With Your Print Buy!

Spring 2015

Published and Distributed By Grey House Publishing

Welcome to the Salem Press Spring 2015 Catalog

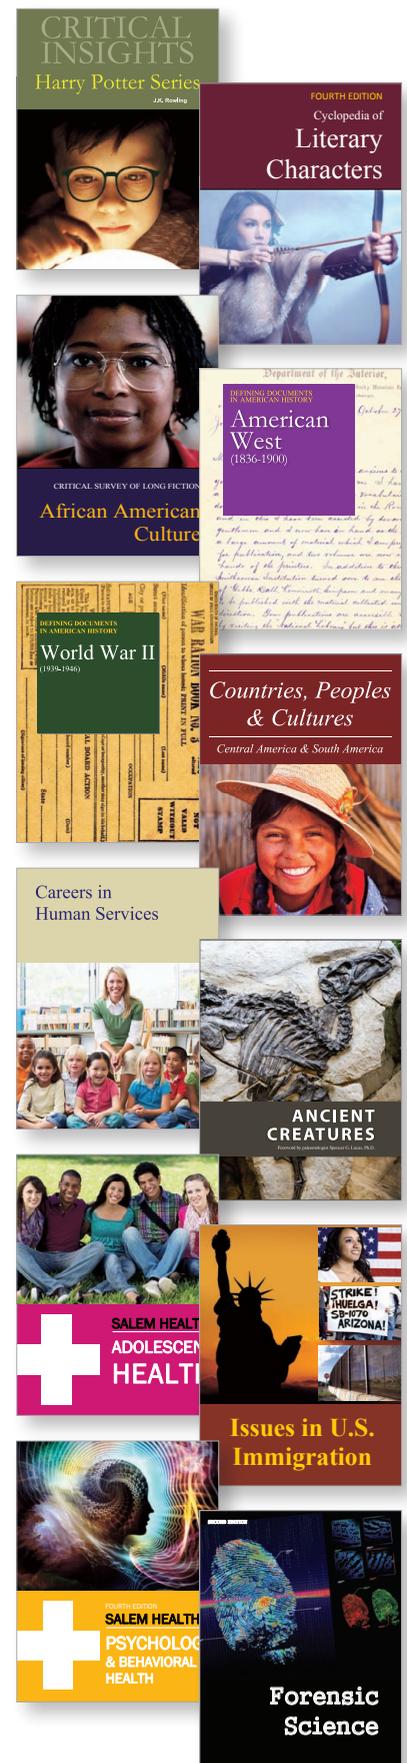

We are pleased to present this year's new titles and award-winning multi-volume sets, almost all with complimentary online access. In 2013, Grey House Publishing partnered with Salem Press and EBSCO Publishing to ensure that this outstanding product line will continue to be available to the reference community. Libraries have counted on Salem Press for a wide range of informed, accessible, rich, and original content for High Schools and Academic and Public Libraries. Please enjoy our new Spring 2015 catalog and a new exciting publishing year ahead.

NEW RELEASES FOR SPRING 2015

- 15 new titles have been recently added to our popular Critical Insights series. Plus, new Critical Insights Collection Bundles offer a new way to organize this ever-expanding product line.
- A new edition of Magill's Literary Annual for 2015. Get access to all 39 years of the Annual Online when you buy the 2015 edition!
- A new edition of the popular Cyclopedia of Literary Characters, now expanded to include the years 2000 to 2013.
- The most popular content of the Critical Survey of Long Fiction is now available in single, hardcover works, now with free online access.
- Nine new titles in our new series, Countries, Peoples & Cultures, provide valuable insight into the social, cultural, economic, historical, and religious practices and beliefs of nearly every nation around the globe.
- Five new titles in our popular Defining Documents series offer critical analysis of the primary source documents that shaped our country and the world.
- A new edition of Issues in U.S. Immigration offers a timely update of this important issue.
- We have added two more titles to our popular Careers In series, highlighting occupations in Human Services and Technical Services & Equipment Repair. Career information continues to top the list of needed materials as students explore their options earlier and in more depth than ever before.
- A new title, Ancient Creatures, provides high school and undergraduate students with advanced information on 100 of the most-studied dinosaurs and ancient creatures.
- A new title, Adolescent Health, and a new edition of Psychology & Behavioral Health are sure to enhance your consumer health collection.
- A new edition of Forensic Science offers new information on the latest developments in this popular field.
- Plus, we have added several pages to this catalog of some of the most popular Grey House Titles that you won't want to miss.

www.salempress.com

And of course, visit our website, which describes these titles and more. The site is a great tool for exploring the wide range of top-notch curriculum support materials for which Salem Press—now in its 64th year—is so highly noted.

SALEM PRESS

1

is proud to announce its

NEW ONLINE DATABASE PLATFORM

<http://online.salempress.com>

The new home for Salem Press' award-winning collection of Literature, History, Science, Health and Careers Titles!

The new site is loaded with new features:

- ONE PLATFORM for all of your Salem Press content makes cross-database searching quick & easy
- A New SUBJECT INDEX to view all of your Salem Press titles arranged by subject category
- STUDENTS CAN CREATE THEIR OWN FOLDER to Save Articles, Take Notes, and Save Citations
- CITATIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE IN THREE FORMATS: MLA, APA and Chicago Manual of Style
- ADVANCED SEARCH options to easily Filter and Refine Searches

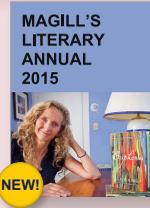

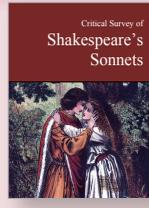

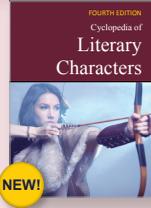

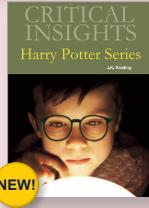

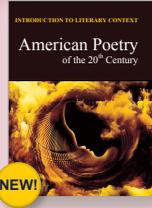

ONLINE ACCESS IS FREE WITH YOUR PRINT PURCHASE

- Unlimited Number of Users & Remote Access Included
- Easy to Access Usage Statistics
- Fully Illustrated
- New Orders and Past Purchases Qualify. Call (800) 221-1592 to activate titles already in your collection!

DEMO THE NEW DATABASE IN YOUR LIBRARY TODAY!

Call (800) 221-1592 to see how this amazing content can benefit your collection

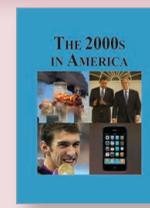

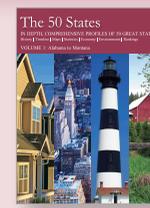

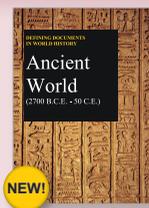

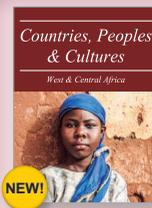

Literature

Examines American and international literature, novelists, poets, and short stories, as well as how they relate to their plots and themes.

Introduction to Literary Context	6	Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore	31
Critical Insights: Collection Bundles.....	9	Critical Survey of Graphic Novels	32
Critical Insights: Authors	10	Critical Survey of Short Fiction.....	34
Critical Insights: Works.....	17	Critical Survey of Poetry.....	36
Critical Insights: Themes	22	Critical Survey of Long Fiction	38
Cyclopaedia of Literary Characters.....	27	Critical Survey of Mystery & Detective Fiction	40
Magill's Literary Annual	28	Classics of Science Fiction & Fantasy	40
Masterplots	28	Notable American Novelists	41
Critical Surveys of Literature	29	Magill's Survey of American Literature.....	41
Critical Survey of Shakespeare's Sonnets	30	Magill's Survey of World Literature	41

History & Social Science

Salem Press' history and social science titles include a wide range of topics spanning American history and the world. In these information-packed pages, students and researchers can explore important moments and figures that defined world history.

Countries, Peoples & Cultures	42	Milestone Documents	52
Defining Documents: Ancient World	44	Decades Series	53
Defining Documents: Middle Ages.....	45	This is Who We Were Series	56
Defining Documents: American West.....	47	Working Americans Series	57
Defining Documents: World War I.....	49	Great Events from History	58
Defining Documents: The 1920s	50	Great Lives from History	60
Defining Documents: The 1930s	50	Issues in U.S. Immigration	65
Defining Documents: World War II	51	The 50 States	66
Defining Documents: Post War 1940s	51	Popular History Titles from Grey House.....	71

Science, Careers & Mathematics

Explores various fields in science, including medicine and the environment, a wide variety of careers and everything under the sun.

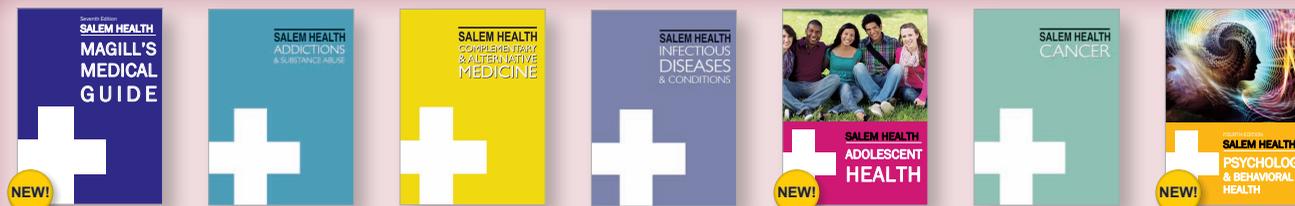

Careers & Contemporary Biographies Series

in Human Services	72
in Technical Services & Equipment Repair	72
in Environment & Conservation	73
in Business.....	74
in Hospitality & Tourism	75
in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services.....	76
in Communications & Media.....	77
in Healthcare.....	78
in Physics.....	79
in Chemistry	80
Innovators.....	81
Popular Careers Titles from Grey House.....	83

Science & Mathematics

Ancient Creatures Unearthed.....	85
Forensic Science.....	86
Biomes & Ecosystems.....	87
Earth Science	88
Encyclopedia of Environmental Issues.....	90
Encyclopedia of Global Warming	91
Encyclopedia of Global Resources	91
Encyclopedia of Energy.....	92
Applied Science	93
Encyclopedia of Mathematics & Society.....	94
Popular Environmental Science Titles from Grey House.....	96

Health

A comprehensive collection of titles that covers all aspects of human health, from addictions to diseases to psychology and our award-winning medical guide.

Adolescent Health	97	Infectious Diseases & Conditions.....	101
Magill's Medical Guide.....	98	Genetics	102
Addictions & Substance Abuse.....	99	Cancer.....	102
Psychology & Behavioral Health	100	Popular Health Titles from Grey House.....	104
Complementary & Alternative Medicine	101

TITLE	Page
2000s in America	53
50 States	66
Addictions & Substance Abuse	99
Adolescent Health	97
African American History	70
Agriculture in History	95
American Ethnic Writers	40
American First Ladies	67
American Heroes	67
American Indian Biographies	64
American Indian Culture	64
American Indian History	64
American Indian Tribes	64
American Presidents	67
American Villains	67
Ancient Creatures	85
Ancient Greece	70
Applied Science	93
Applied Science: Engineering & Mathematics	93
Applied Science: Science & Medicine	93
Applied Science: Technology	93
Bill of Rights, The	68
Biomes and Ecosystems	87
Cancer	102
Careers in Business	74
Careers in Chemistry	80
Careers in Communications & Media	77
Careers in Environment & Conservation	73
Careers in Healthcare	78
Careers in Hospitality & Tourism	75
Careers in Human Services	72
Careers in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services	76
Careers in Physics	79
Careers in Technical Services & Equipment Repair	72
Careers Titles from Grey House	83
Classics of Science Fiction & Fantasy Literature	40
Cold War, The	69
Complementary & Alternative Medicine	101
Computer Technology Innovators	81
Contemporary Biographies in Business	74
Contemporary Biographies in Chemistry	80
Contemporary Biographies in Communications & Media	77
Contemporary Biographies in Environment & Conservation	73
Contemporary Biographies in Healthcare	78
Contemporary Biographies in Hospitality & Tourism	75
Contemporary Biographies in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services	76
Contemporary Biographies in Physics	79
Countries, Peoples & Cultures	42
Critical Insights: Authors	10
Critical Insights: New Literary Collection Bundles	9
Critical Insights: Themes	22
Critical Insights: Works	17
Critical Survey of Drama	41
Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Heroes & Superheroes	32
Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: History, Theme & Technique	33
Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Independents & Underground Classics	32
Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Manga	33
Critical Survey of Long Fiction	38
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: African American Culture	38
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Asian Novelists	38
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: English Novelists	38
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: French Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Gothic Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Irish Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Latin American Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Native American Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Naturalist Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Novelists with Feminist Themes	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Russian Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Science Fiction Novelists	39
Critical Survey of Mystery & Detective Fiction	40
Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: Heroes and Heroines	31
Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: Love, Sexuality & Desire	31
Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: World Mythology	31
Critical Survey of Poetry	36
Critical Survey of Poetry: American Poets	37
Critical Survey of Poetry: British, Irish & Commonwealth Poets	37
Critical Survey of Poetry: European Poets	37
Critical Survey of Poetry: Topical Essays	37
Critical Survey of Poetry: World Poets	37
Critical Survey of Shakespeare's Sonnets	30
Critical Survey of Short Fiction	34
Critical Survey of Short Fiction: American Writers	35
Critical Survey of Short Fiction: British, Irish & Commonwealth Writers	35
Critical Survey of Short Fiction: European Writers	35
Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Topical Essays	35
Critical Survey of Short Fiction: World Writers	35
Cyclopedia of Literary Characters	27
Defining Documents: 1920s	50
Defining Documents: 1930s	50
Defining Documents: American Revolution	46
Defining Documents: American West	47
Defining Documents: Ancient World	44
Defining Documents: Civil War	48
Defining Documents: Emergence of Modern America	47
Defining Documents: Exploration & Colonial America ..	46
Defining Documents: Manifest Destiny	46
Defining Documents: Middle Ages	45
Defining Documents: Post War 1940s	51
Defining Documents: Reconstruction Era	48
Defining Documents: World War I	49
Defining Documents: World War II	51
Earth Science	88
Earth Science: Earth Materials & Resources	89
Earth Science: Earth's Surface and History	89
Earth Science: Physics & Chemistry of the Earth	89
Earth Science: Weather, Water & Atmosphere	89
Eighties in America	55
Encyclopedia of American Immigration	64
Encyclopedia of Energy	92
Encyclopedia of Environmental Issues	90
Encyclopedia of Global Resources	91
Encyclopedia of Global Warming	91
Encyclopedia of Mathematics and Society	94
Encyclopedia of the Ancient World	70

*New Titles

TITLE	Page	TITLE	Page
Environmental Science Titles from Grey House.....	96	Introduction to Literary Context: World Literature.....	7
Fifties in America.....	54	Issues in U.S. Immigration.....	65
Forensic Science.....	86	Magill's Encyclopedia of Science: Animal Life.....	95
Forties in America.....	54	Magill's Encyclopedia of Science: Plant Life.....	95
Genetics & Inherited Conditions.....	102	Magill's Guide to Military History.....	69
Great Athletes.....	62	Magill's Literary Annual 2015.....	28
Great Events from History: 17th Century.....	58	Magill's Medical Guide.....	98
Great Events from History: 18th Century.....	59	Magill's Survey of American Literature.....	41
Great Events from History: 19th Century.....	59	Magill's Survey of World Literature.....	41
Great Events from History: 20th Century.....	59	Masterplots.....	28
Great Events from History: Ancient World.....	58	Masterplots II: African American Literature.....	40
Great Events from History: Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender Events.....	59	Masterplots II: Christian Literature.....	40
Great Events from History: Middle Ages.....	58	Masterplots II: Drama Series.....	41
Great Events from History: Modern Scandals.....	59	Masterplots II: Short Story Series.....	41
Great Events from History: Renaissance & Early Modern Era.....	58	Milestone Documents in African American History.....	52
Great Lives from History: 17th Century.....	63	Milestone Documents in American History.....	52
Great Lives from History: 18th Century.....	63	Milestone Documents in World History.....	52
Great Lives from History: 19th Century.....	63	Milestone Documents of American Leaders.....	52
Great Lives from History: 20th Century.....	63	Milestone Documents of World Religions.....	52
Great Lives from History: African Americans.....	62	Musicians & Composers 20th Century.....	62
Great Lives from History: Ancient World.....	63	Nineties in America.....	55
Great Lives from History: Asian & Pacific Islander Americans.....	61	Notable African American Writers.....	40
Great Lives from History: Incredibly Wealthy.....	62	Notable American Novelists.....	41
Great Lives from History: Inventors & Inventions.....	62	Notable Natural Disasters.....	95
Great Lives from History: Jewish Americans.....	61	Notable Playwrights.....	41
Great Lives from History: Latinos.....	61	Psychology & Behavioral Health.....	100
Great Lives from History: Middle Ages.....	63	Psychology Basics.....	100
Great Lives from History: Renaissance & Early Modern Era.....	63	Seventies in America.....	55
Great Lives from History: Scientists & Science.....	61	Short Story Writers.....	41
Health Titles from Grey House.....	103	Sixties in America.....	55
Historical Encyclopedia of American Business.....	82	Solar System, The.....	90
History Titles from Grey House.....	71	Survey of American Industry and Careers.....	82
Holocaust Literature.....	40	Thirties in America.....	54
Infectious Diseases & Conditions.....	101	This is Who We Were Series.....	56
Internet Innovators.....	81	Twenties in America.....	54
Introduction to Literary Context: American Poetry.....	6	U.S. Court Cases.....	68
Introduction to Literary Context: American Post-Modernist Novels.....	7	U.S. Laws, Acts & Treaties.....	68
Introduction to Literary Context: American Short Fiction.....	7	U.S. Legal System.....	68
Introduction to Literary Context: English Literature.....	7	U.S. Supreme Court.....	68
Introduction to Literary Context: Plays.....	6	United States at War, The.....	69
		USA in Space.....	70
		Weapons and Warfare.....	69
		Working Americans Series.....	57
		World Conflicts: Asia and the Middle East.....	69

*New Titles

Don't Forget!

Buy the print and get Free Online Access to almost all of these titles on Salem Press' Award Winning Online Database <http://online.salempress.com>.

Now, all of your Salem Content is searchable in One Site!
<http://online.salempress.com>

literature

history

science

health

careers

Introduction to Literary Context

Designed to introduce high school and undergraduate students on how to approach literary content, these volumes are a valuable forerunner to the more in-depth critical analysis provided in Salem's Critical Insights series. Indeed, many of the novels, authors, and themes covered in Introduction to Literary Context have a companion Critical Insights volume for continued study.

NEW SERIES!

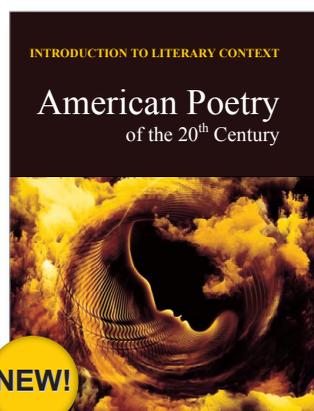

GIVE YOUR STUDENTS AND RESEARCHERS ACCESS TO IMPORTANT CRITICAL ANALYSIS OF CLASSIC AMERICAN, ENGLISH AND WORLD LITERATURE

The Introduction to Literary Context series is designed to introduce students to the world's greatest works of literature—including novels, short fictions, novellas, plays and poems – not only placing them in the historical, societal, scientific and religious context of their time, but illuminating key concepts and vocabulary that students are likely to encounter. A great starting point from which to embark on further research, each essay is designed to deepen the understanding of the work and its author and encourage critical analysis and discussion.

Essays examine each work through the following categories:

Content Synopsis • Religious Context • Historical Context • Societal Context • Biographical • Context • Scientific & Technological Context • Discussion Questions • Essay Ideas • Also includes Works Cited, General Bibliography and General Index

The Introduction to Literary Context provides a wide variety of criticism in each volume, to help students and researchers explore literary classics and further develop their critical analysis skills. This new series will be a must-have addition to all high school and undergraduate literature departments.

NEW!

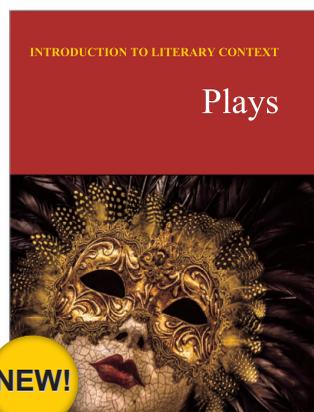

Introduction to Literary Context: American Poetry of the 20th Century

Introduction to Literary Context: American Poetry of the 20th Century examines over 33 diverse poetic works published by significant American male and female poets of the 20th Century. The essays in this title touch upon various themes such as nature, death, feminism, religion, magical realism, war, love, and more from over 20 authors like Langston Hughes, Elizabeth Bishop, Allen Ginsberg, and Sylvia Plath to name a few.

This collection of poetic criticism will give students and researchers a comprehensive synopsis and understanding of not only the piece provided, but on the context and author who wrote it. This volume is a great aid for students to learn critical analysis and discussion skills necessary for dissecting literature.

December 2014 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-713-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-714-6 | $165

NEW!

Introduction to Literary Context: Plays

Introduction to Literary Context: Plays examines 31 plays from pivotal playwrights from the 17th to the 20th centuries by providing in-depth critical analysis of each work, including its historical context and meaning. Works from over 20 authors like Lorraine Hansberry, T.S. Eliot, Samuel Beckett, Anton Chekov, and more are critiqued. Each essay, written by a literary scholar, offers readers invaluable insight into the author's oeuvre.

Delve into George Bernard Shaw's London social commentary play Pygmalion or American playwright Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman, a realistic portrayal of 1940s American life, and everything in-between with this comprehensive resource on notable plays created in the last 300 years.

Instructors will welcome the discussion questions that encourage students to take the reading one step further, while students will appreciate the essay ideas and in-depth look into societal, religious, historical, biographical, scientific and technological context within the most popular and most widely-studied plays throughout history.

November 2014 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-715-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-716-0 | $165

Introduction to Literary Context

Introduction to Literary Context: English Literature

English Literature covers 31 works – novels, short stories, and poems—written by English authors, published between 1516 and 2003. Coverage includes the most studied works of English Literature, both historical and contemporary, in high school and undergraduate college literature programs. The authors in this collection – 6 women and 18 men – represent a variety of ages, life styles, and political beliefs, including those whose work has been banned, burned, and revered.

With in depth analysis of works by the likes of Charles Dickens, Charlotte Brontë, H. G. Wells, Salman Rushdie, J. K. Rowling, Rudyard Kipling and Roald Dahl, Introduction to Literary Context: English Literature offers students the tools to grasp more firmly and dig deeper into the meanings of not only the works covered here, but English literature as a whole.

April 2014 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-485-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-486-2 | $165

Introduction to Literary Context: World Literature

World Literature covers 41 works—novels, short stories, and poems—written by authors from around the world, published between 1719 and 2003. The titles analyzed here spawned from authors representing England, Ireland, Poland, Denmark, and more, yet the concerns and fears presented in these works, as well as numerous others included in this collection, are universal. Their stories are based on real life experiences and struggles, and explore alienation, science fiction, and the evils of society.

With in-depth analysis of works by Daniel Defoe, Voltaire, Isak Dinesen, Isabel Allende, Roy Arundhati, Gabriel García Márquez, Joseph Conrad, Thomas Keneally, Christopher Koch, and Franz Kafka, Introduction to Literary Context: World Literature offers students the tools to delve further into the meanings of these important works.

May 2014 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-483-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-484-8 | $165

Introduction to Literary Context: American Post-Modernist Novels

American Post-Modernist Novels covers 37 novels published between 1960 and 2000. The list of authors is diverse – including male, female, African Americans, Latin Americans and Native Americans. The writers whose works are represented in this collection provide prime examples of the overriding sense of delusion, rejection and empty spiritualism that permeated American novels beginning in the 1950s.

But who better than the likes of John Updike, Kurt Vonnegut, Toni Morrison, Barbara Kingslover, Margaret Atwood, Don DeLillo, Sylvia Plath, Julia Alvarez, and Anita Diamant to tell stories of vulnerable characters in non-traditional roles, living lives that are difficult and challenging? This volume is postmodern literature at its best. This collection of criticism will provide students and researchers with a better understanding of American Post-Modernist literature—its significance, meaning and context—through an in-depth study of a wide variety of its best and most-studied works.

October 2013 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-210-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-211-0 | $165

Introduction to Literary Context: American Short Fiction

“Recommended... will be helpful to literature teachers, students and fiction readers by giving information that supplements other literary criticism. A recommended purchase for public, school and college libraries.” –Booklist

American Short Fiction covers 40 works written by American and Canadian authors published in the 19th and 20th centuries. The list of authors is diverse, including Edgar Allan Poe, considered one of the first short story writers, Antigua—American author Jamaica Kincaid, and Pulitzer Prize winner Alice Munro, considered the master of the contemporary short story, along with Ambrose Bierce, William Faulkner, Flannery O'Connor, Jack London, J.D. Salinger, John Cheever, Zora Neale Hurston, Eudora Welty, Raymond Carver and Lorrie Moore. A concentrated form of narrative prose fiction, short fiction holds all the wonders of novels. In these pages, students and researchers will discover the vast range of styles, themes and approaches used in these important works to gain a better understanding of their meaning and significance.

October 2013 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-212-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-213-4 | $165

Thoughtful and accessible to high school and college students, these essays open the door to critical thinking and analysis that is a cornerstone for Common Core state standards as well as for success at the college level.

This popular series distills the best of both classic and current literary criticism of the world's most-studied literature. Each volume in the series focuses on an individual author's entire body of work, on a single work of literature or on a popular literary theme. Critical Insights provides authoritative, accessible yet in-depth insights and analysis suitable for students and teachers alike. Students come away with an enriched sense of the many ways the authors, works or themes can be approached and appreciated, written about and talked about, making these important connections themselves with easy-to-use guidance.

Each volume contains 10-14 essays offering the following critical analysis of the Author, Work or Theme. Each essay is 5,000 words in length, and most essays conclude with supporting bibliographic information.

Critical Contexts - presents four original essays by current scholars.

Critical Lens: offers a close reading of the author, work or theme from a particular critical standpoint, from traditional (stylistic, new critical, or structural) to post-modern (feminist, social cultural, or new historical).

Cultural & Historical Context: addresses how the time period influenced the author, work or theme, as well as what makes the content relevant to today's audience.

Compare/Contrast: analyzes the author, work or theme in the light of another work or author.

Critical Reception: reviews the major concerns that critics of the author, work or theme have attended to over the years.

Critical Readings - presents a collection of essays written by renowned scholars of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. These essays round out the perspectives offered by the Critical Contexts section—providing full coverage of all the key issues and interpretations.

Appendices: finally, the volume's appendices offer a section of useful reference resources:

- In Authors & Works: Biography of the Author covered
- In Themes: A Complete List of Works
- A General Bibliography
- A Subject Index
- A Detailed Biography on the Volume's Editor
- Notes on the Individual Chapter Authors

In addition, every title in the Critical Insights series comes with complimentary online access via Salem Literature online. Each volume online provides in-depth, authoritative coverage of a specific author, work or theme.

“Overall, a fresh take on the classics and an excellent choice.”
—School Library Journal

“This is a valuable addition to academic libraries supporting literature students at both the undergraduate and the graduate level as it presents different views and more in-depth articles than those found in such series as “Bloom,” “Literary Criticism,” and “Contemporary Literary Criticism.”
—Library Journal

“This product more than justifies the cost for high school or university libraries needing this type of critical literature information.”
—ARBA

“Students who need a range of critical material in one source will find it here.”
—School Library Journal

“Recommended for school and public libraries.”
—Gale

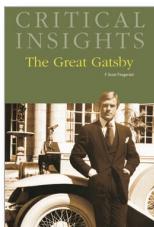

“The diversity of the works studied and variety of critical approaches taken in the volumes in this series help make it a lively and most worthwhile compendium... Highly recommended.”
—Library Journal

New Critical Insights Collection Bundles!

An ideal way to access the rich content in the Critical Insights series, at considerable savings.

Great Movies/Great Books

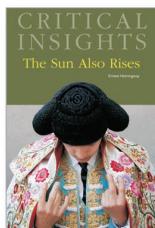

- All Quiet on the Western Front
- Brave New World
- Coming of Age
- Cormac McCarthy
- Dracula
- Dystopia
- Great Expectations
- Jane Austen
- Jane Eyre
- Pride & Prejudice
- The Great Gatsby
- The Joy Luck Club
- The Sun Also Rises
- To Kill a Mockingbird

14 Titles | $1064 | Save $266

Great American Novels

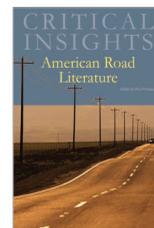

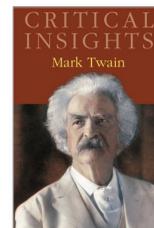

- Absalom! Absalom!
- I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings
- Moby Dick
- Slaughterhouse-Five
- The Awakening
- The Catcher in the Rye
- The Grapes of Wrath
- The Great Gatsby
- The Red Badge of Courage
- The Sound and the Fury
- The Sun Also Rises
- To Kill a Mockingbird

12 Titles | $912 | Save $228

Great American Writers

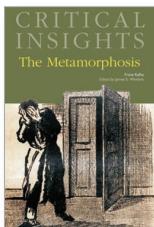

- American Identity
- American Road Literature
- American Short Story
- Arthur Miller
- Benjamin Franklin
- Cormac McCarthy
- Ernest Hemingway
- F. Scott Fitzgerald
- Herman Melville
- Jack London
- James Baldwin
- John Cheever
- John Steinbeck
- John Updike
- Kurt Vonnegut
- Mark Twain
- Midwestern Literature
- Nathaniel Hawthorne
- Philip Roth
- Raymond Carver
- Saul Bellow
- Southern Gothic Literature
- Stephen King
- Tennessee Williams
- The American Thriller
- Toni Morrison
- William Faulkner

27 Titles | $2052 | Save $513

Classics of World Literature

- A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man
- Albert Camus
- All Quiet on the Western Front
- Cultural Encounters
- James Joyce
- King Lear
- Literature of Protest
- Metamorphosis
- Midnight's Children
- One Hundred Years of Solitude
- Russia's Golden Age
- Salman Rushdie
- The Aeneid
- The Canterbury Tales
- The Hero's Quest
- The Inferno
- Things Fall Apart
- War & Peace

18 Titles | $1368 | Save $342

Bestsellers

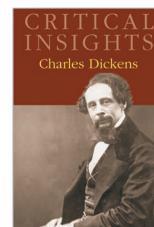

- Arthur Miller
- Dystopia
- Emily Dickinson
- F. Scott Fitzgerald
- Flannery O'Connor
- Good & Evil
- John Steinbeck
- Mark Twain
- Sherman Alexie
- The Canterbury Tales
- The Catcher in the Rye
- The Grapes of Wrath
- The Great Gatsby
- The Hero's Quest
- The Poetry of Edgar Allan Poe
- Things Fall Apart
- To Kill a Mockingbird

17 Titles | $1292 | Save $323

Great British Novels & Writers

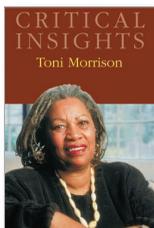

- Charles Dickens
- Dracula
- George Orwell
- Great Expectations
- Jane Austen
- Jane Eyre
- Mrs. Dalloway
- Pride and Prejudice

8 Titles | $608 | Save $152

Great African-American Writers

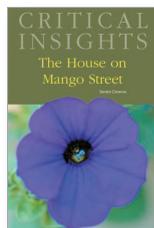

- Alice Walker
- I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings
- James Baldwin
- Langston Hughes
- The Slave Narrative
- Toni Morrison
- Zora Neale Hurston

7 Titles | $532 | Save $133

Latin American Voices

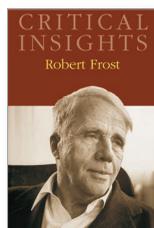

- Cultural Encounters
- Gabriel Garcia Marquez
- Isabel Allende
- Mario Vargas Llosa
- One Hundred Years of Solitude
- The House on Mango Street

6 Titles | $456 | Save $114

The Great Poets

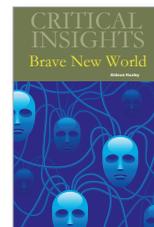

- Gwendolyn Brooks
- Robert Frost
- Sylvia Plath
- T.S. Eliot
- The Bell Jar
- Poetry of Baudelaire
- Poetry of Edgar Allan Poe

7 Titles | $532 | Save $133

Science Fiction

- Brave New World
- Contemporary Speculative Fiction
- Dystopia
- Fahrenheit 451
- Harlan Ellison
- Margaret Atwood
- Stephen King
- Technology & Humanity
- The Fantastic
- The Handmaid's Tale

10 Titles | $760 | Save $190

Choose Your Own Collection!

Of course, you can custom select your own collection of Critical Insights that is specific to your courses this year. The Collections above are only a start to the many different approaches and paths to the study of literature.

- Buy 2-5 Titles, Save 5%
- Buy 6-10 Titles, Save 10%
- Buy 11 or more Titles, Save 20%

AND GET FREE ONLINE ACCESS WITH YOUR PRINT BUY!

- Free Online Access
- Unlimited Simultaneous Users
- Remote Access
- Get Instant Access Online when you order!

<http://online.salempress.com>

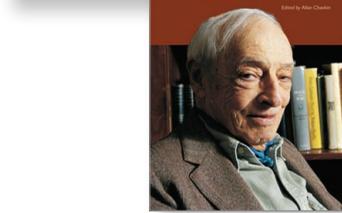

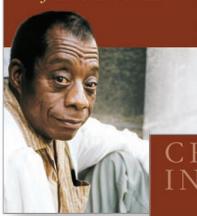

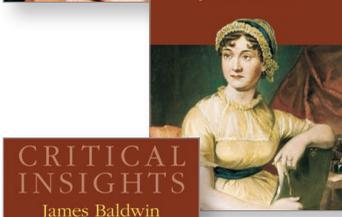

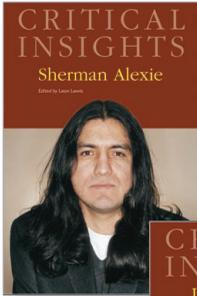

Critical Insights: Authors

Provides a comprehensive critical analysis of the most popular and routinely studied classroom works.

“Each meticulously referenced volume is devoted to a single classic... Overall, a fresh take on the classics and an excellent choice.”
—School Library Journal

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

Sherman Alexie

Noticed initially as a Native American author, Sherman Alexie has since achieved a reputation as a significant figure in the American literary landscape. Original essays include a comparison of Alexie's The Lone Ranger and Tonto Fistfight in Heaven to Jhumpa Lahiri's Interpreter of Maladies, along with Reservation Blues, The Summer of the Black Widows, and two films, Smoke Signals and The Business of Fancydancing.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-823-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-876-1 | $95

Isabel Allende

Readers have flocked to both Allende's fiction and her nonfiction, making her one of the best-selling women novelists in the world today. This volume brings together a variety of essays on the phases of her career, her growth as a writer, Allende's relation to magical realism, along with a comprehensive biography.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-699-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-700-9 | $95

Margaret Atwood

This Critical Insights volume discusses Margaret Atwood, one of Canada's best-known contemporary authors. Essays include a brief biography, a discussion of the critical reception of Atwood's work, her use of myth, and the themes of Gothicism, spirituality and trauma that recur throughout her work. Works discussed include The Handmaid's Tale, Oryx and Crake, and her mostly widely read short stories and poetry collections.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3721-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3769-9 | $95

Jane Austen

This collection brings together a selection of recent representative critical essays on Austen from a variety of perspectives. After opening with several short introductory essays, the volume moves on to consider Austen's critical contexts through a series of wide-ranging overviews of her life and works.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-638-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-639-2 | $95

James Baldwin

Although James Baldwin today holds a secure position in the canon of twentieth-century literature, more than twenty years after his death, he still remains one of America's most evasive authors. The body of his work is wide-ranging, complex, and occasionally contradictory, the product of a mind in a tireless dialogue with itself and its paradoxical and swiftly changing culture.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-701-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-702-3 | $95

Saul Bellow *Nobel Prize winner

Using a variety of literary approaches, essays examine all of Bellow's full-length novels and two of the most important novellas, Seize the Day and The Bellasrosa Connection. Additional essays examine his best collection of shorter works, Him with His Foe in His Mouth and Other Stories, and early stories, "Looking for Mr. Green," and "Something to Remember Me By."

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-824-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-877-6 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Gwendolyn Brooks

Essays pay tribute to Gwendolyn Brooks' legacy: her sustained dialectic with American historical events, cultural complexities of racial segregation, the Black Arts movement, rejection of the status quo in society, open critique of history and its chroniclers, and revisions of traditional literary forms as a means to incorporate a neglected black experience and contribution into American history and letters.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-632-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-633-0 | $95

Albert Camus *Nobel Prize winner

Essays discuss the reception of Camus's oeuvre, themes that have inspired discussion, points of continuing controversy, and Camus's own reaction to his hostile critics. Also discussed is his most famous work, The Stranger.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-825-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-878-5 | $95

Raymond Carver

Raymond Carver made the short story a viable literary form. Both as a model and as a teacher, he had such an influence on younger fiction writers that author Jay McInerney could truthfully say (alluding to a famous statement that Fyodor Dostoevski made about Nikolai Gogol) that there is hardly a single American short-story writer younger than Carver who did not "come out of Carver's overcoat."

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3830-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3846-7 | $95

Willa Cather

Original essays discuss Cather's cultural position and her use of radical new literary techniques. Other essays analyze the role of the protagonist in Cather's O Pioneers!, as well as a comparison of One of Ours to F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby in light of the themes of the waste land and the Holy Grail.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-826-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-879-2 | $95

John Cheever

Essays discuss the basic facts of Cheever's life and critical reputation, a man prone to self-invention and self-mythologizing. Though his version of his life was long accepted as fact, after his death it has been complicated by unflattering revelations in his daughter's memoirs, his published journals and two biographies. Other essays discuss Cheever's decorous style, fragmented structure, and fascination with language.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-827-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-880-8 | $95

Charles Dickens

This volume in the Critical Insights series brings together a variety of new, classic, and contemporary essays on Dickens's most widely read works. Essays celebrate Dickens's dramatic and imaginative powers; his characters' "capacity to achieve selflessness in love" despite their grim surroundings, and Dickens's realism and childlike awe of the world.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-691-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-692-7 | $95

Emily Dickinson

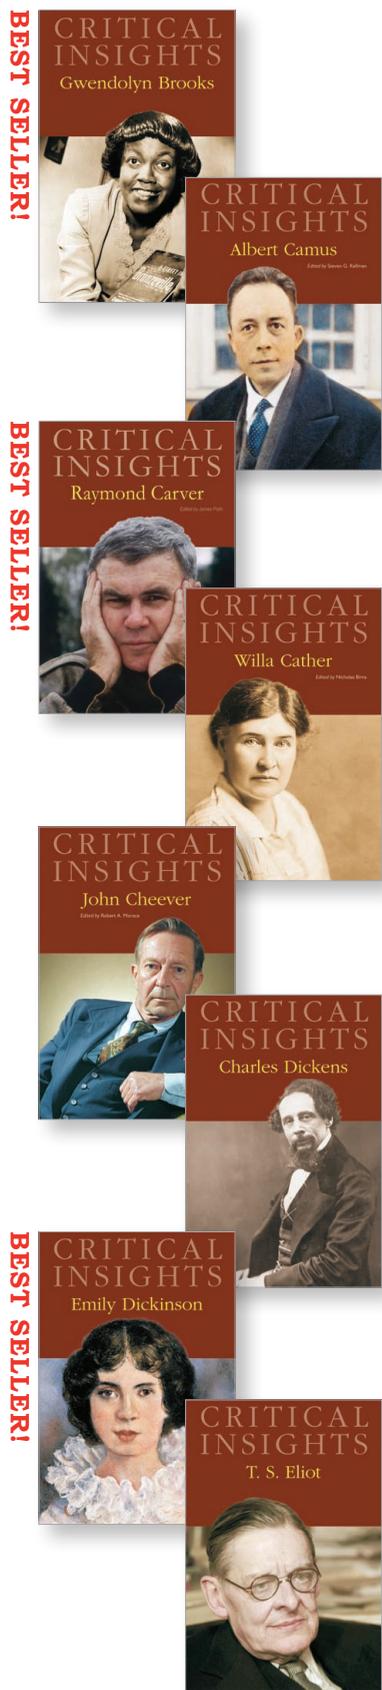

Emily Dickinson's poetry, letters, and life have astounded readers and scholars alike for more than one hundred years. Dickinson wrote some of the world's most original, enigmatic, and expansive poems. By turns strangely intimate, witty, sardonic, ebullient, and frighteningly sublime, the poems have fascinated generations of readers and generated endless speculation about the poet's mind and life.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-695-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-696-5 | $95

T. S. Eliot *Nobel Prize winner

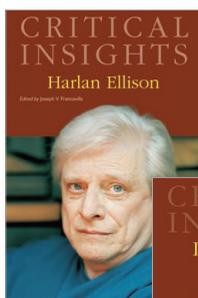

This collection provides a variety of materials to approach this influential writer: overviews of his career and his importance; relevant contexts, critical reception and interpretive choices; a critical analysis of Eliot's writing, his drama, and the whole range of his poetry from early to late in his career.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-606-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-607-1 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

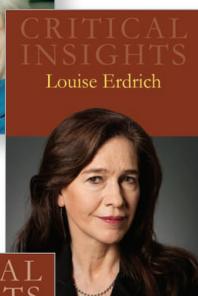

Harlan Ellison

Essays discuss Ellison's relationship with the science fiction and fantasy community, his sense that mainstream critics slighted his work, and his easy postmodern accommodation of popular culture references and images. Essays also compare Ellison's vision of dystopian hell with Cormac McCarthy's, and examine the underlying mythological and psychological themes of Ellison's works.

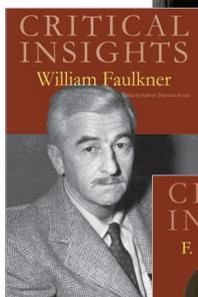

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-828-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-881-5 | $95

Louise Erdrich

One of the great Native American novelists, Erdrich is known for her strong attachment to the people and places of her native North Dakota, her carefully constructed plots, and her wonderfully complex characters. This volume discusses her life and several of her works: Love Medicine, The Antelope Wife, The Beet Queen, The Bingo Palace, and The Plague of Doves.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3723-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3771-2 | $95

William Faulkner *Nobel Prize winner

When William Faulkner received the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1949, he completed an emergence from comparative obscurity. Since then, Faulkner has achieved the status of a world author and, perhaps, more critical books and articles have been written about him in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries than about any other writer with the exception of William Shakespeare.

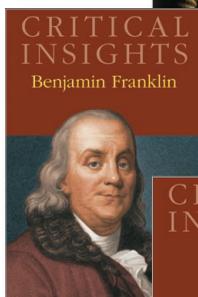

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3828-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3844-3 | $95

F. Scott Fitzgerald

This volume continues the work of rehabilitating Fitzgerald's reputation and reexamining his work. Essays examine Fitzgerald's enduring relevance, pointing out how the major themes persisting across his work—wealth, success, love, youth, and tragedy—are also enduring themes within the American consciousness.

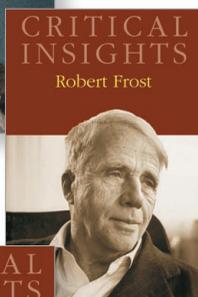

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-693-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-694-1 | $95

Benjamin Franklin

This collection brings together representative essays from a variety of critical perspectives, to give some sense of Franklin's achievement but also to draw attention to some of the inconsistencies, contradictions, and even failings, that made him who he was. Essays examine Franklin from many points of view, to develop a composite portrait of the man and his works.

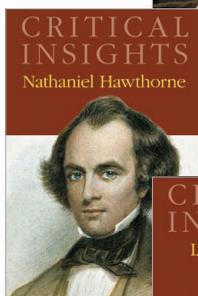

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-640-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-641-5 | $95

Robert Frost

Essays bring together a wide range of approaches to Frost's poetry. He was admired as homey and straightforward when modernist writing was often obscure; as a nature poet, an authentically American writer, when many modernists were cosmopolitan expatriates; and as an optimistic New England sage when his leading contemporaries produced dark, apocalyptic visions.

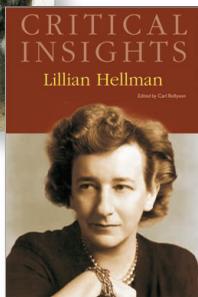

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-636-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-637-8 | $95

Nathaniel Hawthorne

Each essay is a valuable starting point for studying Hawthorne's work, and for suggesting avenues for further exploration. Hawthorne's critical and theoretical approaches, biography, psychology, and his historical and literary contexts are discussed, alongside his themes of mythology, politics, and theology, sin and Providence, the genres in which he wrote, and the shape of his career as a whole.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-604-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-605-7 | $95

Lillian Hellman

Essays address the controversial theme of lesbianism and the roles of good and evil in her most famous work, The Children's Hour. Other essays address the accuracy of the portrayal of the Civil War in The Little Foxes, a commentary on the comparison of Toys in the Attic to the plays of Tennessee Williams and the influence of the Cold War on Hellman's playwriting and politics.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-829-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-882-2 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Ernest Hemingway *Nobel Prize winner

Ernest Hemingway's public persona and reputation, literary style, affinity with modern painting, and conception of character are among the subjects of these essays on the author's life and work. Readers will be introduced to Hemingway's life, described by Petrina Crockford in The Paris Review as an "adventurous life as brash and uncompromising as that of his greatest characters."

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-630-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-631-6 | $95

Langston Hughes

Essays include a biographical sketch and four essays that survey the critical reception of Hughes' work and explore the cultural and historical contexts and key themes in his works. Other essays explore topics like Hughes' relations to the Harlem Renaissance, his portrayal of women and families, and his depictions of racial violence.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3724-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3772-9 | $95

Zora Neale Hurston

Zora Neale Hurston is recognized as a major contributor to the Harlem Renaissance literature of the 1920s and American modernist literature. Hurston's most important works, Mules and Men and Their Eyes Were Watching God, emerge from her interest in African American oral and vernacular culture. Hurston's interest in preserving the culture of the black South remains among her most valuable contributions.

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3831-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3847-4 | $95

James Joyce

From the beginning of his career, Joyce was the most distinctive figure in the renaissance that occurred in Irish cultural life after the death of Charles Stewart Parnell. From the first, he set himself to liberate Ireland by Europeanizing its cultural institutions. His early stories are an exorcism of the spirit of paralysis he felt about himself in the Dublin of his youth.

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3834-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3850-4 | $95

Stephen King

For nearly forty years, King has fed our imaginations with spooks and monsters, from telekinetic teenagers, vampires, and malevolent clowns to space aliens, crazed fans, haunted hotels, and our own psyches. Despite being one of the country's most commercially successful writers, critics have long been hesitant to welcome him into the pantheon of American literature.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-685-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-686-6 | $95

Barbara Kingsolver

This volume brings together a set of materials to serve both as an introduction to Barbara Kingsolver's writings and as a guide to scholarly readings of her work. The volume begins with a general introduction to Kingsolver's life and work that provides a context for the beginning reader.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-642-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-643-9 | $95

NEW!

Mario Vargas Llosa *Nobel Prize winner

Beginning with Time of the Hero to the recent El héroe discreto, Vargas Llosa has created an unusually vivid and complex fresco of Spain's twentieth and twenty first century's political and social evolution. The articles not only provide an introduction to the Nobel Prize winner's novels and essays, they also trace his artistic and political evolution, and place his works in their historical and cultural context.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-401-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-402-2 | $95

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

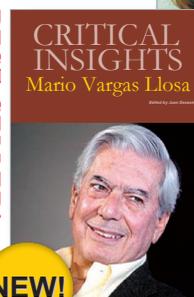

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

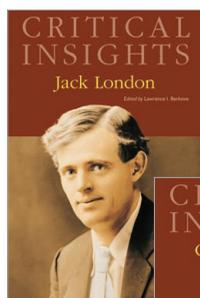

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

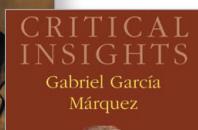

Jack London

Original essays include a discussion of the literary careers of Jack London and Mark Twain and a close examination of the critical reception of London's works. Other essays discuss London's use of Carl Jung's Psychology of the Unconscious, his use of naturalism in his early works and the themes of androgyny in his novels, along with a biography and brief description of his works.

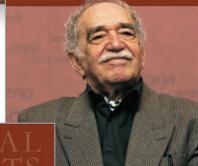

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-830-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-883-9 | $95

Gabriel García Márquez *Nobel Prize winner

This collection of essays introduces the reader to the life and works of this Nobel Prize winning author. With a biographical sketch and a wide range of critical analyses, this volume reaches far into García Márquez's oeuvre and offers a panoramic view of its principal motifs and obsessions.

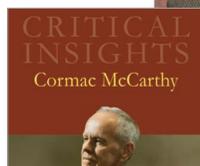

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-634-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-635-4 | $95

Cormac McCarthy

A great starting point for students seeking an introduction to Cormac McCarthy, this volume discusses McCarthy's life and rise to popularity, the critical responses to his work, and key themes surrounding his works. Titles discussed include The Orchard Keeper, The Crossing, No Country for Old Men, and The Road.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3725-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3773-6 | $95

Herman Melville

This volume discusses Herman Melville, one of America's preeminent writers. Essays include a brief biography, a discussion of the critical reception of his work, his views on faith and religion, and his responses to the issues of his day. Works discussed include Moby Dick, The Confidence Man, and Billy Bud, as well as selected poems.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3726-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3774-3 | $95

Arthur Miller

Among the 20th century's greatest playwrights, Arthur Miller is recognized as a formative influence on modern American drama. His best plays seamlessly combine the psychological and the social to produce riveting treatments of the fraught relationship between the individual and society. Original essays examine Miller's life, works and critical reception.

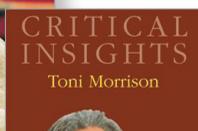

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-697-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-698-9 | $95

Toni Morrison *Nobel Prize winner

Morrison's works are dedicated to providing African Americans ways of defining and developing identity for themselves, their community, and their literary tradition. As towering and daunting as this purpose may be, Morrison has achieved even more. Creating literature about and for African Americans, Morrison gifts us with works that speak to and for all humankind.

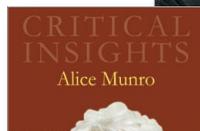

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-622-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-623-1 | $95

Alice Munro *Nobel Prize winner

Over more than forty years, Alice Munro's reputation has slowly grown to a point where she is today recognized as one of the finest living short story writers. This volume discusses this Nobel Prize winner's life and works, including The Beggar Maid, Friend of My Youth, Lives of Girls and Women, and The Love of a Good Woman.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3722-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3770-5 | $95

NEW! Tim O'Brien

This collection brings together a selection of recent representative critical essays on O'Brien from a variety of perspectives. After opening with several short introductory essays, the volume moves on to consider O'Brien's semi-autobiographical coverage of his experience in Vietnam and discusses O'Brien's most famous work, The Things They Carried, in addition to several of his other works.

January 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-421-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-422-0 | $95

NEW!

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Flannery O'Connor

This volume examines O'Connor's religious ideas, her narrative technique, her use of humor, the regional and social context of her fiction, and the religious context of "A Good Man is Hard to Find" and "Good Country People". Other essays explore O'Connor's use of humor in the story "Temple of the Holy Ghost" as well as her two short novels Wise Blood and The Violent Bear it Away.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-831-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-884-6 | $95

Eugene O'Neill *Nobel Prize winner

The only American dramatist to win the Nobel Prize for Literature, Eugene O'Neill was the dominant voice in American theatre throughout the 1920s and 1930s. This volume discusses his most popular plays, including Long Day's Journey into Night, Anna Christie, Strange Interlude and The Iceman Cometh.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3727-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3775-0 | $95

George Orwell

This volume presents a variety of new essays on the British writer. A biographical sketch relates the details of his life and four essays survey the critical reception and explore the cultural and historical contexts of Orwell's work. Other essays discuss his use of fable, satire, allegory, and his outlook on science and technology.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3728-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3776-7 | $95

Sylvia Plath

Plath won several major prizes in writing and her poems are considered today to be the most famous by an American female poet of the 20th Century, especially those in her 1965 collection Ariel. This volume presents a variety of new essays on the unconventional American poet, a unique, rare, rebellious and unexpected voice in American literature.

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3833-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3849-8 | $95

Philip Roth

Presents a variety of new essays on the Jewish-American writer, who stunned the literary world by announcing his retirement in November of 2012. Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the writer can explore a bevy of topics, such as major thematic trajectories in Roth's work, the author's use of autobiographical gestures, the mechanics of history in his works, and the author's style in his later writings and books.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3829-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3845-0 | $95

Salman Rushdie

A great starting point for students seeking an introduction to Salman Rushdie, this volume discusses Rushdie's life and rise to popularity, the critical response to his work, and key themes surrounding his works. Titles discussed include Midnight's Children, The Satanic Verses, The Ground Beneath her Feet, Shalimar the Clown, and Shame.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3729-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3777-4 | $95

John Steinbeck *Nobel Prize winner

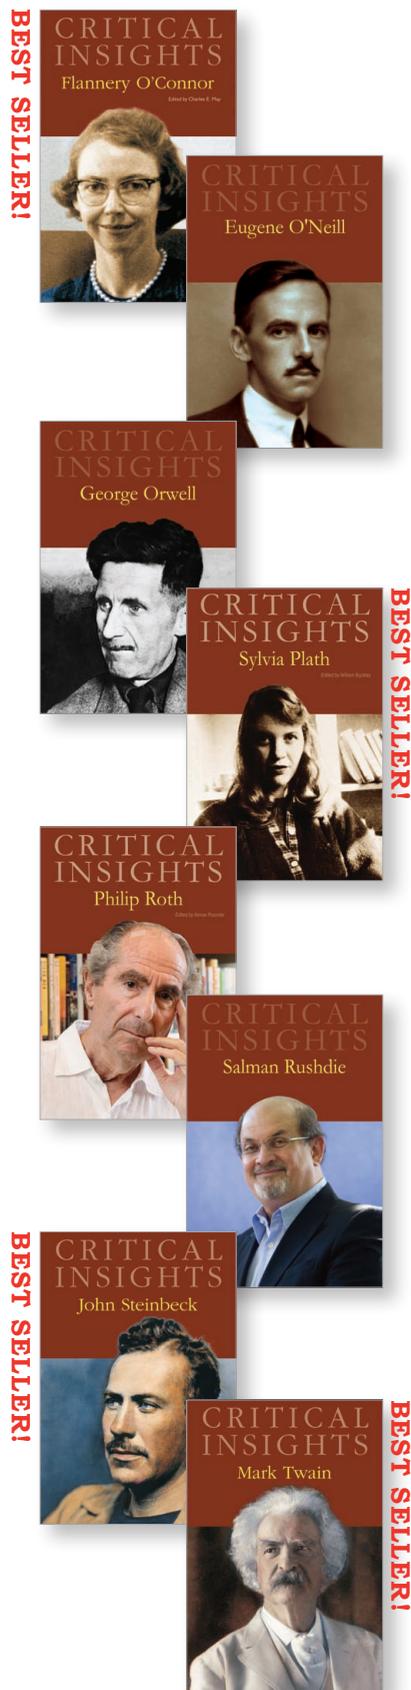

One of America's most important novelists, Steinbeck has been a favorite among readers for decades. A versatile, restless writer who constantly experimented with new forms and genres, he seems to offer something for everyone—whether rapturous descriptions of the California landscape, fierce denunciations of social injustices, simple morality tales, or picaresque adventure stories.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-703-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-704-7 | $95

Mark Twain

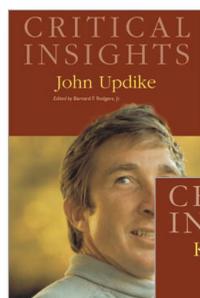

Mark Twain remains one of America's most beloved literary figures. Eminently quotable, his best writing combines irreverent humor with practical good sense and deep human feeling and, perhaps more so than the work of any other author, defines what it is to be an American. His most beloved novel, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, is a nostalgic paean to a simpler, more innocent America.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-689-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-690-3 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

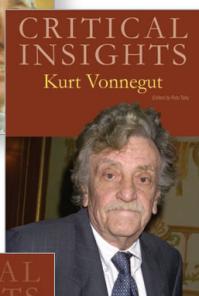

John Updike

Essays include a discussion of the social and historical context of Updike's work and a consideration of his recurrent Jewish-American character. The blocked writer Henry Bech is discussed as a vehicle for his creator to treat the relationship between an author and his work. Other essays discuss Updike's Harry "Rabbit" Angstrom novels, and his "Scarlet Letter Trilogy."

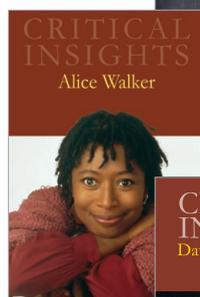

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-832-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-885-3 | $95

Kurt Vonnegut

Critical acclaim eluded Vonnegut until Slaughterhouse-Five was published in 1969. An immediate best seller, it earned the author respect from critics who had previously dismissed him as a mediocre science-fiction writer. Through his insightful and sympathetic treatment of the psychologically and morally crippled victims of the modern world, Vonnegut is one of the greatest humanist writers of his time.

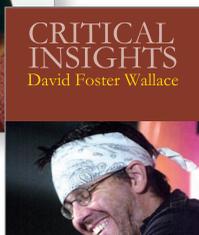

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3832-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3848-1 | $95

Alice Walker

Essays in this volume discuss a multitude of critical viewpoints about Walker's work. Topics include a discussion of her symbolism, metaphysics, and aesthetics; her views on feminism; and her responses to the issues of politics, slavery, poverty and sexism. Also included is a brief biography and a survey of Walker's critical reception.

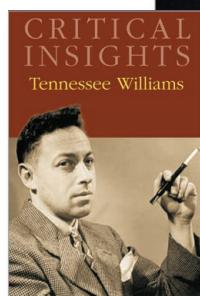

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3730-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3778-1 | $95

David Foster Wallace

American novelist, essayist, and short story writer David Foster Wallace was known for his experimental writing style influenced by contemporary American culture. Essays from his most noted works, including his critically acclaimed novel, Infinite Jest, survey the various themes that appear in his work such as his exploration of philosophy, meta-fiction, satire, psychology, and the irony of postmodernism.

February 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-513-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-514-2 | $95

Tennessee Williams

This volume brings together a variety of essays on Williams' life and works. The introduction considers Williams' concept of the "fugitive kind," the recurring figure of the persecuted artist, and how they are still granted respite in the temporary homes afforded by love. A brief biography of Williams follows, along with a new essay by Paris Review contributor Sasha Weiss.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-687-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-688-0 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

AND GET FREE ONLINE ACCESS WITH YOUR PRINT BUY!

- Free Online Access
- Unlimited Simultaneous Users
- Remote Access
- Get Instant Access Online when you order!

<http://online.salempress.com>

Critical Insights: Works

Provides a comprehensive critical analysis of the most popular and routinely studied classroom works.

“Each meticulously referenced volume is devoted to a single classic... Overall, a fresh take on the classics and an excellent choice.”
 –School Library Journal

Absalom, Absalom!, by William Faulkner

Original essays include a close reading of the novel from the critical standpoint of feminist theory, an analysis of the novel's cultural and historical context and a discussion of the critical reception of Absalom, Absalom! Additional essays provide a wide range of perspectives on such subjects as theme, protagonists, feminism, storytelling, race, style, Civil War, and time, among others.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-834-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-886-0 | $95

The Aeneid, by Vergil

Essays discuss many different aspects of Vergil's work, including the historical awareness of Rome's future greatness, the significant psychological and ethical questions on fate and free-will, personal glory versus responsibility by those who lead, and the profound influence The Aeneid has had on Christian authors such as St. Augustine and Dante Alighieri.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-835-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-837-7 | $95

All Quiet on the Western Front, by Erich Maria Remarque

“Finally, the truth about war,” reviewers proclaimed when this work was published, just ten years after the end of World War I. Shockingly direct, it paints a decidedly unromantic portrait of the war in which Remarque had briefly fought and quickly became an international sensation. And today, after eighty years and tens of millions of soldiers have died in wars, readers keep turning to the novel for answers.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-719-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-720-7 | $95

NEW!

The Awakening, by Kate Chopin

A landmark work of early feminism, The Awakening was censored for its depictions of female sexual desire and for a protagonist who resisted social norms and traditional gender roles. This work surveys the critical conversation regarding The Awakening from all standard critical perspectives – social, gender, post-modern, psychological, and cultural.

January 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-228-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-229-5 | $95

The Bell Jar, by Sylvia Plath

Essays take on a specific angle from which to examine the work, including a discussion of “nature vs. nurture” in the novel, while another discusses the similarities between Plath's work and Susanna Kaysen's Girl, Interrupted. Additional entries provide some of the finest scholarship on The Bell Jar, and offer a wide variety of critical approaches to this work.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-836-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-888-4 | $95

NEW!

Brave New World, by Aldous Huxley

One of the founding texts of dystopian fiction, Brave New World is widely acknowledged to be the one whose dystopian future most closely matches the Western world as it has actually evolved. The essays in this volume examine the ways in which Brave New World continues to serve as an effective satirical commentary on our own reality, as well as the ways it continues to provide models for the numerous dystopian fictions that are being produced today.

March 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-238-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-239-4 | $95

The Canterbury Tales, by Geoffrey Chaucer

Interesting essays provide a critical examination of several individual tales, including The Knight's Tale, the recurring use of irony in The Merchant's Tale, a feminist reading of The Wife of Bath's Tale, the idea of gender and eroticism in The Miller's Tale, and the anti-semitism and representation of the Jews in The Prioress' Tale.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-723-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-724-5 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

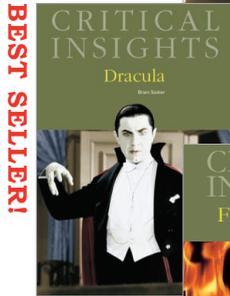

BEST SELLER!

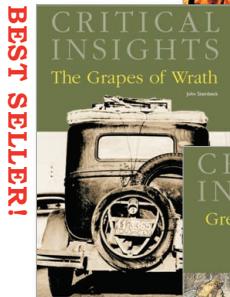

BEST SELLER!

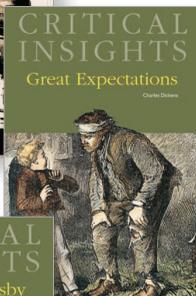

BEST SELLER!

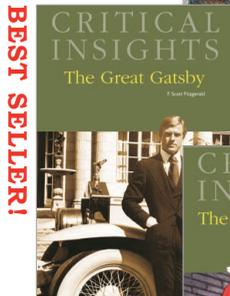

BEST SELLER!

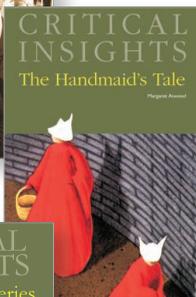

BEST SELLER!

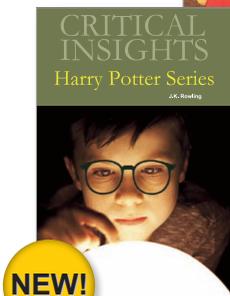

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

The Catcher in the Rye, by J.D. Salinger

The essays in this volume offer an examination of the iconic novel's impact over time, and include discussions of the reach of Salinger's influence, Catcher's tumultuous history, and the culture and politics of the post-war era.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-837-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-889-1 | $95

Death of a Salesman, by Arthur Miller

Includes an examination of Death of a Salesman in the context of literary naturalism and monetary theory, as well as an in-depth analysis of Willy's comparison of Biff to Hercules. Other essays look at the differences between dream and reality while also considering the competing dreams of the Loman family.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-610-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-611-8 | $95

Dracula, by Bram Stoker

Overview essays examine the literary history of the vampire and the critical reception of Stoker's most famous work. Other essays examine the use of sacred rituals within the novel and offer a psychological perspective. A final essay combines Marxist, feminist, and post-colonialist readings into a consideration of race, capitalism, and aesthetics.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-612-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-613-2 | $95

Recent

Fahrenheit 451, by Ray Bradbury

This volume presents a variety of new essays on Ray Bradbury's Fahrenheit 451. Several essays survey the critical conversation regarding this work from all standard critical perspectives – social, gender, post-modern, psychological, and cultural as well as the more traditional historical and close readings.

November 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-224-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-225-7 | $95

The Grapes of Wrath, by John Steinbeck

Essays offer a comprehensive introduction to the novel's key themes, social context, and critical history, as well as a complete survey of Steinbeck criticism. Other essays discuss the novel's Christian symbolism, assess the politics of the novel and analyze Steinbeck's feminine archetypes.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-715-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-716-0 | $95

Great Expectations, by Charles Dickens

Central to this analysis is the moral character of the protagonist, Pip. Some essays argue that Pip achieves a sort of moral autonomy as the novel progresses while others view Pip as a victim—of both his own demons and the plotting of others. Others examine the Christian imagery and rituals present in the novel. In the concluding essay, the topic of the treatment of gender and class is discussed.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-614-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-615-6 | $95

The Great Gatsby, by F. Scott Fitzgerald

This volume of criticism begins with essays that provide the reader with cultural, historical, comparative, and critical contexts for understanding Gatsby. Several essays consider the cultural and historical contexts of Fitzgerald's work while critical comparisons link the novel to the poetry of Keats and the novels Daisy Miller and Passing.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-608-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-609-5 | $95

The Handmaid's Tale, by Margaret Atwood

Written in the midst of the anti-feminist backlash and the culture wars of the 1980s, The Handmaid's Tale is a timely and chilling dystopian novel depicting a future in which the American government has been overthrown by religious fundamentalists who have, in turn, erected a patriarchal theocracy. This volume analyzes the rich critical discussion surrounding the work.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-620-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-621-7 | $95

NEW!

Harry Potter

With an adventurous tale of a young wizard's coming of age, J. K. Rowling captured the hearts and imaginations of readers around the world. This volume features critical essays that compare Harry Potter to Arthurian legend, examine Rowling's traditional depictions of women and the characters' failed quests for immortality, and define the seven-book series as a sampler of Western literature through the centuries.

April 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-519-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-520-3 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

The House on Mango Street, by Sandra Cisneros

With more than one million copies sold, The House on Mango Street is easily one of the most critically and commercially successful Mexican-American novels, regularly appearing on high school and college reading lists. In deceptively simple prose, this classic tells the story of a young Mexican-American girl's family, her friends, and her coming-of-age in an impoverished Chicago neighborhood.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-717-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-718-4 | $95

I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings, by Maya Angelou

Original essays examine this work from several perspectives, including the struggle for black identity through readings of both Caged Bird and James Baldwin's If Beale Street Could Talk, as well as through historical events that surround Angelou's life: the civil rights, black power, and black arts movements.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-624-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-625-5 | $95

The Inferno, by Dante

The contributors to this volume are the leading Dante scholars of great importance, especially in Anglophone circles. Essays include a close reading of Dante, a chapter comparing and contrasting Dante's Inferno to his other writings, a history of the critical response to his work, and a chapter on the cultural and historical context of Dante's Inferno.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-838-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-890-7 | $95

NEW!

Jane Eyre, by Charlotte Brontë

This volume presents a variety of new essays on Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre, considered by many to have revolutionized the art of fiction. Many agree that Brontë was ahead of her time as she explored the individualistic character of Jane, and topics such as classism, sexuality, religion and feminism.

January 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-218-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-219-6 | $95

The Joy Luck Club, by Amy Tan

This volume surveys the critical reception of Tan's works, and considers the structure, narration, style, and themes of Joy Luck, comparing them with Michael Cunningham's The Hours. Essays also examine traditional Chinese beliefs in the novel, compare Joy Luck to The Kitchen God's Wife, and provide two author interviews.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-626-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-627-9 | $95

King Lear, by William Shakespeare

The historical background of Shakespeare's play is considered, as well as close readings of several key passages that distinguish differences between the first published version and revisions in the Folio version of 1623. Other essays discuss popular and critical responses and contrast Lear with Marlowe's Tamburlaine.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-839-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-891-4 | $95

NEW!

Little Women, by Louisa May Alcott

A unique combination of romance, coming-of-age tale, and family drama, Little Women paved the way for a new form of literature, changing the conversation regarding a women's journey from childhood to womanhood. This work surveys the critical conversation regarding Alcott's achievement from all standard critical perspectives – social, gender-based, post-modern, psychological, and cultural.

March 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-427-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-428-2 | $95

The Metamorphosis, by Franz Kafka

This volume includes a biography which warns that, although The Metamorphosis is considered to be semi-autobiographical, it is ultimately a work of imagination. Other essays include a discussion of structure, cultural and historical contexts, Kafka's metaphor for extreme alienation, and a survey of the work's critical reception.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-840-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-892-1 | $95

NEW!

Midnight's Children, by Salman Rushdie

Midnight's Children marked a change in the global literary scene, inaugurating a heightened interest in writings from formerly colonized countries. In its richness, full with magical realistic depiction and historiographical narration, Rushdie's novel became a trendsetter. The essays in this volume discuss topics such as ethics, nationalism, translation, and the culture of globalization.

February 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-389-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-390-2 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Literature

NEW!

Moby-Dick, by Herman Melville

Herman Melville's Moby-Dick is often considered the greatest American novel – a vast epic that combines deep philosophy and high adventure as well as rich comedy and profound tragedy. Containing numerous essays by many prominent Melville scholars, the book places Melville and his epic novel in their various historical contexts while also showing how the novel continues to be relevant—and powerful—today.

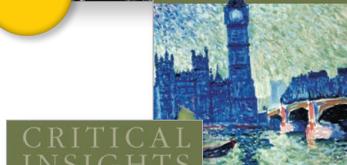

August 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-405-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-406-0 | $95

Mrs. Dalloway, by Virginia Woolf

Original essays present an overview of Mrs. Dalloway, the work's origins and composition, an analysis of the world events and social conditions that provide context for the work, the connections between Mrs. Dalloway and Toni Morrison's Sula, and discuss Woolf's efforts to create a new form of the novel appropriate for a new age.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-841-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-893-8 | $95

One Hundred Years of Solitude, by Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Latin America's most famous novel and an overnight sensation when it was published in 1967, it has been translated into dozens of languages and remains a perennial favorite of readers around the world. Its strange, mesmerizing blend of the real and the fabulous introduced the world to Magical Realism and has inspired countless writers.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-709-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-710-8 | $95

NEW!

The Poetry of Baudelaire

This collection of essays reflects the breadth of the poet's artistic and intellectual worlds. Special attention is paid to Baudelaire's active interest in music and in the visual arts and how this relates to his poetry, in accordance with his insights into the 'correspondances' between the human senses. The poet's life and times are well documented, and close readings of key poems offer fresh perspectives on the mind and art of one of the greatest writers of the nineteenth century – and indeed of the modern age.

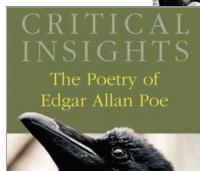

March 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-395-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-396-4 | $95

The Poetry of Edgar Allan Poe

Poe's poetry has long been shrouded in an aura of mystery, sublimity, and horror. Wildly imaginative and disquietingly mournful, his most famous poems, "Annabel Lee," "The Raven," and "Ulalume," are some of American literature's most haunting laments for lost loves. Their insistent rhymes and rhythms continue to thrill readers worldwide, more than a century and a half after their publication.

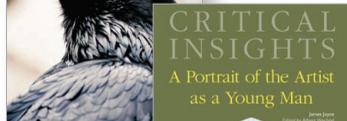

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-705-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-706-1 | $95

A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, by James Joyce

Thought-provoking essays examine Joyce's life and help place this work in the context of his life and time, enlarging the reader's understanding of its biographical fields. Other essays survey the spectrum of critical evaluations, explanations and appreciations of the book and explore the ethnic reach of the novel, the interwoven sexual and political dimension, and the role of faith in the novel.

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-842-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-894-5 | $95

Pride and Prejudice, by Jane Austen

Essays include a biography of Jane Austen, the critical reception of Pride and Prejudice, an examination of the novel's historical milieu, and a reading of the novel that stresses the importance Austen places on female education as a means of redefining the role of women in society, and several essays written from a feminist perspective.

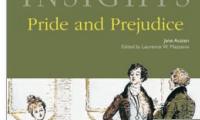

September 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-843-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-895-2 | $95

The Red Badge of Courage, by Stephen Crane

More vivid, unflinching, artistically and philosophically complex than any prior war novel, Red Badge made Stephen Crane an overnight international celebrity. Readers were gripped by Crane's lucid descriptions of war and the vacillating mind of his young, untested soldier, Henry Fleming. Many assumed that Crane was a Civil War veteran, yet he never lived through a war, let alone fought in one.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-707-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-708-5 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Slaughterhouse-Five, by Kurt Vonnegut

Published at the height of the Vietnam War protests, Slaughterhouse-Five seized the imaginations of thousands and made Vonnegut an overnight sensation. More than 40 years later, scholars continue to assess Vonnegut's unique achievement with this stoic yet compassionate treatment of one of the most deadly military strikes in European history.

NEW! October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-721-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-722-1 | $95

The Sound and the Fury, by William Faulkner

When William Faulkner published The Sound and the Fury in 1929 he presented the world with one of the greatest novels of all time and a foremost example of Modernist art. Even as it explores life in the United States South, this novel delves deeply into individual psychology via literary techniques that strain representation to its very limits. This collection features an array of readings that range from philosophical approaches to the perspectives offered by the emerging and contested field of fat studies.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-391-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-392-6 | $95

A Streetcar Named Desire, by Tennessee Williams

Essays contain an examination of the play in light of post-war American culture and censorship as well as a comparison of Williams' treatment of tragedy with Arthur Miller's in his equally iconic play, Death of a Salesman. Other essays consider how repression drives the play's action, and review a selection of Streetcar criticism.

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-628-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-629-3 | $95

The Sun Also Rises, by Ernest Hemingway

Though Hemingway went on to write dozens of works before winning the Nobel Prize, The Sun Also Rises, his second novel, endures as a quintessential American classic. With its vivid characters and spare, laconic prose, it effectively captures the despair, disillusionment, and muted hope of a generation struggling to find meaning in a world torn apart by war.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-713-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-714-6 | $95

The Tales of Edgar Allan Poe

The original essays in this volume illuminate the influences that shaped Poe, contextualize his work, and assess his enduring impact on American and European poetry and fiction. Featured essays include critical readings of "The Fall of the House of Usher," "The Black Cat," "The Tell-Tale Heart," "Ligeia," and "Berenice."

October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-616-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-617-0 | $95

Things Fall Apart, by Chinua Achebe

Introductory essays reflect on Achebe's pioneering achievement and evaluate the enduring, international popularity of Things Fall Apart. Also included is a comparison of Things Fall Apart to major literary works within the western canon, such as The Odyssey and The Illiad; the novel's depiction of gender; presentation of cultural violence, and portrayal of colonization.

October 2010 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-711-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-712-2 | $95

To Kill a Mockingbird, by Harper Lee

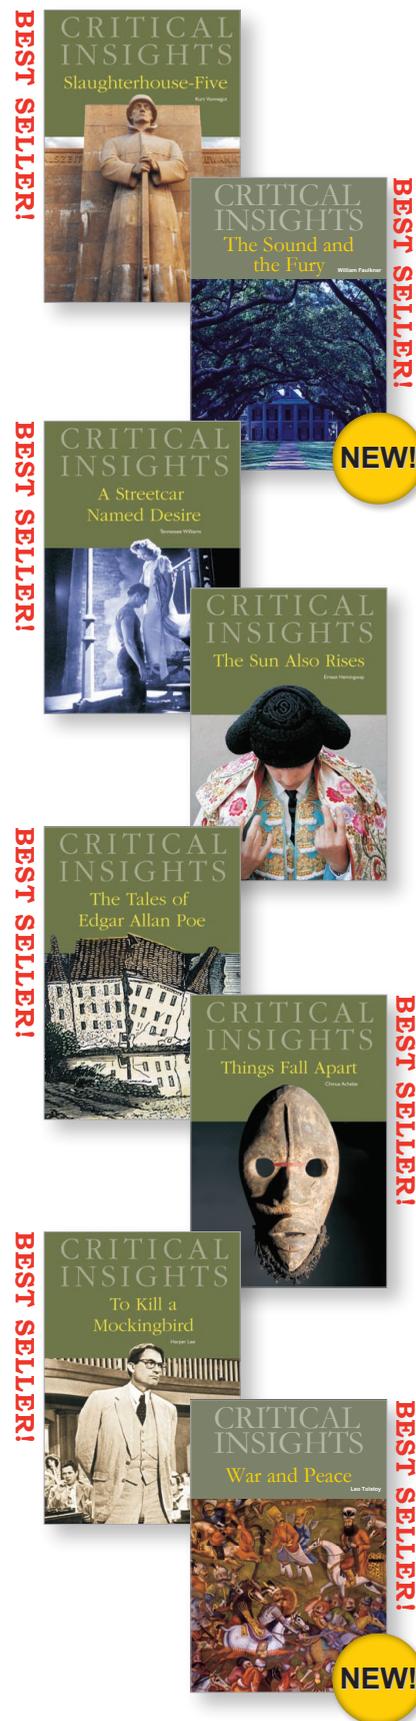

Overview essays consider the cultural contexts surrounding the novel and the critical reception of Lee's work. Other essays offer a close examination of the novel as wisdom literature and consider the lessons being taught in the novel, and a consideration of narrative strategies in both the novel and the film versions.

NEW! October 2009 | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-618-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-619-4 | $95

War and Peace, by Leo Tolstoy

Tolstoy's epic novel is one of the most famous pieces of Russian literature and is on the short list of the most important works of literature in the world. This volume examines Tolstoy's unique achievement through a number of thought-provoking essays, and the interplay of the many genres of the text, including historical fiction, war drama, romance and realism.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-393-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-394-0 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

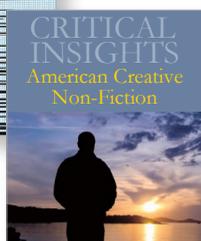

Critical Insights: Themes

Introduced in 2012, Critical Insights: Themes have become one of our best sellers. The reviews tell why: “The diversity of the works studied and variety of critical approaches taken in the volumes in this series help make it a lively and most worthwhile compendium... Highly recommended.” —Library Journal

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

NEW!

The American Comic Book

During its heyday in the decade following World War II, the comic book rivaled film, radio, and television in popularity. Today, comics continue to inspire the development of the most popular movies and television programs. This volume offers a collection of original essays that will establish for students and their teachers an exemplary representation of American comics as a field of study within American literature.

October 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-226-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-227-1 | $95

NEW!

American Creative Non-Fiction

Several essays survey the critical conversation regarding American creative non-fiction, an interesting collection of memoirs, autobiographies, travel guides and essays. The text allows readers to explore the genre's cultural and historical contexts and offers close and comparative reading of key texts in the genre, including In Cold Blood, A Moveable Feast, The Big Sea, and Zen and The Art of Motorcycle Maintenance.

February 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-417-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-418-3 | $95

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

The American Dream

“The American Dream” is a phrase that has become an essential component of the American experience and has come to define our nation's identity, underlying nearly every aspect of our lives. Since the founding of our nation, the idea of “the American Dream” has become a pervasive and frequently deconstructed theme within the canon of American literature.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3821-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3837-5 | $95

NEW!

The American Multicultural Identity

Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness... what it means to be an American is contemplated in many works of fiction and nonfiction. The editors of The American Multicultural Identity examine the American character, life in the “melting pot,” and the many facets of American identity in popular literature. Close readings of the most important works in this genre sheds a new light on the study of this wide-ranging theme.

October 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-407-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-408-4 | $95

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

American Road Literature

From colonial westward expansion to the romanticized and philosophical road narratives of the Beat Generation, the American experience—its ideals, dreams and disillusionments—has been linked to the road. Whether grueling or carefree, spiritual or physical, these journeys on the American highway have helped us explore and define our diverse culture and establish the road narrative as an essential American genre.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3819-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3835-1 | $95

NEW!

American Short Story

Diverse in theme, style and cultural context, the American short story can take many forms. The only common theme is the short story's unique ability to captivate an audience. This volume discusses the origin and popularity of the short story. Original critical essays on a diverse collection of writers highlight Edgar Allan Poe, Herman Melville, Mark Twain, Ambrose Bierce, O. Henry, Kate Chopin and many others.

March 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-425-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-426-8 | $95

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

The American Thriller

Essays examine the American thriller, a genre in which “ordinary” heroes are faced with an enemy set on destroying them or something they treasure. This volume discusses spy, techno, legal, psychological suspense, medical, sci-fi, military, true crime and action adventure thrillers, to explore its cultural and historical contexts as well as key texts in the genre.

March 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-220-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-221-9 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Coming of Age

Coming of age has been one of the great themes of literature for over two thousand years. From the maturation of Telemachus in The Odyssey to the stunted adolescence of Holden Caulfield in The Catcher in the Rye, it has spanned eras, countries, and cultures. It is the theme of every young person's life, and a time that many adults look back on as one of the most formative periods of their lives.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3731-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3779-8 | $95

NEW!

Contemporary Canadian Fiction

This volume addresses the key authors and works in contemporary Canadian fiction. Essays survey the critical conversation regarding these works, explore the cultural and historical contexts, and offer comparative readings of key texts in the genre. Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the themes can explore them in depth through a variety of critical approaches.

November 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-415-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-416-9 | $95

Contemporary Speculative Fiction

Speculative fiction has a long and progressive history, from the mythos of J.R.R. Tolkien to the eco-feminism of Suzanne Collins. The last twenty years has witnessed a surge in the critical reception of speculative fiction, as more work continues to move beyond the Tolkien tradition and opens up the pertinent discussion of the permeable boundary between fantasy and science fiction.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3820-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3836-8 | $95

Crime and Detective Fiction

Among the most popular of literary forms, crime fiction has played a central role in the development of national literatures for more than a century. Essays examine crime writing in American literature and throughout the world. Authors covered include Arthur Conan Doyle and Raymond Chandler, as well as important new works, such as Steig Larrson's The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3822-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3838-2 | $95

Crisis of Faith

"Crisis of Faith" evokes intense spiritual strife and doubt, the eternal struggle between good and evil and has become a pervasive theme of literature, manifesting itself within and embodying a broad range of human affairs and secular ideals, from the moral ambiguities of patriotism and war to mankind's critical questioning of meaning in an increasingly modern world.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3825-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3841-2 | $95

Cultural Encounters

Though it has been only in the last few decades that scholars have read literary works through the lenses of ethnicity and the history and aftermath of colonialism, the theme of cross-cultural encounters has a long history, stretching back as far as Shakespeare. This volume explores this theme in such classic works as The Tempest and Robinson Crusoe.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3732-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3780-4 | $95

Dystopia

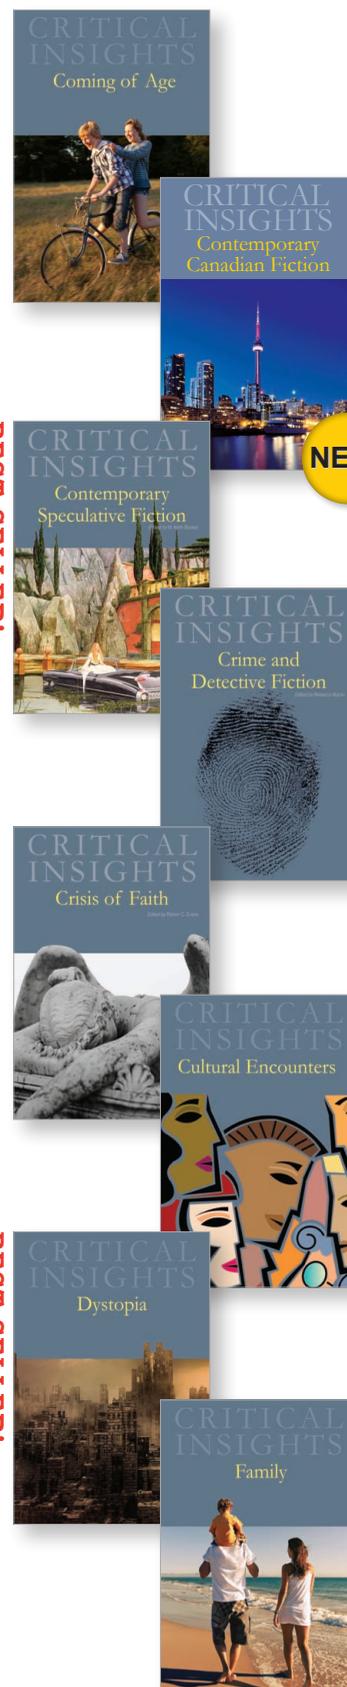

The popular theme of dystopia is considered in this volume of Critical Insights. Essays explore this theme in a variety of critical contexts. Works discussed include Utopia, Looking Backward, We, Brave New World, Anthem, Make Room! Make Room!, Fahrenheit 451, Nineteen Eighty-Four, The Handmaid's Tale, and Little Brother.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3733-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3781-1 | $95

Family

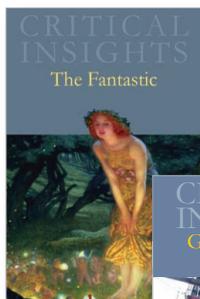

This volume addresses the theme of family in literature through a diverse set of texts. Essays survey the critical conversation regarding the theme, explore its cultural and historical contexts, and offer close and comparative readings of key texts in the genre. Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the theme can explore it in depth through a variety of critical approaches.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3734-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3782-8 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

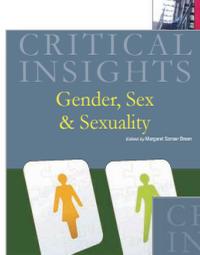

The Fantastic

From The Odyssey's adventures to the extraordinary history of the Buendía family in One Hundred Years of Solitude, stories of the fantastic have thrilled, mystified, and terrorized readers for centuries. Essays survey the critical conversation regarding the theme, explore its cultural and historical contexts, and offer close readings of key texts in the genre.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3735-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3783-5 | $95

NEW!

Gay & Lesbian Literature

This volume examines the relatively new, and expanding, genre of gay and lesbian literature through a diverse set of texts. Essays survey the critical conversation regarding the theme, explore its cultural and historical contexts, and offer close and comparative readings of key texts in the genre. Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the theme and its notable authors can explore it in depth through a variety of critical approaches.

April 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-423-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-424-4 | $95

NEW!

Gender, Sex and Sexuality

So much of great literature centers on explorations of gender, sex, and sexuality. What does it mean to be a proper man or woman; what if one cannot be properly called either? Should one wield one's sexual power politically? What is the relation between law, divine or secular, and sexuality? These are just some of the questions that this volume examines through an analysis of a wide range of texts.

August 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-403-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-404-6 | $95

NEW!

Good & Evil

From allegorical morality tales to cathartic horror stories to all-too-real personal narratives of unspeakable events, literature has always provided an especially powerful medium for the study of good and evil. This volume explores the theme in such works as King Lear, Maus, Jane Eyre, and the Harry Potter series.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3736-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3784-2 | $95

BEST SELLER!

The Graphic Novel

This volume offers an examination and analysis of the contemporary graphic novel as literature. Specific attention is paid to the use of narrative genre in the graphic novel (e.g. superhero, crime, horror, realistic/fantastic). The most important and most frequently discussed graphic novels are also discussed, including Batman: The Dark Knight Returns, Watchmen, Sin City: The Hard Goodbye, The Walking Dead: Days Gone Bye, and Road to Perdition.

February 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-262-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-263-9 | $95

BEST SELLER!

The Hero's Quest

Odysseus, Gilgamesh, Aeneas, even The Lord of the Rings' Frodo—their stories thrill us with their adventure and classic quest themes. This volume considers the hero's quest with both new and original essays that discuss works such as The Odyssey, The Aeneid, The Inferno, Gulliver's Travels, Tom Jones, Moby-Dick, His Dark Materials, and Surfacing.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3737-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3785-9 | $95

BEST SELLER!

Literature of Protest

A diverse geographical, cultural, and historical field of study, drawn together by their conveyance of socially progressive ideas in an emotionally compelling, consciousness-altering way. Original critical essays on a diverse collection of writers highlight Harriet Beecher Stowe, Mark Twain, George Orwell, Yevgeny Zamyatin and many others.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3826-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3842-9 | $95

NEW!

Magical Realism

Magical Realism analyzes its evolution as well as its manifestations in different cultures. Several essays discuss the struggle between the hegemonic imposition of western modernity and subaltern, ethnicized, non-western conceptualizations in the Third World. Magical realist cultural production is thus seen as a tool for questioning Eurocentric views, as it endows non-western worldviews with additional agency.

September 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-413-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-414-5 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

Recent

Midwestern Literature

Several essays survey the critical conversation regarding Midwestern literature, explore its cultural and historical contexts and offer close and comparative reading of key texts in the genre, including Huckleberry Finn, A Thousand Acres, Nick Adams Stories, Beloved, Winter Dreams, Home, and Looking for Mr. Green.

November 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-216-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-217-2 | $95

Nature & the Environment

This volume addresses the themes of nature and the environment in literature. Essays survey the critical conversation regarding these themes, explore the cultural and historical contexts, and offer comparative readings of key texts in the genre. Readers seeking a deeper understanding of the themes can explore them in depth through a variety of critical approaches.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3738-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3786-6 | $95

NEW!

Political Fiction

Combining richness of interpretation and the intellectual challenge to readers, this volume surveys the vast theme of political fiction. Four contextual essays discuss prevailing themes within the genre, including the Cold War period and the aftermath of 9/11. Ten additional essays go on to discuss individual authors, including Joseph Conrad, George Orwell, Doris Lessing, Russell Banks, Don DeLillo, and Robert Stone.

November 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-411-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-412-1 | $95

Pulp Fiction of the 1920s and 1930s

From the end of the nineteenth century to the 1950s, "pulp" magazines entertained the masses with lurid adventure, Western, romance, crime, fantasy, horror, and science fiction stories. Notable publications, such as Weird Tales, also served as apprenticeships for many new writers, including H.P. Lovecraft, Robert E. Howard, and Clark Ashton Smith.

May 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3827-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3843-6 | $95

NEW!

Russia's Golden Age

Presents a variety of new essays on the Golden Age of Russian literature. Essays examine Alexander Pushkin's Eugene Onegin, Leo Tolstoy's War & Peace and Anna Karenina, Ivan Turgenev's Fathers & Sons, and Fyodor Dostoyevsky's Crime and Punishment. The text considers the critical response to these works and explores its cultural and historical contexts.

January 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-222-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-223-3 | $95

NEW!

The Slave Narrative

This volume analyses the more widely read slave narratives, including those by Frederick Douglass, Harriet Jacobs, and Solomon Northup, but also relatively lesser-known narratives, such as neo-slave narrative novels and slave narratives about slavery outside the U.S. Individual chapters provide researchers with a wide range of approaches to the slave narrative genre, from its origins to the present day.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-397-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-398-8 | $95

Southern Gothic Literature

One of the few book-length surveys of the genre, this volume offers a collection of original essays that presents Southern Gothic as a field of study within American literature. Coverage includes poetry, plays, and novels from established writers, such as Edora Welty, Flannery O'Connor, Carson McCullers, and Cormac McCarthy.

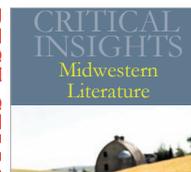

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3823-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3839-9 | $95

Sports Fiction

This volume presents a collection that analyzes works by many of the most well known authors of Sports Fiction, including Ernest Hemingway, Jack London, Don DeLillo, and David Foster Wallace. Introductory chapters offer a survey of critical approaches as well as history of the genre that will be instructive for students and teachers alike.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3824-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3840-5 | $95

BEST SELLER!

Recent

NEW!

BEST SELLER!

NEW!

BEST SELLER!

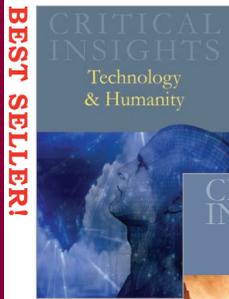

BEST SELLER!

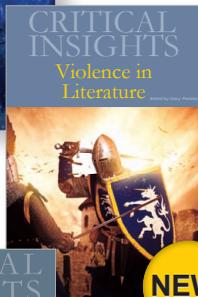

Literature

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

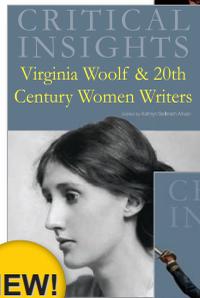

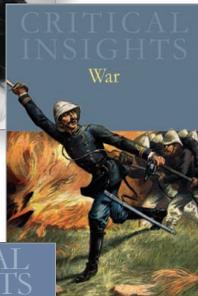

BEST SELLER!

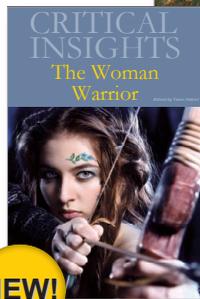

NEW!

NEW!

NEW!

NEW!

Technology & Humanity

Human engagement with technology has a deep history, as social progress and creative expression have long been connected with the development, deployment, and representation of what we recognize as technological products and processes. This volume explores the theme in such important works as Frankenstein, The Great Gatsby, The House of Seven Gables, and Neuromancer.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3739-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3787-3 | $95

Violence in Literature

Our oldest stories are about conflict. This collection draws together discussions of violence in storytelling from a number of perspectives. Historical contexts range from ancient Greece to postcolonial Africa to the American West, and topics considered include the role of the witness, how place affects our understanding of conflict, the aestheticization of violence, how trauma is written on the body, and contemporary war stories.

September 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-409-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-410-7 | $95

Virginia Woolf & 20th Century Women Writers

This volume examines a diverse set of texts published by notable women in the mid-20th century. From Maya Angelou and Margaret Atwood to Willa Cather and Kate Chopin, essays survey the critical conversation regarding these works, explore their historical, societal and cultural contexts, and offer close and comparative readings of key texts in the genre through a variety of critical approaches.

January 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-419-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-420-6 | $95

War

With sources ranging from the usual suspects (Hemingway, Vonnegut and O'Brien) to writers not as commonly associated with war literature such as Walt Whitman, Emily Dickinson, Virginia Woolf, Flannery O'Connor, and a host of modern science fiction writers, this volume provides a unique viewpoint on just how deeply the specter of war has imbedded itself in the consciousness and artistic expressions of human beings.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3740-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-4298-3788-0 | $95

NEW!

The Woman Warrior

A lethal combination of strength, seduction, bravery, charm and intelligence the woman warrior has been fighting, and winning, her battles throughout literary history. From mythology to the present day warrior princesses, this volume explores the woman warrior in great detail. With an analysis of key works in the genre alongside an examination of the theme as a whole, this text provides readers with a unique collection of essays to study this theme in new ways.

November 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-399-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-400-8 | $95

All Critical Insights titles are available in the following formats:

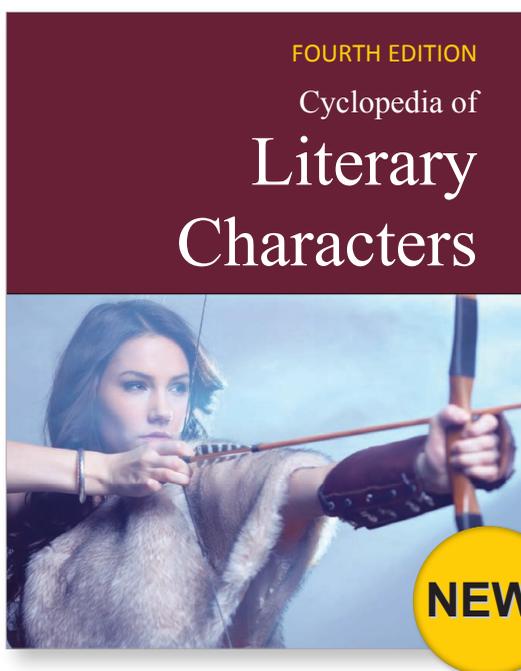

AND GET FREE ONLINE ACCESS WITH YOUR PRINT BUY!

- Free Online Access
- Unlimited Simultaneous Users
- Remote Access
- Get Instant Access Online when you order!

<http://online.salempress.com>

This new edition examines more than 29,000 major characters from 3,500 important works of literature. New to this edition are 600 characters published in popular works of fiction from 2000 to 2013.

This comprehensive edition combines the characters profiled in the first three editions of Cyclopedia of Literary Characters (1963, 1990, 1998) along with brand new coverage of characters that appeared in works of fiction published between 2000 and 2013. This series offers readers the opportunity to become familiar with both famous and less well-known personalities from classic fiction.

These character descriptions can be used alone to begin researching character development and motivation in a novel. They also can be used as a starting place for analyzing an epic play or novel and its author's writing style and technique.

Articles are arranged alphabetically by book title and begin with ready-reference top matter information about the author and the book, including each book's title, foreign title if originally published in a language other than English, author's name with birth and death years, date of first publication, genre, locale, time of action, and plot type. The characters are arranged by order of importance within each article. The central or key characters receive lengthy descriptions; supporting and minor figures receive less extensive treatment. Books by a given author that commonly are studied together are treated in a single article, allowing the user to study character development across the books. Heavily cross-referenced indexes allow easy access to all titles covered. Pronunciation guides are provided for character names that are most likely to be mispronounced.

Three indexes are found at the back of volume 5, and are designed to help the user more readily access the text. First, there is a complete list of titles, including cross-references. Second, an Author Index lists titles by author; again cross-references are included. Finally, the alphabetical Character Index lists the more than 29,000 characters described, using last names if those appear in the original works, or using first names or descriptions. The Character Index is a valuable aid in locating the author and work or works with which a particular character is associated.

Cyclopedia of Literary Characters, Fourth Edition

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 5 Volumes
- 2,700 Pages
- 600 New Characters from 2000-2013
- 29,000 Characters from 3,500+ Works
- Guides for Difficult Names
- Pronunciation Key
- Complete List of Titles
- Author Index with Title Listings
- Alphabetical Character Index

FEBRUARY 2015
 Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-497-8
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-498-5
LIST PRICE: $455

Available formats:

Award Winner!
 Outstanding Academic Title
 –CHOICE

“More useful than ever, this consolidated, expanded Cyclopedia is the place to turn when looking for information about a character from imaginative literature of the Western world.”
 –Reference Reviews, Gale Group

NEW!
AVAILABLE FOR THE FIRST TIME!
 Your print purchase of this title now includes
FREE ONLINE ACCESS!

Magill's Literary Annual, 2015

Edited by EBSCO Publishing

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 686 Pages
- 149 Essay-Reviews
- Includes 7,200 Reviews Online, Free
- Biographical Works by Subject
- Title Index
- Annotated Titles by Category list

JUNE 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-685-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-686-6

LIST PRICE: $195

Available formats:

“...contains well-organized, informative, and cogent reviews of novels, biographies, histories, poetry, and books on current affairs and other topics.”

—Booklist

BEST SELLER!

MAGILL'S LITERARY ANNUAL 2015

NEW!

150 notable titles, the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader's advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for choosing worthwhile reading material.

BUY THE 2015 EDITION & GET ONLINE ACCESS TO THE ARCHIVES FREE

When you purchase the 2015 Literary Annual, we provide access to 38 years of past Annuals. That's over 7,200 reviews and essays on three decades of the most important fiction and nonfiction. To make this vast collection available to your students and patrons you need only purchase the latest edition.

Offers nearly 150 reviews of significant fiction and nonfiction published in 2014. Provides coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader, that reflect publishing trends, and that will stand the test of time.

Each year, Magill's Literary Annual critically evaluates over 150 major examples of serious literature published during the previous calendar year. The philosophy behind our selection process is to cover works that are likely to be of interest to general readers, that are written by authors being taught in literature programs, and that will stand the test of time. By filtering the thousands of books published every year down to over

Masterplots

Edited by Laurence W. Mazzeno

AT A GLANCE

- 12 Volumes; 6,848 Pages
- 2,220 Essays; 438 New
- Ready-Reference Top Matter
- Chronological Index
- Geographical Index

NOVEMBER 2010

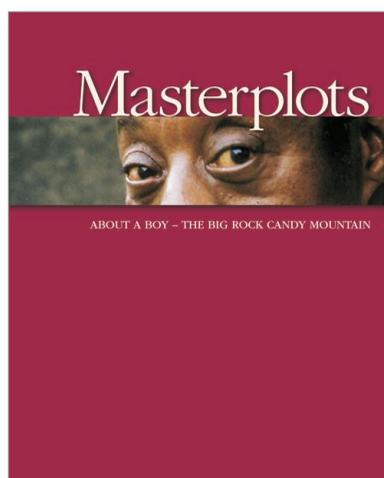

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-568-5

LIST PRICE: $1,200

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“A classic in its own right, comparable to little else in scope and authority currently on the market.” —Library Journal

A classic reference work for more than sixty years, Masterplots provides fundamental reference data, plot synopses and critical evaluations of the most important works in all genres throughout history and around the world.

Titles new to this edition include Frank McCourt's Angela's Ashes, Barbara Kingsolver's The Bean Trees, Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient, J. K. Rowling's Harry Potter novels, J. R. R. Tolkien's The Hobbit, John Keats's Ode on a Grecian Urn, and John Irving's The World According to Garp.

All essays open with ready reference top matter. The essays fall into two types of format: the synopsis review and the essay review. The synopsis reviews treat works that have an identifiable narrative line and provide five categories of information. The essay reviews cover collections of poetry, short stories, and nonfiction and include three subdivisions.

“Offers a wider variety of information and is an excellent starting point for those beginning literary research. Highly recommended.”

—Library Journal

“This is an ideal resource for introducing undergraduates to the critical study of the authors herein.”

—Booklist

Critical Surveys of Literature

Designed to provide researchers with a comprehensive collection of literary analysis, the Critical Survey series has become a popular choice for high school, academic and public library collections nationwide.

Each volume in the series provides significant, in-depth examination and analysis of a comprehensive collection of authors, poets or works within a genre. Much more than a simple plot summary or short biography, these in-depth essays delve into the history, style, theme, importance and critical analysis of each author’s most significant works.

Coverage within each theme is broad, profiling important literary figures throughout history and around the world. Readers will uncover a wide range of information critical to the study of these important writers, poets and genres.

Salem Press’ Critical Survey series provides an interesting starting point for literary research and analysis on a broad range of authors and topics. These important works are a must for all literature collections.

Critical Survey of Shakespeare’s Sonnets	30
Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore	31
Critical Survey of Graphic Novels	32
Critical Survey of Short Fiction.....	34
Critical Survey of Poetry.....	36
Critical Survey of Long Fiction	38
Critical Survey of Mystery & Detective Fiction	40
Critical Survey of Drama.....	41

Get FREE ONLINE ACCESS when you buy the print!

Virtually every Critical Survey title comes with free online access on <http://online.salempress.com>. Unlimited Users and Remote Access included!

Critical Survey of Shakespeare's Sonnets

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume
- 355 Pages
- 25 Essays
- Critical Readings
- Historical & Literary Contexts
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Subject Index

JULY 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-499-2

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-500-5

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

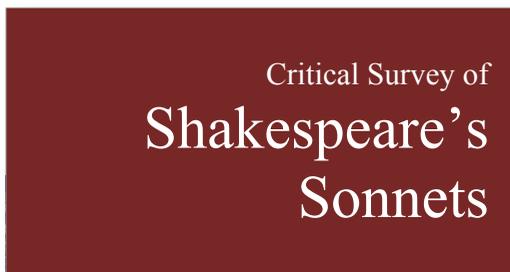

Print

Free Database

eBook

NEW!

Offers new critical analysis of 25 of Shakespeare's most popular sonnets, with an in-depth examination of each sonnet's historical significance, literary technique and contemporary alignment.

The Critical Survey of Shakespeare's Sonnets offers a collection of new essays on the Sonnets written by William Shakespeare, the most famous English playwright of all time. A basic part of the literature curriculum, Shakespeare's works—still being introduced to students, from high school through college, four centuries after their composition—have never lost their popularity.

This title begins with a Biography of Shakespeare and an Introduction to his poetry and sonnets. Next, the lasting allure of his sonnets is addressed through a close reading of twenty five of his most popular sonnets. Each essay in The Critical Survey of Shakespeare's Sonnets is devoted to a single sonnet and provides an In-Depth Critical Analysis of the sonnet's Historical Significance, Literary Technique and discusses its Meaning to a contemporary audience. An abstract, keywords, context, works cited, and recommended books for further study enhance each essay. Written by leading experts in the field, these essays will bring new dimension to the study of Shakespeare's Sonnets, at both the high school and undergraduate level.

The latter half of the book features two sections on various critical readings: one on Form and Technique, which delves heavily into Shakespeare's syntax, and the other on Main Themes, noting motifs and related topics. The themes put forward in Shakespeare's Sonnets, written over 400 years ago, still hold value, meaning and significance to today's audience. Some of the themes discussed in these Sonnets include: beauty, eternity, time's destructiveness, sexuality, gender, love, depression, sorrow, memory, alienation, grieving, love as slavery, seasons and age, time, absence, love as strength, eternal youth, fidelity, true love, lust, truth, and body vs. soul.

Following Critical Readings is the Historical and Literary Context section delving into poetry by Shakespeare's contemporaries, his life, the sins of the sonnets, and present-day sonnets.

The information-packed Resources section presents a detailed chronology of Shakespeare's life and works, a guide to free online sources and literary criticism of his sonnets, bibliography, a list of contributors, and an index to easily search for key words, Sonnet titles, and pivotal people who impacted or were impacted by William Shakespeare.

This new analysis of the significance and literary impact of Shakespeare's Sonnets is a must-have resource for high school and undergraduate literature departments and will be a useful resource for public libraries who wish to support their literature collection.

NEW SERIES!

Literature

BEST SELLER!

Heroes & Heroines

Recent

“An excellent overview and jumping-off point for undergraduate and advanced high school students.” – Booklist

Drawing upon the most widely-read literature, as well as introducing readers to overlooked yet significant tales, the theme of the hero and heroine is one of the most universal stories told across cultures. This volume covers a diverse range of countries and cultures, as well as important retellings in the modern tradition.

Articles begin with a contextual overview of the important cultural and social currents surrounding the myth and the life of the author. A summary offers readers the major actions and characters in a myth followed by an in-depth analysis drawing upon scholarship in the field. Articles cover:

- Birth & Prophecy
- The Host of Heroines
- The Culture Hero
- Trial & Quest
- Myth & Monstrosity
- Survey of Myth & Folklore

Students, educators, and general readers will discover a broad critical and cultural survey that engages the contemporary imagination in the importance of myth, fairy tale, and other traditional literature.

Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: Heroes & Heroines

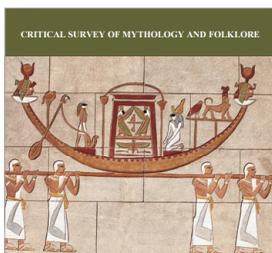

Edited by Salem Press

OCTOBER 2013
1 Volumes; 516 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-181-6
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-186-1
LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

World Mythology

Recent

The Critical Survey of Mythology and Folklore: World Mythology presents articles on myths, folktales, legends, and other traditional literature.

Drawing upon the most widely-read literature, this volume covers a diverse range of authors, countries, and cultures that spans the globe. Articles begin with a summary that offers readers the major actions and characters in the tale followed by an analysis of the important cultural and social interpretations of the author and myth.

Myths in the volume are organized by regions of the world and cultures, such as Oceania, South East Asia, and Meso-America. In addition, twelve maps listing ancient cultures and charts on mythological figures provide a broad overview of major deities in world mythology.

Students, educators, and general readers will discover a broad critical and cultural survey that engages the contemporary imagination in the importance of myth, fairy tale, and other traditional literature.

Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: World Mythology

Edited by Salem Press

DECEMBER 2013
1 Volume; 326 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-182-3
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-187-8
LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

Love, Sexuality, and Desire

Explores the genre of myths, folktales, legends, and other traditional literature, drawing upon the most dramatic and fantastical stories of human relations, love, sexuality, and desire. Each title examines familiar and unfamiliar myths, from a diverse range of countries and cultures, as well as important retellings in the modern tradition.

Topics covered in Love, Sexuality, and Desire include:

- Gods & Mortals in Love
- The Myth of the Second Half
- Animal Wives & Husbands
- Modern Tales and Myths
- Forbidden Love
- Love Unrequited
- The Lover's Quest

Articles begin with an overview of the important cultural and social currents surrounding the myth and the life of the author. A summary offers readers the major actions and characters in a myth followed by an in-depth analysis drawing upon scholarship in the field.

“This multicultural set will be very helpful to teachers, more advanced high-school students, and college students. A highly recommended purchase for public and school libraries.” -Booklist

Critical Survey of Mythology & Folklore: Love, Sexuality & Desire

Edited by Thomas J. Seinkewicz

JANUARY 2013
2 Volumes; 984 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3765-1
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3768-2
LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Heroes and Superheroes

Edited by Bart H. Beaty and Stephen Weiner

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 800 Pages
- 130 Essays
- 100 Photos
- 139 Works of Series Covered

APRIL 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-865-5

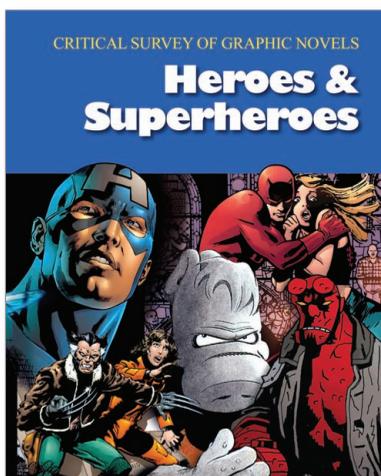

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-869-3

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

Offers 130 essays covering graphic novels and core comics series that form today's canon for academic coursework and library collections, with a focus on the hero/superhero genre.

A "first" in the field, this new Critical Survey series focuses on all aspects of the graphic novels genre, aiming to establish it as an important academic discipline and research topic in libraries. Designed for academic institutions, high schools, and public libraries, the series provides unique insight into the stories and themes expressed in historic and current landscape of the graphic novel medium.

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Heroes and Superheroes, provides in-depth insight into over 130 of the most popular and studied graphic novels. Researchers will be familiar with the characters and stories included in this collection, but will gain a deeper, new understanding, as the literary nature of the stories is presented in critical format by leading writers in the field of study.

The essays are arranged alphabetically, and each essay is approximately three to four pages long. Essays begin with full ready-reference top matter, including the title, author(s), illustrator(s) and book publication and publisher. Subsequent sections include publication history, plot synopsis, characters, artistic style and impact. All essays include a list of titles for further reading.

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Independents & Underground Classics

Edited by Bart H. Beaty and Stephen Weiner

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,200 Pages
- 215 Essays
- 200 Photos

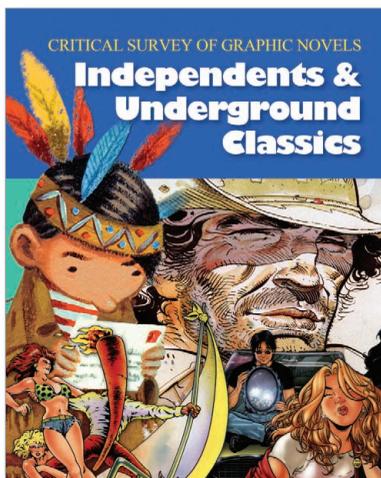

MAY 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-950-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-954-6

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

"These sets are good for readers' advisory for those who enjoy graphic novels and comics as well as a starting point for research on individual graphic novels and comics as works of literature. They will fit with the reference collection of any public, high school, or college library."
—American Reference Books Annual

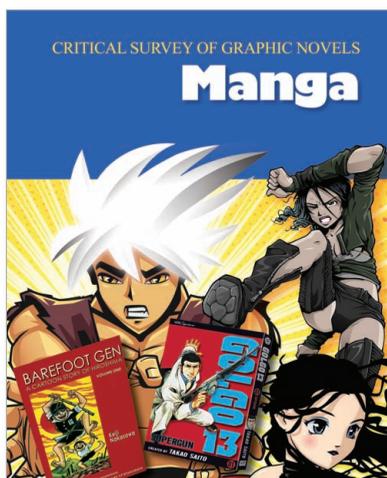

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Independent and Underground Classics offers 215 essays covering graphic novels and core comics series, focusing on the independents and underground genre that form today's "canon" for academic coursework and library collections.

Titles covered in this set include Terry Moore's Strangers in Paradise, Jean Regnaud and Emile

Bravo's My Mommy, Jean-Michel Charlier and Jean Giraud's western series Blueberry, and Bob Burden's surrealist comic series Flaming Carrot.

The essays are arranged alphabetically and range from three to four pages in length. Essays begin with full ready-reference top matter, including title, author(s), illustrator(s) and book publication and publisher.

The subsections of each essay describe and analyze publication history, plot, series issues/volumes, characters, artistic and production styles and how they advance story and themes, thematic issues, and the work's impact on other graphic novels or literature as a whole.

“This work analyzes manga’s most important titles to give English-speaking, Western readers a fuller image of what manga is, both through its history and in the present. Although necessarily scholarly, it is easy to read, free of academic language and convoluted sentences, and is useful to researchers in high school and beyond. Recommended.” —Library Journal

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Manga, provides in-depth insight for over 65 of the most popular manga graphic novels, ranging from metaserries to stand-alone books. A recent influx of translated Japanese manga into the American market has sparked a greater interest in foreign-language traditions and longform comics storytelling. This set focuses on translated works that have been particularly influential in the development of the manga tradition.

Titles featured in this set are Akira, Dragonball, Fist of the North Star, InuYasha, Phoenix, Sailor Moon, Speed Racer, and the Usagi Yojimbo series.

The essays are arranged alphabetically. Essays begin with full ready-reference top matter, including title, author(s), illustrator(s) and book publication and publisher. The subsections of each essay describe and analyze publication history, plot, series issues/volumes, characters, artistic and production styles, thematic issues, and the work’s impact on other graphic novels or literature as a whole. All essays include a list of titles for further reading.

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: Manga

Edited by Bart H. Beaty and Stephen Weiner

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 65 Essays
- 50 Photographs
- 50 Works or Series Covered

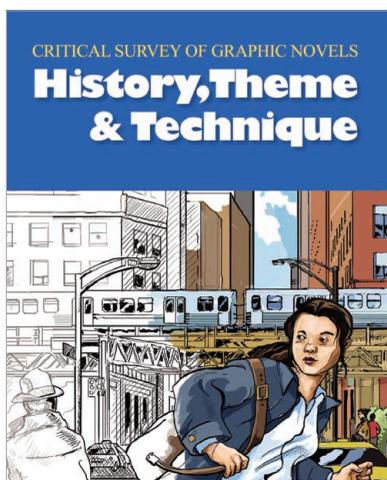

SEPTEMBER 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-955-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-956-0

LIST PRICE: $195

Available formats:

The fourth set in the series, Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: History, Theme & Technique contains over 70 essays covering themes and concepts of graphic novels. It includes genres, time periods, foreign language traditions, social relevance, and craftsmanship such as penciling and inking.

This set also provides insight into various aspects of the industry, from craftsmanship such as lettering, inking, and illustration styles, to the production and distribution of graphic novels and the significance and history of comic book conventions. This diverse and varied scope also delves into issues on readership and literacy, library collection development, and censorship.

The essays are arranged in three sections: history, theme, and technique. The essays provide highly detailed coverage of the themes and topics related to graphic novels. They describe and analyze artistic and production styles and how they advance the plot, thematic issues, and the work’s impact on literature as a whole.

Critical Survey of Graphic Novels: History, Theme & Technique

Edited by Bart H. Beaty and Stephen Weiner

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 70 Essays
- 110 Photographs
- Glossary
- Recommended Reading List

OCTOBER 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-957-7

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-958-4

LIST PRICE: $195

Available formats:

Critical Survey of Short Fiction

Edited by Charles E. May

AT A GLANCE

- Divided into 5 Subsets
- 1 Volume of Cumulative Indexes
- 625 Writer Entries
- 53 Overviews; 24 New
- 500+ Photos
- Pronunciation Key
- Bibliography
- Guide to Online Resources
- List of Major Awards
- Timeline
- Chronological List of Writers
- Categorized Index of Writers
- Subject Index

JANUARY 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-789-4 (entire set)

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-804-4 (entire set)

LIST PRICE: $995

Available formats:

Award Winner!
Outstanding Reference Source
—ALA/RUSA

“This is a useful, well-written reference and libraries that purchased the 2001 edition will want to update their collection with this substantially expanded 4th edition.”
—American Reference Books Annual

BEST SELLER!

Profiles of major short story writers throughout history and the world – organized so libraries can select only the topics they want.

This edition added 145 new writers. A significant effort was made to add more women; they include such notable figures as Michelle Cliff, Edwidge Danticat, Anita Desai, Judith Ortiz Cofer, Carol Shields, and Christa Wolf. Many important authors from around the world are featured for the first time in this edition; those with works in English translation include Daniel Alarcon, J. M. G. Le Clézio, Haruki Murakami, and Mario Vargas Llosa.

Entries begin with full data on dates and places of birth and death and a list of “Principal Short Fiction.” Next is a brief overview of “Other Literary Forms” and two longer sections, “Achievements” and “Biography.” The longest section, “Analysis,” discusses style and themes, with subsections on one or more works of short fiction. The final section includes a list of other major works and a complete bibliography. The subsets are arranged alphabetically, and each writer appears in only one subset.

Critical Survey of Short Fiction is organized into five subsets by geography and essay type:

A four-volume subset on American Writers; a two-volume subset on British, Irish, and Commonwealth Writers; a one-volume subset on European Writers; a one-volume subset on World Writers; and a one-volume subset of Topical Essays. A Cumulative Indexes volume covering all five subsets is free with purchase of more than one subset.

The result is flexibility for libraries, allowing them to select the material most needed for their literary reference collections, and build the larger set over time.

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: American Writers

Authors covered include Sherman Alexie, Saul Bellow, Benjamin Franklin, Dashiell Hammett, Herman Melville, Dorothy Parker, John Updike, and Edith Wharton. New to this edition are Edwidge Danticat, John Grisham, Walter Mosley, and Paul Yoon.

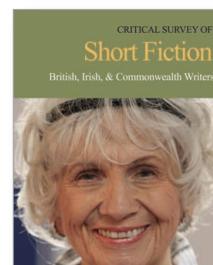

JANUARY 2012
4 volumes; 1,600 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-790-0
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-805-1
LIST PRICE: $495

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: British, Irish, & Commonwealth Writers

This subset includes such writers as Margaret Atwood, Jane Austen, Aldous Huxley, James Joyce, William Butler Yeats, Alice Munro, and Roald Dahl. New writers to this edition are David Malouf, Claire Keegan, Kazuo Ishiguro, and Anne Enright.

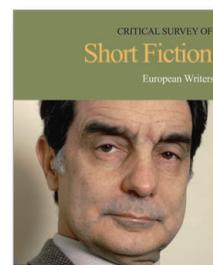

JANUARY 2012
2 volumes; 800 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-795-5
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-806-8
LIST PRICE: $295

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: European Writers

This volume discusses major writers from many different regions of Europe. The 66 essays cover Franz Kafka, Hans Christian Andersen, the Brothers Grimm, Homer, Miguel de Cervantes, Dante, and Anais Nin. New writers discussed here include Aleksandar Hemon, Christa Wolf, and Antonio Tabucchi.

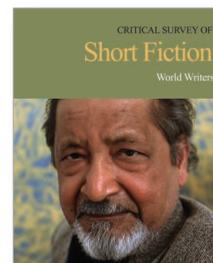

JANUARY 2012
 One volume; 400 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-798-6
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-807-5
LIST PRICE: $175

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: World Writers

This volume examines writers from a wide range of countries, including Argentina's Jorge Luis Borges, China's Ha Jin, India's Salman Rushdie, and Russia's Alexander Pushkin. New writers include Japan's Haruki Murakami, Jamaican writer Michelle Cliff, and Peru's Daniel Alarcon.

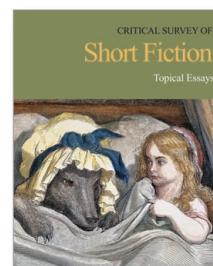

JANUARY 2012
1 volume; 400 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-799-3
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-808-2
LIST PRICE: $175

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Topical Essays

The essays in this set are organized into three categories: "Theories, Themes & Types," "History of Short Fiction," and "Short Fiction Around the World." New overviews include Experimental Short Fiction, Twenty-first Century Short Fiction, and Spanish Short Fiction.

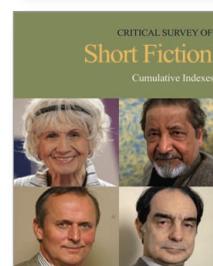

JANUARY 2012
1 volume; 400 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-800-6
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-809-9
LIST PRICE: $175

Critical Survey of Short Fiction: Cumulative Indexes

This volume brings together in one place all the appendixes and indexes of the Short Fiction series. It includes a chronological list of writers, a categorized index, a subject index, a list of major awards, a list of online resources, and a complete bibliography.

JANUARY 2012
1 volume; 400 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-803-7
Free With Purchase of More Than One Subset

Critical Survey of Poetry

Edited by Rosemary M. Canfield Reisman

AT A GLANCE

- 14 Volumes; 6,778 Pages
- Divided into 5 Subsets
- 1 Volume of Cumulative Indexes
- 843 Entries
- 79 Overviews; 22 New
- 500+ Photos and Portraits
- Pronunciation Key
- Bibliography
- Guide to Online Resources
- List of Major Awards
- Chronological List of Poets
- Categorized Index of Poets
- Subject Index

JANUARY 2011

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-582-1 (entire set)

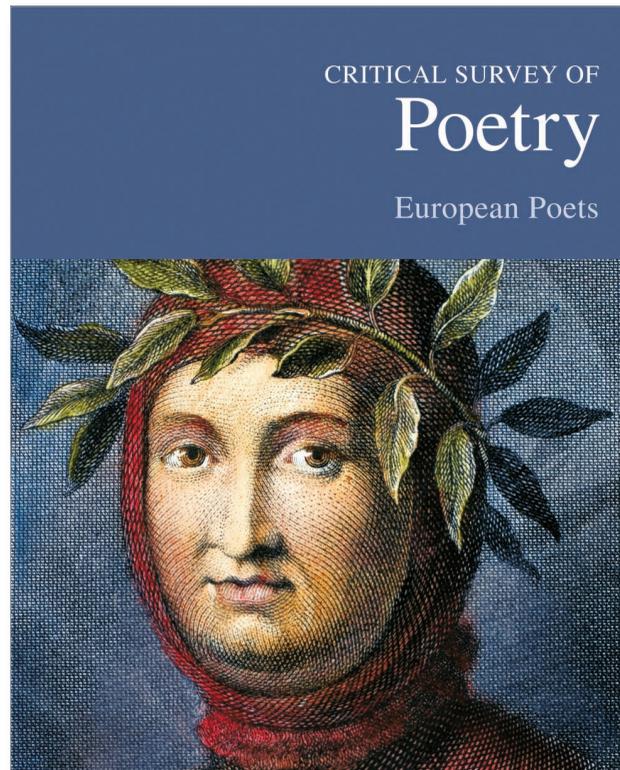

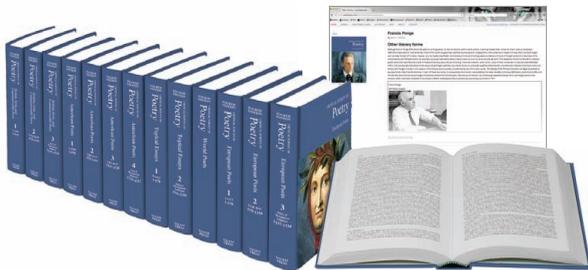

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-593-7 (entire set)

LIST PRICE: $1,295

Available formats:

Award Winner!
Outstanding Reference Source
—ALA/RUSA

BEST SELLER!

An in-depth resource covering 843 poets throughout history and the world—organized so libraries can select only the topics they want.

Critical Survey of Poetry profiles major poets throughout history and the world, and includes an analysis of their significant individual poems or collections. Essays begin with full data on dates and places of birth and/or death, and a list of the poet's "Principal Poetry." Next is a brief overview of "Other Literary Forms" and two longer sections, "Achievements" and "Biography." The longest section, "Analysis," discusses the poet's work and examines several poems. The final section includes a bibliography containing up-to-date resources.

This edition has the added benefit of being organized into five subsets by geography and essay type:

A four-volume subset on American Poets; a three-volume subset on British, Irish and Commonwealth Poets; a three-volume subset on European Poets; a one-volume subset on World Poets; and a two-volume subset of Topical Essays. A Cumulative Indexes volume covering all five subsets is free with purchase of one or more subsets. The poet subsets are arranged alphabetically, and each poet appears in only one subset.

A number of helpful resources and indexes appear in the back of each subset including a bibliography, a guide to online resources, a glossary of poetic terms, a list of major awards, a chronological list of poets, a geographical index of poets & essays, a categorized index of poets, and a subject index.

Critical Survey of Poetry: American Poets

The four volumes of American Poets include 405 articles on some of America's best-loved poets, including Walt Whitman, Ezra Pound, E.E. Cummings and Gwendolyn Brooks. New poets covered include Sherman Alexie, Sandra Cisneros, Alberto Rios, and Shel Silverstein.

JANUARY 2011
4 volumes; 2,414 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-583-8
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-592-0
PRINT LIST PRICE: $495

Critical Survey of Poetry: British, Irish, & Commonwealth Poets

Poets covered here include Margaret Atwood, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Geoffrey Chaucer, T.S. Eliot, D.H. Lawrence, Christopher Marlowe, William Shakespeare, Oscar Wilde, William Wordsworth, and William Butler Yeats. New to this edition are Leonard Cohen, Christopher Logue, and Harold Pinter.

JANUARY 2011
3 volumes; 1,470 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-588-3
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-755-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $395

Critical Survey of Poetry: European Poets

This three-volume subset discusses major poets from the many different regions of Europe. The 195 essays include such poets as Samuel Beckett, Jean Cocteau, Homer, Michelangelo, Sappho, Arthur Rimbaud, and Virgil. New poets discussed include Giovanni Boccaccio, Hermann Hesse, Jorge Manrique, and Anna Swir.

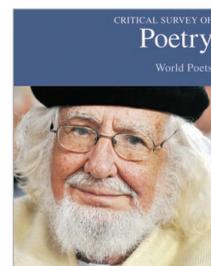

JANUARY 2011
3 volumes; 1,262 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-756-6
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-760-3
PRINT LIST PRICE: $395

Critical Survey of Poetry: World Poets

This volume examines 68 poets from a wide range of countries, including Nicaragua's Ruben Dario, China's Li Bo, Chile's Pablo Neruda, and Russia's Alexander Pushkin. New poets include Nigerian poet Chinua Achebe, Argentine poet Jorge Luis Borges, and Korean poet Ko Un.

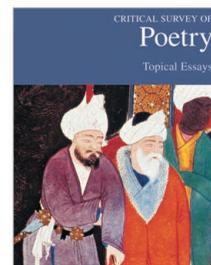

JANUARY 2011
1 volume; 442 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-761-0
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-762-7
PRINT LIST PRICE: $150

Critical Survey of Poetry: Topical Essays

The essays in this two-volume set are organized under categories such as "Poetry Around the World," "Literary Movements," and "Criticism and Theory." New overviews were commissioned on topics such as Australian and New Zealand Poetry, Beat Poetry, Canadian Poetry, and Romantic Poets.

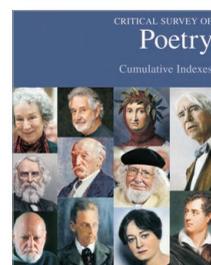

JANUARY 2011
2 volumes; 924 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-763-4
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-766-5
PRINT LIST PRICE: $295

Critical Survey of Poetry: Cumulative Indexes

This volume brings together in one place all the appendixes and indexes. It includes a chronological list of poets, a geographical index of poets and essays, a categorized index, a subject index, a list of major awards, and a complete bibliography.

JANUARY 2011
1 volume; 266 pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-767-2
Free With Purchase of More Than One Subset

Critical Survey of Long Fiction

Edited by Top Literary Scholars

AT A GLANCE

- 10 Volumes; 6,056 Pages
- 679 Essays & 61 Historical, Geographical, & Genre Overviews
- Illustrated with Author Photos
- Subject Index & Time Line
- Major Awards
- Glossary of Literary Terms

JANUARY 2010

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-535-7

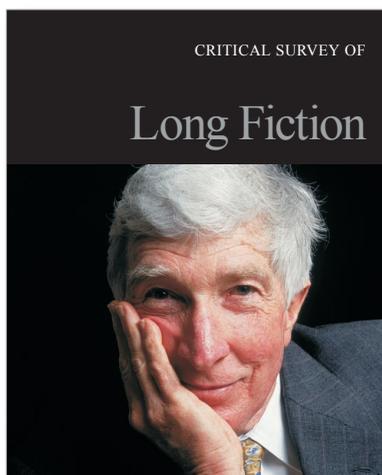

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-546-3

LIST PRICE: $995

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“Offers a wider variety of information and is an excellent starting point for those beginning literary research. Highly recommended.” —Library Journal

Outstanding Reference Source –ALA/RUSA

This title offers 678 profiles of major writers of long fiction throughout history and the world, including critical analyses of their significant novels and novellas.

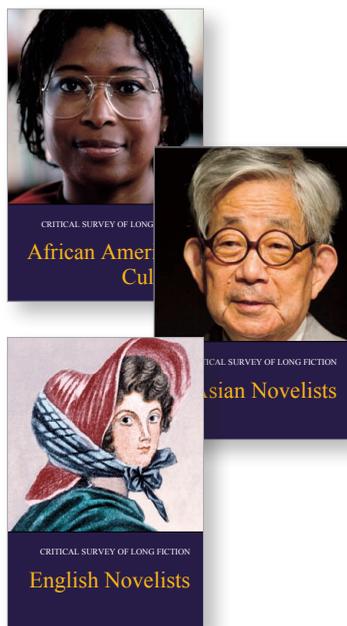

This new edition includes all 581 original author essays as well as 97 new ones, expanding the set to ten volumes and covering more than 60 countries and the literary fiction from the 10th century to the 21st. All the original essays were evaluated for their currency, and 130 of them were replaced or substantially revised, in some cases by the original contributors. The sections “Other Literary Forms,” “Achievements,” “Biography,” and “Analysis” were updated to include recent developments: new titles or awards, changes in residence or employment, and alterations in critical and popular reception. For these essays, one or more sections on specific novels or novellas were added.

NEW HARDCOVER VOLUMES

The most popular content of the Critical Survey of Long Fiction is now available in single hardcover works, with new overview essays and now FREE ONLINE ACCESS!

Each comprehensive volume profiles authors and works in a particular genre or geography. Volumes begin with an informative introductory essay averaging 8,000 words. Volumes cover about 22 authors, each essay is 5,000 - 7,500 words in length, with detailed discussions of the author’s works, narrative style, and characterization, in addition to comprehensive bibliographic content. Valuable back matter includes a bibliography, glossary, guide to online resources, and two indexes.

African American Culture

African American Culture chronicles the lives and most significant works of writers who focused on African American culture from the 1800s to the present day. Coverage includes Toni Cade Bambara, Ralph Ellison, Zora Neale Hurston, Toni Morrison, Harriet Beecher Stowe and many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-717-7 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-938-6 | $95

Asian Novelists

Asian Novelists focuses on the most influential Chinese, Japanese and South Asian novelists. Writers profiled include Abe Kobo, Anita Desai, Anchee Min, Haruki Murakami, Raja Rao, Salman Rushdie and many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-718-4 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-939-3 | $95

English Novelists

English Novelists examines works from key players within the genre. From the fantastic The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe to the romantic Sense and Sensibility, this title examines the lives and significant works of Jane Austen, Samuel Butler, Daniel Defoe, E.M. Forster, Henry James and many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-719-1 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-940-9 | $95

All Long Fiction Hardcovers are available in the following formats:

French Novelists

From philosophy to historical fiction and satire to science fiction, French Novelists examines the lives and works of Simone de Beauvoir, Albert Camus, Alexandre Dumas, Victor Hugo, Marcel Proust, Jean-Jacques and many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-720-7 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-941-6 | $95

Gothic Novelists

Gothic Novelists examines a wide variety of writers who have mixed horror, romanticism, and fiction to produce influential, one-of-a-kind works. From Frankenstein to Jane Eyre, this volume profiles Margaret Atwood, Charlotte Brontë, Daphne Du Maurier, Nathaniel Hawthorne and more.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-721-4 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-929-4 | $95

Irish Novelists

This volume profiles the lives and analyzes the most significant works of Irish novelists throughout history. Coverage includes Samuel Beckett, Joyce Cary, Maria Edgeworth, James Joyce, Patrick McGinley, Brian Moore, Jonathan Swift, Oscar Wilde and many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-722-1 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-943-0 | $95

Latin American Novelists

Latin American Novelists examines the lives and significant works of influential Hispanic writers such as Mario Vargas Llosa, Gabriel García Márquez, Isabel Allende, Julio Cortazar, Manuel Puig, Ernesto Sabato and Clarice Lispector, who made a lasting impact in their respective genres.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-723-8 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-946-1 | $95

Native American Novelists

This volume combines critical analysis and detailed biographical information on the most influential Native American novelists throughout history, including Sherman Alexie, James Fenimore Cooper, Louise Erdrich, Barbara Kingslover, Frank Waters and Larry Woiwode.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-724-5 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-947-8 | $95

Naturalist Novelists

Comprehensive essays focus on the lives and significant works of novelists whose themes centered around nature, including Don DeLillo, Thomas Hardy, James Joyce, Upton Sinclair, John Steinbeck, Edith Wharton, Emile Zola and many more.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-725-2 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-930-0 | $95

Novelists with Feminist Themes

Novelists with Feminist Themes explores the works and lives of writers whose works are centered on the experience of women, including Julia Alvarez, Margaret Atwood, Kate Chopin, Khaled Hosseini, Jamaica Kincaid, Gertrude Stein, Virginia Woolf among many others.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-726-9 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-935-5 | $95

Russian Novelists

Russian Novelists highlights exemplary pieces of fiction written by prominent figures in the Russian literary world, including Vassily Aksyonov, Maxim Gorky, Alexander Pushkin, Leo Tolstoy and many more.

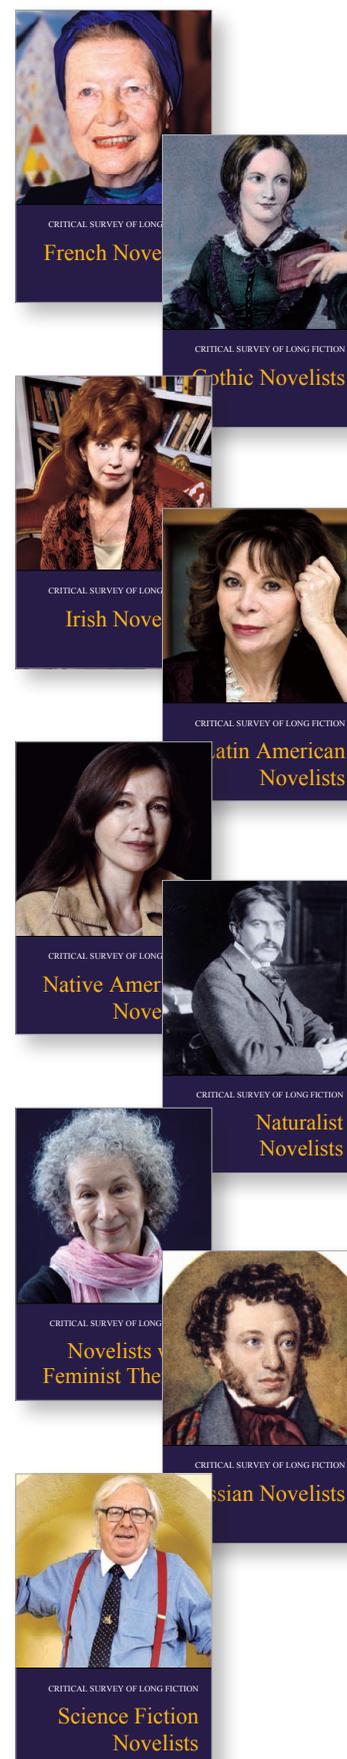

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-727-6 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-948-5 | $95

Science Fiction Novelists

Science Fiction Novelists compiles essays on the lives and most significant works of some of the greatest Science Fiction writers of all time, such as Isaac Asimov, Ursula K. Le Guin, Kurt Vonnegut, Jules Verne and H.G. Wells, to name a few.

January 2012 | Hardcover ISBN: 978-1-61925-728-3 (Includes Online Access) | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-934-8 | $95

All Long Fiction Hardcovers are available in the following formats:

BEST SELLER!

Masterplots II: African American Literature

"This classic source offers the breadth of information necessary for curriculum support."

—School Library Journal

African American Literature offers essays on individual titles by great novelists, playwrights, memoirists, historians, poets, short-story writers, essayists, and orators. Coverage includes Maya Angelou, Jamaica Kincaid, Toni Cade Bambara, Octavia E. Butler, Cornel West, Suzan-Lori Parks and Gwendolyn Brooks. Each essay discusses the contents of the work, its broader implications, form and content and a detailed analysis.

December 2008 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-438-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-447-3 | $404

Notable African American Writers

"The appendixes and indexes help set this resource apart from the numerous other references works on African-American writers, and add to its value for students. Recommended." —Booklist

Notable African American Writers offers 80 essays on important African American writers in all genres— from slave narratives to abolitionist tracts, from the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s to the Black Arts movement of the 1960s and 1970s. Students, librarians, and teachers will find a comprehensive overview of each author's biography and literary career as well as ready-reference listings of his or her major works in all genres.

April 2006 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-272-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-362-9 | $217

American Ethnic Writers

"This set should be considered for purchase, even by libraries that own the earlier edition."

—School Library Journal

This set covers all major American ethnicities and includes such well-known writers as Maya Angelou, Toni Morrison, Amy Tan, Ha Jin, Victor Hernandez Cruz, Sherman Alexie, and Joy Harjo. Each essay includes a summary description of the writer's significance; associated ethnicities; birth and death dates; a Biography and a thorough analysis of the writer's works.

September 2008 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-462-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-466-4 | $217

Critical Survey of Mystery & Detective Fiction

"An outstanding reference source that should be purchased by all but the smallest libraries." — ARBA Outstanding Academic Title, 2010 —CHOICE

Provides detailed analyses of the lives and writings of major contributors to mystery and detective fiction. Covered here are such well-known writers as Raymond Chandler, Agatha Christie, Arthur Conan Doyle, Edgar Allan Poe, Louisa May Alcott, Mary Higgins Clark, John Grisham, and J. K. Rowling. Detailed articles provide an analysis of the author's contribution to the genre, a biography and an overview of the author's writing.

January 2008 | Five Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-397-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-444-2 | $399

Classics of Science Fiction & Fantasy Literature

"Recommended." —Booklist

Offers plot summaries and analyses of 180 major books and series in science fiction and fantasy. Titles range from classics such as Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and L. Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz to such pioneering classics as H.G. Wells's The War of the Worlds and J.R.R. Tolkien's Lord of the Rings. Articles include a plot summary and analysis, the classification of the work and subgenre.

March 2002 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-050-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-183-0 | $130

Masterplots II: Christian Literature

"Recommended for public and undergraduate libraries, to support both reference services and collection development." —School Library Journal

Provides coverage of more than 500 of the greatest fiction and nonfiction Christian works. The scope of this set is broad, with all major genres included: fiction and nonfiction classics; drama, from Everyman to Jesus Christ Superstar; poetry, from "The Dream of the Rood" to Mark Jarman's Questions for Ecclesiastes; and the best of Christian genre fiction, including romance, mystery, and science fiction, as well as literary fiction.

September 2007 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-379-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-413-8 | $385

Holocaust Literature

"An excellent, comprehensive reference source." — School Library Journal

Chosen by an eminent scholar of Holocaust studies, this volume offers more than 100 in-depth reviews of the classics of Holocaust literature, arranged alphabetically by title, covering the essential literature of the Holocaust: histories, biographies, memoirs, diaries, testimonials, philosophy, social criticism, novels, short fiction, poetry, plays.

March 2008 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-375-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-443-5 | $130

Notable American Novelists

“The result is a good reference tool for public and academic libraries...” —Library Journal

Presents biographical sketches and analytical overviews of 145 of the best-known American and Canadian writers of long fiction that are studied in the core curricula of high school and undergraduate literature studies. Entries provide a biography of the author, an analysis of their central works and a list of major works.

August 2007 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-393-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-410-7 | $217

Magill’s Survey of American Literature

“Best Reference, 2007.” —Library Journal Editor’s Choice, 2007 —Booklist

A unique combination of biography and critical analysis, this set is an indispensable guide to over 300 of the major U.S. and Canadian authors of fiction, drama, nonfiction, young adult literature and poetry. Essays provide biographical information, broad critical analysis, and a review of major works.

September 2006 | Six Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-285-1 | $499

Magill’s Survey of World Literature

“Editor’s Choice.” —Booklist

This six-volume set profiles major authors of fiction, drama, poetry, novels, short stories, poems, nonfiction and essays, each with sections on biography and analysis of the author’s most important works. New authors profiled include Roald Dahl, A. A. Milne, Friedrich Nietzsche, Helen Fielding, Nick Hornby, and J. K. Rowling.

January 2009 | Six Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-431-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-446-6 | $499

Notable Playwrights

“It would be a good choice for high-school, public and undergraduate libraries.” —Booklist

Offers biographical sketches and critical studies of 106 of the best-known dramatists, from the development of drama in ancient Greece and Rome to European, American, Asian, and African writers of today. Among the many dramatic genres represented in this set are expressionism, absurdism, and postmodernism.

August 2004 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-195-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-316-2 | $217

Masterplots II: Drama Series

“Recommended for public, high school and college libraries.” —Library Journal

Provides analysis of the works of the most important 20th century playwrights. Essays cover first-performance data, setting, principal characters with brief descriptions, along with a summary of the plot; issues discussed in the play; plot devices, staging techniques and characterization; and a perspective on the critical context.

September 2003 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-116-8 | $404

Critical Survey of Drama

“The most extensive resource available for dramatic biographical reference and analysis.... highly recommended. General and academic collections.” —CHOICE

This eight-volume set contains 602 essays that discuss both individual dramatists and overview topics. Each essay provides a list of the author’s major dramatic works and a summary of the writer’s professional achievements. An extended biographical sketch centers on the writer’s development, followed by a critical analysis of their major dramatic works.

April 2003 | Eight Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-102-1 | $499

Masterplots II: Short Story Series

“When this arrives in the library, show it to all of the teachers, not just the subject specialists.

Highly recommended.” —Gale Group

Highlights the content, themes, structure and techniques of 1,490 stories from around the world. Entries include title, author, type and time of the plot, locale, principal characters, and first-publication information. Essays that follow provide a synopsis, discuss themes, style and techniques and give a critical discussion of the story’s most important issues.

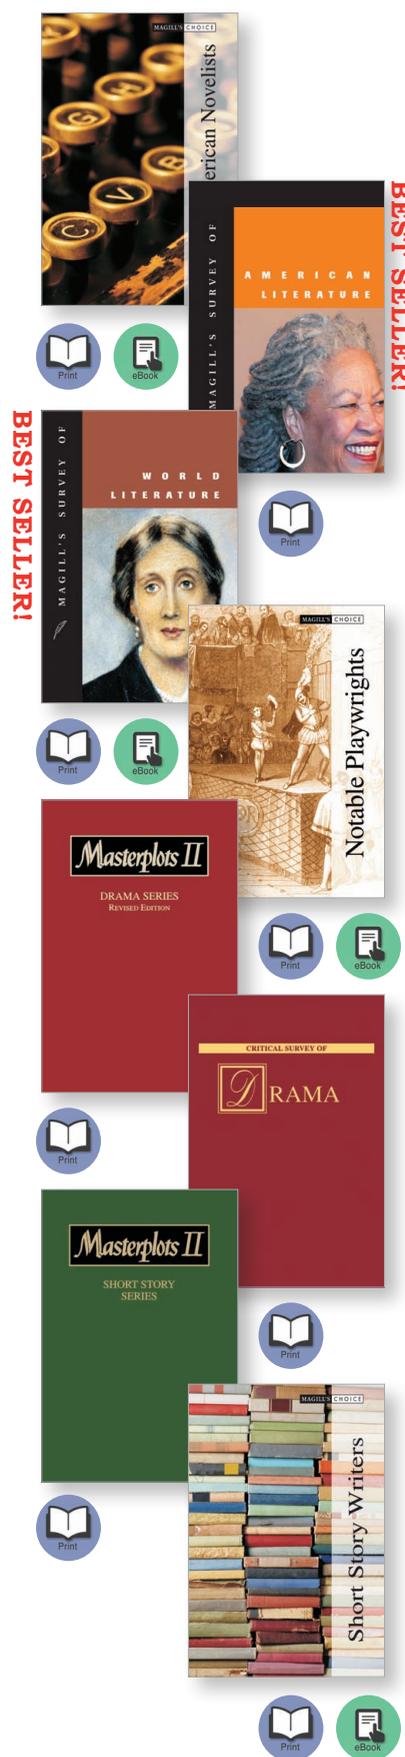

January 2004 | Eight Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-140-3 | $599

Short Story Writers

“Readers, whether in need of a brief critical overview or in search of what to read next, will find this set extremely useful.” —School Library Journal

Covers 146 of the most frequently taught, read, and researched short fiction writers studied in schools and colleges. Essays include a chronological list of the subject’s major publications of short fiction, then go on to discuss other genres in which the author has worked; the author’s achievements, awards and honors, a biography and a thorough analysis of the authors most important works.

October 2007 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-389-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-411-4 | $217

Countries, Peoples & Cultures

Central & South America

NEW!

Countries, Peoples & Cultures

This brand-new series from Salem Press provides valuable insight into the social, cultural, economic, historical, and religious practices and beliefs of nearly every nation around the globe. With nine comprehensive, up-to-date volumes spanning every major world region, this in-depth reference source is one of the most thorough compilations of its kind on the market today.

The Countries, Peoples & Cultures series is complete with specific information on over 200 countries and self-governing territories, as well as separate appendices profiling 21 types of governments currently in power and 10 major world religions. Useful for students, educators, academic researchers, and other professionals in their fields, this encyclopedia is a must-have for community, academic, and specialized libraries across the nation.

Every volume in this series contains Culture Profiles that explore each nation's background, practices, beliefs, laws, peoples, and more, ensuring users receive a complete, three-dimensional understanding of the countries they research. Every Culture Profile contains a picture of the country's flag and two large colored maps, one highlighting the country's location in its region of the world and the other detailing the capital, major cities, and major natural landmarks. An Introduction provides general information about each country, such as its Population, Official Language(s), Physical Size, Climate, Currency, and National Motto/Anthem. Subsequent sections dive deep into a diverse array of topics, including: Environment & Geography, Customs & Courtesies, Lifestyle, Arts & Entertainment, Cultural Sites & Landmarks, Libraries & Museums, Holidays, Youth Culture, Cultural History, Transportation, Infrastructure, Media & Communications, Standard of Living, Education, Women's Rights, Health Care, Government, Tourism, Agriculture, and the Economy. Every Culture Profile ends with a list of Off-Beat Facts, such as origins of familiar words or unique traditions only found in the featured nation.

An appendix of World Government Profiles focuses on 21 types of governments found in the world today, highlighting each government's Guiding Premise, Typical Structure, Role of the Citizen, and modern-day Examples. Governments featured in this appendix include: Commonwealth, Communist, Confederacy/Confederation, Constitutional Republic, Constitutional Monarchy, Democracy, Dictatorship/Military Dictatorship, Ecclesiastical, Federal Republic, Federation, Monarchy, Parliamentary Monarchy, Parliamentary Republic, Presidential, Republic, Socialist, Sultanate/Emirate, Theocratic Republic, Totalitarian, Treaty System, and Failed State.

An additional appendix of World Religion Profiles reviews 10 major world religions and includes a General Description that details the Religion Name, Number of Adherents Worldwide, Basic Tenets, Sacred Text(s), Major Figures, Major Holy Sites, Major Rites & Celebrations, and other beliefs, such as the existence of an afterlife. Origins of each religion are also thoroughly explored, including the History & Geography, Founder/Major Prophet, Philosophical Basis, and Holy Places, as well as explanations of the faith's Governance, Personal Conduct of Believers, Rites, Celebrations, Services, and more. Religions profiled in this appendix include: Baha'i, Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Judaism, Religious Traditions of Africa, Religious Traditions of Asia, and Sikhism.

Available as a Nine Volume Set, or as Individual Regional Volumes

Nine Volume Set

Nine Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-800-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-801-3 | $895

All volumes available in the following formats:

East & Southern Africa

Countries and territories in this volume represent the eastern and southern parts of the African continent. Includes profiles of: Botswana, Burundi, Comoros, Djibouti, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Kenya, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Rwanda, Seychelles, Somalia, South Africa, South Sudan, Swaziland, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, and Zimbabwe.

October 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-782-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-783-2 | $125

West & Central Africa

The western and central parts of the African continent are covered in this volume. Includes profiles of: Angola, Benin, Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Cape Verde, Central African Republic, Chad, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Cote d'Ivoire, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, Gambia, Ghana, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Republic of the Congo, Sao Tome and Principe, Senegal, Sierra Leone, and Togo.

November 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-784-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-785-6 | $125

North America & The Caribbean

The North American continent (above Mexico) and islands located in the Caribbean Sea are examined in this volume. Includes profiles of: Antigua and Barbuda, Aruba, the Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, Canada, Cuba, Curaçao and Sint Maarten (ex-Netherlands Antilles), Dominica, Dominican Republic, Greenland, Grenada, Haiti, Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, the United States, and Virgin Islands.

November 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-786-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-787-0 | $125

Central & South America

This volume takes a look at the South American continent, Mexico, and Central America. Includes profiles of: Argentina, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, El Salvador, Falkland Islands (Malvinas), Guatemala, Guyana, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Suriname, Uruguay, and Venezuela.

February 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-788-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-789-4 | $125

East Asia & The Pacific

Nations and territories of Eastern Asia and in the Pacific Ocean are the focus of this volume. Includes profiles of: Australia, China, East Timor, Federated States of Micronesia, Fiji, French Polynesia, Guam, Japan, Kiribati, Marshall Island, Mongolia, Nauru, New Caledonia, New Zealand, North Korea, Palau, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands, South Korea, Taiwan, Tuvalu, Tonga, and Vanuatu.

December 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-790-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-791-7 | $125

Central & Southeast Asia

Countries and territories of this volume represent the Central, Southern, and Southeastern regions of the Asian continent. Includes profiles of: Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Brunei, Cambodia, India, Indonesia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Malaysia, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Tajikistan, Thailand, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, and Vietnam.

April 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-792-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-793-1 | $125

Eastern Europe

Russia and the eastern, central, and southeastern regions of the European continent comprise this volume. Includes profiles of: Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Greece, Hungary, Kosovo, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, and Ukraine.

August 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-794-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-795-5 | $125

Western Europe

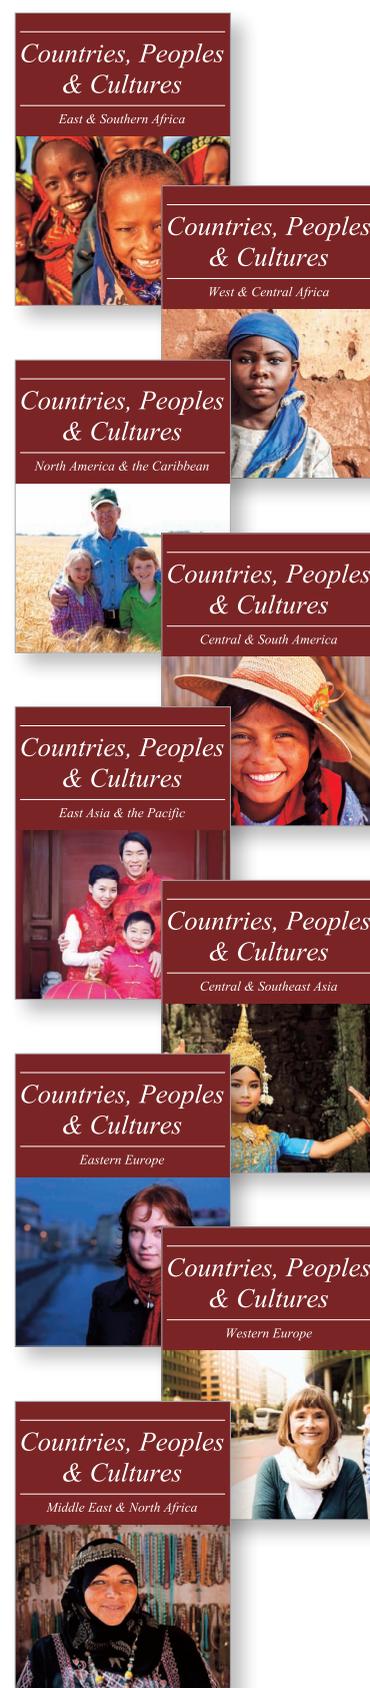

Nations on the western part of the European continent, as well as the United Kingdom, Ireland, and Iceland, are the focus of this volume. Includes profiles of: Andorra, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Faroe Islands, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, San Marino, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and Vatican City.

June 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-796-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-797-9 | $125

Middle East & North Africa

Territories in the Middle East and on the northern part of the African continent are covered in this volume. Includes profiles of: Algeria, Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Iran, Israel, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Oman, Palestine, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, Turkey, the United Arab Emirates, and Yemen.

September 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-798-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-799-3 | $125

History & Social Science

44

- PRIMARY SOURCE DOCUMENTS
- DOCUMENT ANALYSIS
- RESEARCH INSIGHTS

Salem Press' Defining Documents in American and World History and Milestone Documents series provide in-depth analysis of the most important documents that helped determine U.S. and World History.

Defining Documents in World History:
Ancient World,
2700 B.C.E. - 50 C.E.

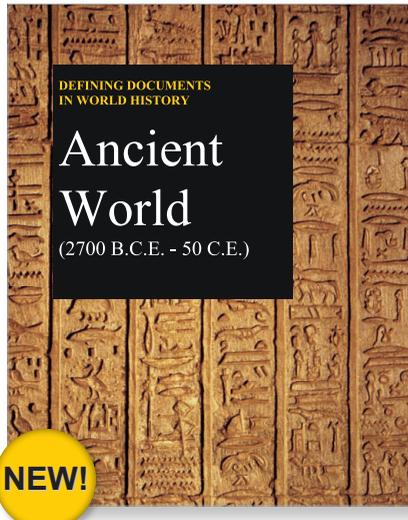

Edited by Michael Shally-Jensen

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- 40 Primary Source Documents
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Time Line
- List of Web Resources
- Subject Index

JULY 2015
 Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-771-9
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-772-6
LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

From Gilgamesh to Ancient Egypt to the Fall of Rome, this volume provides easy-to-use tools to engage, enlighten and give students a new frame of reference to study and analyze the most important documents from Ancient History.

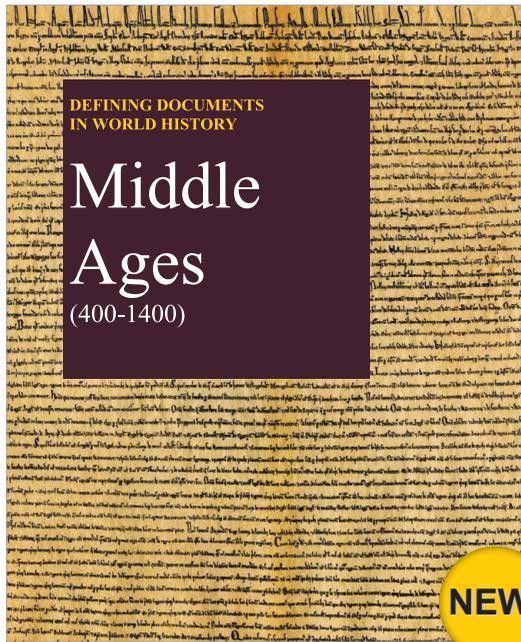

Through in-depth analysis of important primary documents from B.C.E. and C.E., readers will gain new insights into the life and culture in Ancient History. Written by historians and experts in the field, this resource examines a wide array of primary source documents with an in-depth critical analysis. Articles begin by introducing readers to its historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document is written. A document analysis guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and the document in Ancient history.

Defining Documents in World History: Ancient World provides detailed analysis of the following topics:

- The Fall of Rome, the Barbarian Invasion, and the Ancient Huns.
- Ancient Egypt: the religion and culture.
- The daily life and culture of Sumeria, Ancient Babylonia, the Huns, Ancient Ethiopians, and the Ancient Mayans.
- The culture, religion, and law of Ancient Rome.
- The Military and Government war efforts.
- And much more!

From speeches to journal entries, government documents and newspaper articles, students and researchers will gain new insights into the life and culture of Ancient History. The documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout this significant time period.

See also:
 Great Events from History: The Ancient World pg. 58
 Great Lives from History: The Ancient World pg. 63

Provides in-depth analysis of primary documents surrounding the most important historical events and key figures from the Middle Ages.

Defining Documents in World History: Middle Ages, 400-1400

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 328 Pages
- 60 Essays
- 60 Primary Source Documents
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Time Line
- List of Web Resources
- Subject Index

AUGUST 2015
Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-773-3
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-774-0
LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

Defining Documents in World History: The Middle Ages offers in-depth analysis of a broad range of historical documents and historic events that shaped law, government, religion, and culture throughout the Middle Ages. The text provides in-depth analysis of more than forty primary source documents to deliver a thorough examination of events from 400 to 1400 B.C.E.

Defining Documents in World History: The Middle Ages provides detailed, thought-provoking analysis of:

- Religion & Religious Reform
- Scholarly Thought & Education
- Philosophy & Science
- The Crusades
- Military History
- Law, Politics & Government

A historical timeline and bibliography of important supplemental readings will support readers in understanding the broader historical events and subjects in the period. An introduction for each of the major subjects covered in the title considers the significance of document analysis for students and educators.

Each in-depth chapter guides students and educators in document analysis and historical comprehension. The documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political, and cultural subjects throughout World History.

See also:

Great Events from History: the Middle Ages pg. 58

Great Lives from History: The Middle Ages pg. 63

Defining Documents in American History: Exploration & Colonial America, 1492-1755

Edited by Daisy Martin, Ph.D.

DECEMBER 2012

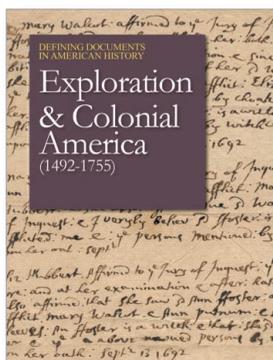

2 Volumes; 800 Pages

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3701-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3704-0

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

Exploration and Colonial America provides a close analysis of several types of documents, including:

- Exploration & Colonial Documents
- Important Journals of Exploration
- Reports of New World Settlements
- Early Political Tracts on Self-Governing
- Narratives on Colonial Life
- Slavery & Indentured Servitude Narratives

An important supplement to each historical document is a carefully designed readers guide, which follows national history standards for learning, to guide students and educators in document analysis and historical comprehension.

Study questions, activities, and suggested author pairings will establish the legacy of documents and authorship for readers today. In addition, comparative analysis highlights how every document emerges from a myriad of social and political influences.

Defining Documents in American History: The American Revolution, 1754-1805

Edited by Peter Kratzke, Ph.D.

DECEMBER 2012

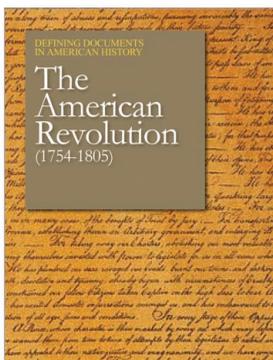

2 Volumes; 800 Pages

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3705-7

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3708-8

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

Defining Documents in American History: The American Revolution chronicles key documents during the revolutionary era. Included are:

- Founding Documents
- Speeches & Political Tracts
- Political Sermons
- Letters
- Native American & African Slave Narratives

An important supplement to each historical document is a carefully designed readers guide, which follows national history standards for learning, to guide students and educators in document analysis and historical comprehension.

Study questions, activities, and suggested author pairings will establish the legacy of documents and authorship for readers today. In addition, comparative analysis highlights how every document emerges from a myriad of social and political influences.

See also:

Encyclopedia of the Continental Congress & Encyclopedia of Constitutional Amendments pg. 71, Working Americans Series pg. 57, The Value of a Dollar pg. 71

Defining Documents in American History: Manifest Destiny & The New Nation, 1803-1860

Edited by Salem Press

OCTOBER 2013

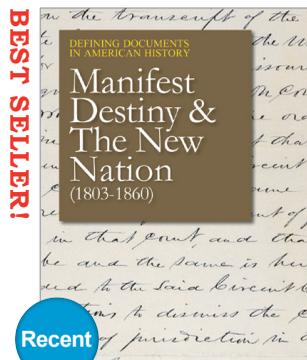

2 Volumes; 800 Pages

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3742-2

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3745-3

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

"Nicely organized... Highly recommended." —CHOICE

Offers a broad range of historical documents on important authors and subjects in American history. Topics covered in this volume include:

- Antebellum Law & Politics
- Manifest Destiny & The Spirit of Reform
- African American Protest Literature
- The New American Identity
- Religious Expansion
- Native American Land & Autonomy

Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout

American history. In addition, comparative analysis highlights how every document emerges from a myriad of social and political influences.

A historical timeline and complete bibliography will support readers in understanding the broader historical events and subjects in the period.

History - Primary Source Documents

Defining Documents in American History: The American West offers a broad range of historical documents on important figures and topics in American West research. Written by historians and experts in the field, this resource examines a wide array of primary source documents with an in-depth critical analysis. Articles begin by introducing the reader to the document's historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and the document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The American West provides detailed analysis of the following topics:

- On Texas Independence
- The Discovery of Gold in California
- The Alaska Purchase
- Frontier Justice
- The Ghost Dance Among the Lakota
- Mormon Disavowal of Plural Marriage
- Across the Plains in 1844
- Trouble on the Paiute Reservation
- The Transcontinental Railroad
- Walt Whitman on "The Spanish Element in Our Nationality"
- The Massacre at Wounded Knee
- Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show

From speeches to journal entries, government documents and newspaper articles, students and researchers will gain new insights into America's westward expansion, through the thoughts and letters of the brave Americans who ventured out to seek their fortunes and reshape our nation.

Defining Documents in American History:

The American West, 1836-1900

Edited by Michael Shally-Jensen

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- 40 Primary Source Documents
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Time Line
- List of Web Resources
- Subject Index

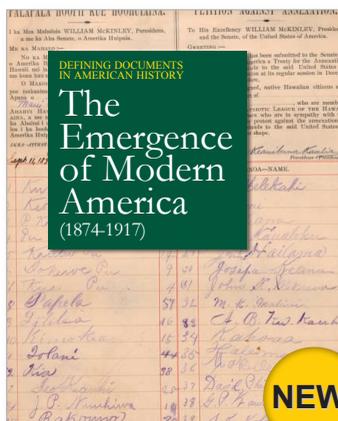

DECEMBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-533-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-534-0

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

This important resource provides readers with many new ways to explore the emergence of modern America in the years of 1874 to 1917. The text provides in-depth analysis of nearly fifty primary source documents to deliver a thorough examination of this important time in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Emergence of Modern America offers in-depth critical analysis of 49 primary source documents. Articles begin by introducing readers to the document's historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding the key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Emergence of Modern America provides detailed analysis of a wide array of subjects important to the study of this pivotal time period in American history, including:

- Labor Reform, Child Labor & Labor Conditions
- Wounded Knee & Native American Relations
- The Spanish American War
- Westward Expansion
- Social Responsibility & Humanitarianism
- Politics & Government Policy
- Suffrage & Feminism
- Prohibition
- Civil Rights & Ethnic Prejudice
- Conservation & Environmentalism

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

Defining Documents in American History:

The Emergence of Modern America, 1874-1917

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volumes; 500 Pages
- 60 Essays
- 60 Primary Source Documents
- Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

JULY 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-489-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-490-9

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

Defining Documents in American History:The Civil War, 1860-1865

Edited by James M. McPherson, Ph.D., Civil War Historian; Pulitzer Prize Winner; Professor Emeritus of U.S. History, Princeton University

AT A GLANCE

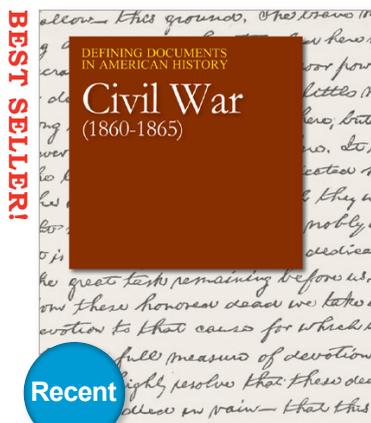

- 2 Volumes; 800 Pages
- 80 Essays
- 80 Primary Source Documents
- 40 Images
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Time Line & Maps
- List of Web Resources
- Subject Index

DECEMBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3746-0

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3749-1

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

Recent

This amazing collection of documents shines a new light on Civil War research. Primary documents, document analysis and research insights combine to provide an easy-to-use research tool to study and analyze this interesting time in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Civil War offers a broad range of historical documents on important authors and subjects in Civil War research. Edited by famed Civil War historian and Pulitzer Prize Winner, James M. McPherson, this resource examines a wide array of primary source documents with an in-depth critical analysis. Articles begin by introducing readers to the historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document is written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Civil War is centered on the following themes:

- Disunion: The Sectional Crisis
- War Stories
- The Destruction of Slavery
- The Politics of War
- The Home Front
- Post War: The Politics of Race

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

A historical timeline and bibliography of important supplemental readings will support readers in understanding the broader historical events and subjects in the period. An introduction for each of the major subjects covered in the title considers the significance of document analysis for students and educators.

Defining Documents in American History:The Reconstruction Era, 1865-1877

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

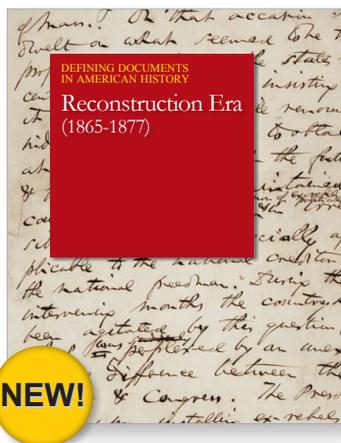

- 1 Volume; 300 Pages
- 20 Essays
- 20 Primary Source Documents
- Photos & Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

JUNE 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-487-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-488-6

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

NEW!

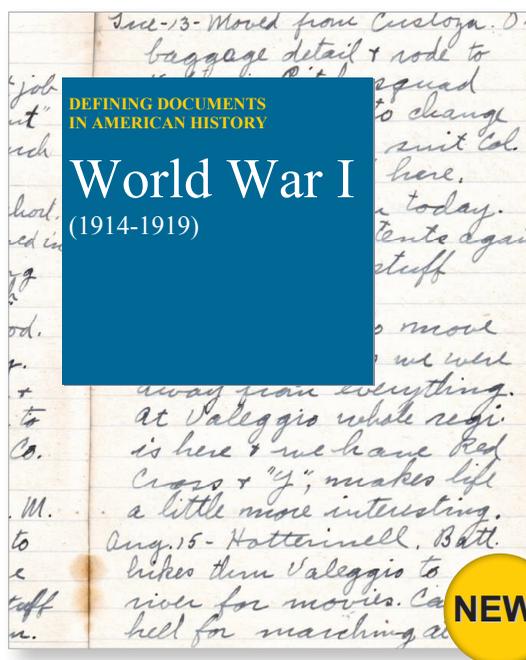

Allows readers to gain new insights into the reconstruction era following the end of the Civil War. Provides in-depth analysis of over twenty primary source documents to deliver a thorough examination of this important time in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Reconstruction Era offers in-depth critical analysis of 20 primary source documents. Articles begin by introducing readers to the document's historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The Reconstruction Era provides detailed analysis of a wide array of documents, including:

- The Second Reconstruction Act
- Louisiana, Mississippi & Ohio State Black Codes
- Civil Rights Act of 1875
- Ten Years on a Georgia Plantation Since the War
- Harper's Weekly, "Education of the Freedmen"

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

Provides readers with a new, interesting way to study the impact of World War I on American history.

Through in-depth analysis of important primary documents from 1914 to 1919, readers will gain new insight into the causes, issues and lasting effects of this pivotal time in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: World War I offers a broad range of historical documents on important authors and subjects in World War I research. Written by historians and experts in the field, this resource examines a wide array of primary source documents with an in-depth critical analysis. Articles begin by introducing readers to its historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document is written. A document analysis guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: World War I is centered on the following themes:

- US in World Politics & the Causes of World War I
- American Participation in World War I
- The War Effort
- Daily Life of a Soldier & Military Conditions
- African Americans in the Military
- Military Preparation
- Military Strategy & Weapon Evolution
- Isolationism & America's Changing Role in World Politics
- Sedition & Anti-German Sentiment
- The Prussian & German View of World War I
- Business & Government Rights in Wartime

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

A historical timeline and bibliography of important supplemental readings will support readers in understanding the broader historical events and subjects in the period. An introduction for each of the major subjects covered in the title considers the significance of document analysis for students and educators.

See also:

This is Who We Were: 1910s and 1920s pg. 56
Working Americans: At War pg. 57

Defining Documents in American History: World War I, 1914-1919

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 328 Pages
- 60 Essays
- 60 Primary Source Documents
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Time Line
- List of Web Resources
- Subject Index

AUGUST 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-491-6

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-492-3

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

History & Social Science

Defining Documents in American History: The 1920s

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- 40 Primary Source Documents
- Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

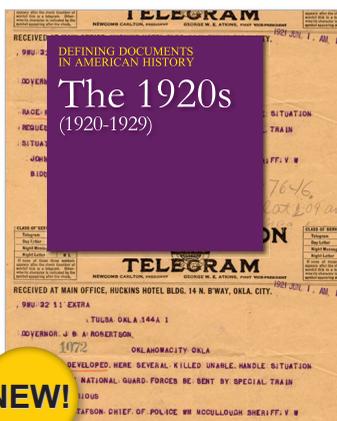

SEPTEMBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-493-0

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-494-7

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

This new resource is designed to give students and researchers new insight into the 1920s in American history, through an in-depth analysis of forty important primary source documents and their lasting effect on American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The 1920s offers in-depth critical analysis of 40 primary source documents important to this uproarious decade in American history. Articles begin by introducing readers to the historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The 1920s provides detailed analysis of a wide array of topics, including:

- Treaty of Versailles & The League of Nations
- Prohibition
- Women's Right to Vote
- The Great Migration of African Americans & the Harlem Renaissance
- Stock Market Collapse & the Onset of the Great Depression

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

See also:

This is Who We Were: In the 1920s pg. 56, The Twenties in America pg. 54

Defining Documents in American History: The 1930s

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- 40 Primary Source Documents
- Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

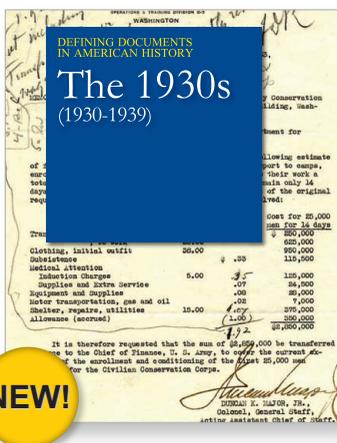

OCTOBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-495-4

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-496-1

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

This important resource provides readers with many new ways to explore the 1930s in American history, as the country was immersed in the Great Depression. The text provides in-depth analysis of forty primary source documents to deliver a thorough examination of this important time in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The 1930s offers in-depth critical analysis of 40 primary source documents. Articles begin by introducing readers to the historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: The 1930s provides detailed analysis of a wide array of subjects important to the study of this pivotal time period in American history, including:

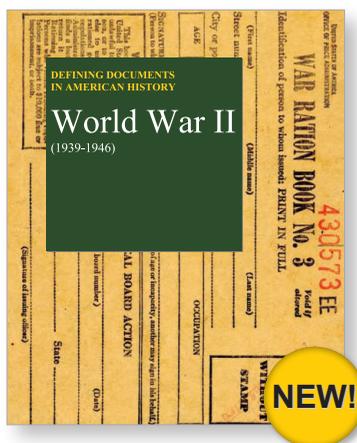

- The Great Depression
- New Deal Programs
- Economic Downturn & Bank Failures
- Dust Bowl Conditions
- The Repeal of Prohibition

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

See also:

The Thirties in America pg. 54, Working Americans Series pg. 57

History - Primary Source Documents

This new title offers a broad range of historical documents on important authors and subjects in World War II research. Written by historians and experts in the field, this resource examines a wide array of primary source documents with an in-depth critical analysis. Articles begin by introducing readers to its historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written.

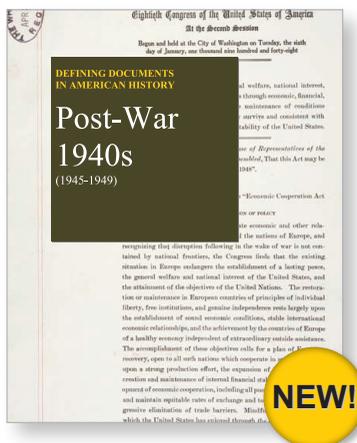

Defining Documents in American History: World War II is centered on the following themes:

- Pre-war U.S. Foreign Policy
- US Entry into World War II
- National Unity
- War Commerce
- Foreign Policy
- The Draft
- The Holocaust
- Pearl Harbor Attack
- And much more!

A historical timeline and bibliography of important supplemental readings will support readers in understanding the broader historical events and subjects in the period. An introduction for each of the major subjects covered in the title considers the significance of document analysis for students and educators.

See also:

Working Americans: At War pg. 57
The Forties in America pg. 54

This important resource provides students and researchers with many new ways to explore the 1940s, as the country was affected by World War II. The text provides in-depth analysis of more than forty primary documents that help shed light on this historical time.

Defining Documents in American History: Post War 1940s offers in-depth critical analysis of more than 40 primary source documents important to this significant decade in American History. Articles begin by introducing readers to the historical context, followed by a description of the author's life and circumstances in which the document was written. A document analysis, written by professional writers and historians, guides readers in understanding key elements of language, rhetoric, and social and political meaning that define the significance of the author and document in American history.

Defining Documents in American History: Post War 1940s, 1940s provides detailed analysis of a wide array of topics, including:

- Occupation of Japan
- Foreign Policy
- Technology
- Red Scare
- And much more!
- Communism
- Integration
- Atomic Energy
- The Government

This collection will introduce students and educators to a diverse range of genres, including journals, letters, speeches, government legislation, and court opinions. Documents represent the diversity of ideas and contexts that define social, political and cultural subjects throughout American history.

See also:

The Forties in America pg. 54, This is Who We Were Series pg. 56

Defining Documents in American History: World War II

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 800 Pages
- 60 Essays
- 60 Primary Source Documents
- Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

FEBRUARY 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-737-5

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-738-2

LIST PRICE: $295

Available formats:

Defining Documents in American History: Post War 1940s

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- 40 Primary Source Documents
- Time Line
- General Bibliography & Subject Index

APRIL 2015

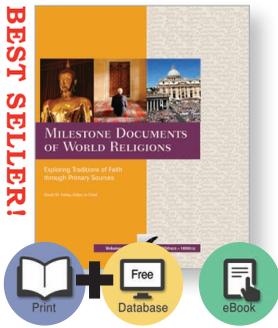

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-739-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-740-5

LIST PRICE: $175

Available formats:

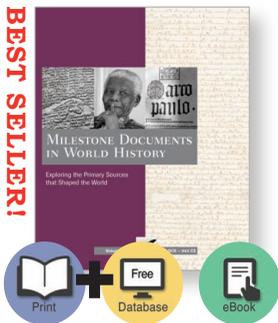

Milestone Documents of World Religions

“Scholarly but jargon-free commentary makes these key documents accessible to students.”
—School Library Journal

The set covers all of the world’s major religions, from Christianity and Islam to Judaism, Hinduism, and Buddhism. Documents discussed include key writings from sacred texts such as the Bible, Koran, and Talmud; letters, essays, and other religious writings. Entries provide the full text of the document, discuss its importance, impact, and historical context, provide a time line of key events, a brief biography of the author, an analysis of the document, and the intended audience.

December 2010 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-9797758-8-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-935306-19-1 | $325

Milestone Documents in World History

“An essential purchase for high school, academic, and medium to large public libraries.” —Library Journal

Provides a complete analysis of iconic legal and constitutional documents; famous treatises such as the Communist Manifesto, and Osama bin Laden’s Declaration of Jihad against America; important international agreements and cultural and political declarations such as Nelson Mandela’s Inaugural Address. Essays begin with an overview of the document’s importance, discuss its historical context and impact, provide a time line and offer a thorough explanation and analysis of the document and its impact.

January 2010 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-9797758-6-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-935306-10-8 | $395

Milestone Documents in African American History

“This resource is essential for high-school, public, and undergraduate libraries.” —Booklist

Outstanding Academic Title, 2010 —CHOICE

This set provides in-depth, analytical essays of the historical importance of 135 iconic documents. Coverage includes important legislative documents; critical Supreme Court decisions; and historic speeches and writings by leaders such as Sojourner Truth, Booker T. Washington, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Barack Obama. Entries include the full text of the document, outline its importance and historical context, provide a time line of key events, a biography of the author, and a complete analysis of the document and its historical impact.

June 2010 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-935306-05-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-935306-15-3 | $395

Milestone Documents of American Leaders

“Outstanding Academic Title, 2009.” —CHOICE Editor’s Choice, 2009 –Booklist

Milestone Documents of American Leaders features important full-text sources written by the people who shaped the nation and crucial scholarly analysis to help the documents come alive. Documents include Lincoln’s “House Divided” speech and Gettysburg Address, Regan’s “A Time for Choosing” and “Evil Empire” speeches and Martin Luther King Jr.’s “I Have a Dream” speech. Essays include an overview of the subject, a time line of events, a complete explanation and analysis of the document and a discussion of the individual’s impact and legacy.

May 2009 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-9797758-5-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-935306-04-7 | $395

Milestone Documents in American History

“This exceptional work will be essential to students ...and teachers will find it invaluable for incorporating those resources into their curriculums.” —School Library Journal

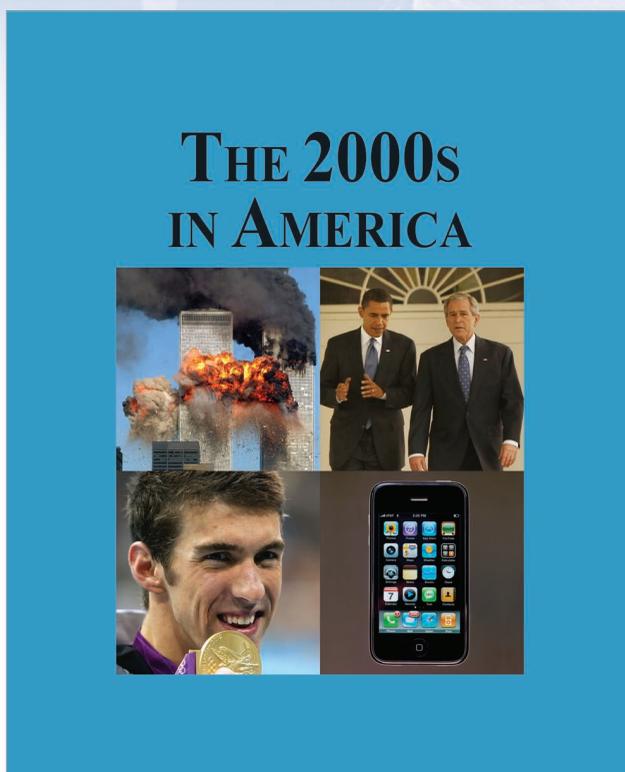

Editor’s Choice, 2008 –Booklist

Outstanding Academic Title, 2008 –CHOICE

This set offers students and researchers in-depth analytical essays illuminating famous primary source documents from U.S. history. Each entry in this set includes the full text of the document with a critical analysis that places the document in its historical context. Among the documents included are the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, Abraham Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address, John F. Kennedy’s 1963 address on integration, and George W. Bush’s address on September 11, 2001.

April 2008 | Four Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-9797758-0-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-0-9797758-9-5 | $385

The DECADES Series

BEST SELLER!

THE 2000s IN AMERICA

This comprehensive collection centers on the impact of the 2000s in the United States.

Historical essays document the turbulent decade that had a profound and lasting effect on American life and culture, including articles on the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and the economic downturns, as well as on the impact of technology, such as social media sites and innovations such as the iPhone. This set joins the acclaimed The Sixties in America, The Fifties in America, and The Seventies in America as a means of studying history by covering the impact of a given decade on the United States and Canada. This three-volume encyclopedia covers events, movements, people, and trends in popular culture, literature, art, sports, science, technology, economics, and politics.

The 2000s in America features long overviews and short entries discussing people and companies; books, films, and plays; products and technological advances; elections and political movements, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 2000s—for this work, defined as January 1, 2000, through December 31, 2009—in order to explore what made the decade unique. Topics that span several decades often provide some background and information on subsequent events to help place “the aughties” in perspective.

Written with the needs of students and general readers in mind, The 2000s in America presents clear discussions of its topics, explaining terms and references that may be unfamiliar. Entries fall into the following general categories: arts and architecture, business and economics, crime and the law, disasters and events, film and television, health and medicine, military and war, politics and government, science and technology, sexuality, social issues, and sports and popular culture.

The 2000s in America

Edited by Daisy Martin, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 711 Pages
- 424 Articles
- Hundreds of Photos
- Over 50 Sidebars
- Time Line
- Photo Index
- Cross-References
- General Bibliography
- Ready-Reference Top Matter
- Bibliography in Every Article
- Major Legislation and Court Cases
- Glossary
- Category List
- Subject Index

MAY 2013
 Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3883-2
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3886-3
LIST PRICE: $364

Available formats:

“A uniquely deep cross-sectional view of our country’s popular culture from (so far) the 1920s on.” This newest entry is no exception... with its far more thorough look at the 2000’s major events and trends... this title makes a richer resource both for young researchers and for general readers whose personal memories of the era may have turned hazy.”

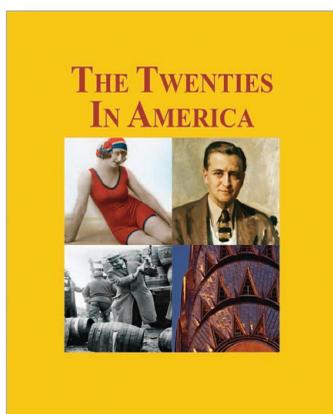

—Library Journal

“A great addition to school, public or undergraduate library collections. Recommended.”

—CHOICE

History & Social Science

BEST SELLER!

The Twenties in America

Flappers, prohibition, jazz, and the Lost Generation, The Twenties in America examines the iconic personalities and moments of this uproarious decade. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1920s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

APRIL 2012

3 Volumes; 1,144 Pages

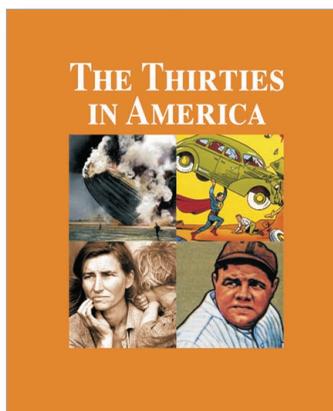

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-855-6; Includes Online Access

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-859-4

LIST PRICE: $395

BEST SELLER!

The Thirties in America

These volumes offer an innovative approach to North America during the 1930s that can be used by advanced students and scholars alike. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1930s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

Best Reference, 2011, Library Journal

MARCH 2011

3 Volumes; 1,256 Pages

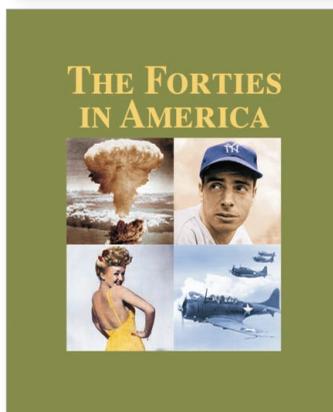

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-725-2; Includes Online Access

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-729-0

LIST PRICE: $395

BEST SELLER!

The Forties in America

This three-volume set discusses important people, events and issues during the years of 1940 to 1949, with particular focus on World War II and its impact on history and daily life. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1940s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

Best Reference, 2010, Library Journal

SEPTEMBER 2010

3 Volumes; 1,296 Pages

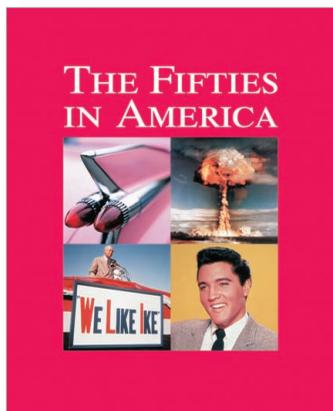

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-659-0; Includes Online Access

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-663-7

LIST PRICE: $364

BEST SELLER!

The Fifties in America

This three-volume set covers the most important events and subjects of the 1950s, including the Cold War, McCarthyism, and a trend toward civil liberties. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1950s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

Editors' Choice, Booklist (2005)

JANUARY 2005

3 Volumes; 1,244 Pages

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-202-8; Includes Online Access

LIST PRICE: $364

The Sixties in America

The set provides in-depth coverage of all aspects of the major events of the 1960s that give the decade its distinctive character. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1960s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

Editor's Choice, 1999 –Booklist
Outstanding Academic Title, 1999 –CHOICE

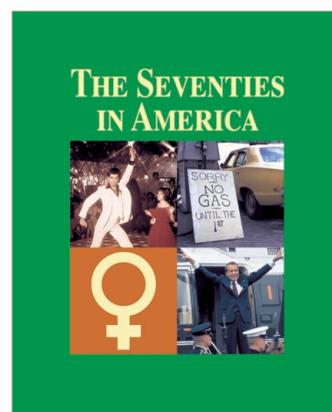

MARCH 1999
3 Volumes; 1,020 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-0-89356-982-2; Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $364

The Seventies in America

These volumes explore topics such as Watergate, the Vietnam War, and the energy crisis. The essays in this set examine the iconic personalities, issues, and moments of the decade. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1970s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

DECEMBER 2005
3 Volumes; 1,220 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-228-8; Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $364

BEST SELLER!

The Eighties in America

This encyclopedia is a much-needed source of reliable information for today's students, all of whom were born after the decade ended. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1980s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

MAY 2008
3 volumes; 1,286 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-419-0; Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-448-0
LIST PRICE: $364

BEST SELLER!

The Nineties in America

The Gulf War, dot-coms, impeachment, grunge, Y2K . . . The Nineties in America examines the iconic personalities and moments of this important decade. It features long overviews and short entries discussing people, books, films, plays, and other important topics representative of that era. Every entry focuses on the topic or person during the 1990s in order to explore what made the decade unique.

FEBRUARY 2009
3 Volumes; 1,160 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-500-5; Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-504-3
LIST PRICE: $364

BEST SELLER!

History & Social Science

This is Who We Were Series

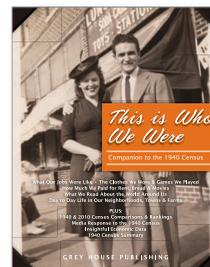

Post Civil War 1880-1900
FEBRUARY 2015
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-755-9
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-757-3
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

The 1910s
OCTOBER 2014
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-177-9
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-178-6
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

The 1920s
JULY 2014
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-284-4
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-299-8
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

Companion to the 1940 Census (1930-1939)
AUGUST 2012
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-007-9
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-008-6
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

1940-1949
OCTOBER 2015
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-741-2
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-742-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

The 1950s
MARCH 2013
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-179-3
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-180-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

The 1960s
OCTOBER 2013
1 volume; 600 pages
 ISBN: 978-1-61925-248-6
 eBook ISBN 978-1-61925-249-3
PRINT LIST PRICE: $155

“An off spring of the 13-volume “Working Americans” series, which assessed Americans by class, occupation, and social cause, this title examines a single decade. Profiles of 34 families across the socioeconomic spectrum take up half the book, with descriptions of their lives at home and work and in their community. Shorter middle sections provide context and include a listing of historic milestones, an economic overview, and a collection of representative media. A substantial demographic analysis, drawing on U.S. census data, concludes the work. VERDICT: An engaging snapshot for nostalgia buff s and serious researchers alike.”

–Library Journal

This is Who We Were provides the reader with a deeper understanding of day-to-day life in America during a particular decade. This new series is sure to be of value as both a serious research tool for students of American history as well as an intriguing climb up America's family tree. The richly-illustrated text provides an interesting way to study a truly unique time in American history.

Personal Profiles: Over 25 in-depth Personal Profiles examine the lives of individuals and families who lived during the decade. Each profile details life at home, at work and in the community.

Historical Snapshots: This section includes lists of important “firsts” for America, from technical advances and political events to new products and top-selling books. Combining serious American history with fun facts, these snapshots present, in chronological categories, an easy-to-read overview of what happened in that decade.

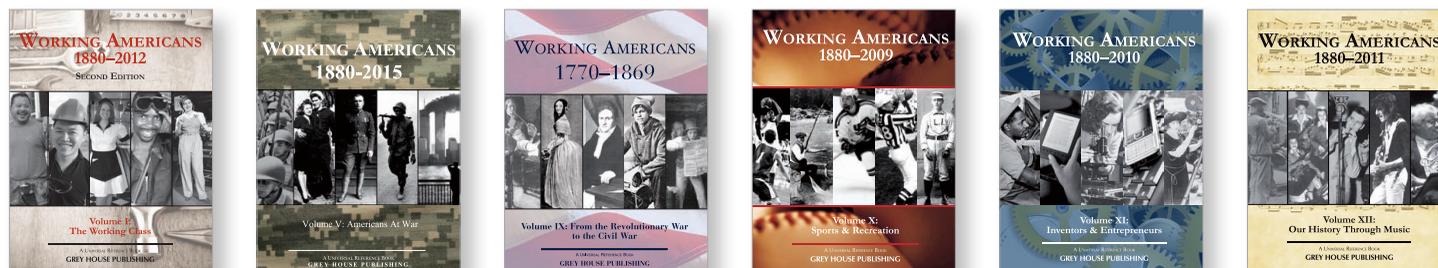

Economy of the Times: This section looks at a wide range of economic data, including food, clothing, transportation, housing and other selected prices, with reprints of actual advertisements for products and services of the time. A fascinating inside look at the economic picture of the time.

All Around Us - What We Saw, Wrote, Read & Listened To: This section includes reprints of newspaper and magazine articles, letters, posters, and others items designed to help the reader focus on what was on the minds of Americans in each decade.

Census Summary & Comparison Data: This section includes state-by-state comparative tables and demographic trends for metropolitan areas from the decade.

This dynamic new series will benefit a wide range of academic and personal research and curriculum needs. A truly unique and interesting look at what American life was like, these volumes will be an important acquisition for high school, public and academic libraries as well as social science and history reference collections.

The Working Americans Series

“Highly recommended for school libraries from middle school through high school as well as college libraries from community college through graduate school. It should also be found in public libraries of every size.”

—ARBA

Each volume in the widely successful Working Americans series focuses on a particular class, gender, type or time-period of American history and vividly illustrates what life was like for that group over time. Profiles cover a wide range of ethnic groups and span the entire country, providing a thorough examination of the lives all types of Americans in that particular group.

Family or Individual Profiles: Each chapter highlights 3-4 individuals or families and provides a remarkably personal and realistic look at their lives. Profiles examine life at home, at work and in the community. The highly readable narrative is supported by hard facts and real life situations drawn from diaries, private print books, family histories, estate documents, magazine articles and more. To further explore the life and times of these individuals or families, each chapter includes several other helpful elements:

Working Americans, 1880-2011 - Vol. 1 The Working Class

Pub. Date: March 2012 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-564-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-567-7 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-1999 - Vol. 2: The Middle Class

Pub. Date: November 2000 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-891482-72-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-164-8 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-1999 - Vol. 3: The Upper Class

Pub. Date: November 2001 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-930956-38-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-165-5 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-1999 - Vol. 4: Their Children

Pub. Date: November 2002 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-930956-35-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-166-2 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2015 - Vol. 5: At War

Pub. Date: March 2015 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-61925-743-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-744-3 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2005 - Vol. 6: Working Women

Pub. Date: March 2005 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-063-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-168-6 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2006 - Vol. 7: Social Movements

Pub. Date: September 2006 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-101-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-174-7 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2007 - Vol. 8: Immigrants

Pub. Date: February 2008 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-197-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-232-4 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2008 - Vol. 9: Civil War to Revolutionary War

Pub. Date: November 2008 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-371-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-485-4 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2009 - Vol. 10: Sports & Recreation

Pub. Date: October 2009 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-441-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-486-1 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2009 - Vol. 11: Inventors & Entrepreneurs

Pub. Date: October 2010 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-565-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-568-4 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2011 - Vol. 12: Our History Through Music

Pub. Date: October 2011 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-762-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-817-3 | List Price: $150

Working Americans, 1880-2011 - Vol. 13: Education & Educators

Pub. Date: October 2012 | 600 Pages | ISBN: 978-1-59237-877-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-984-2 | List Price: $150

Historical Snapshots, News Features & Timelines: Chronicles major events and milestones, allowing the reader to develop a broader understanding of the time period.

Selected Prices: Examines what things cost during the time period, to further enrich the reader's understanding of their cost of living, family finances and budgets. Prices include food items, clothing, jewelry, tickets for leisure activities and so much more.

Illustrations: Photographs, news clippings, advertisements, postcards, posters, quotes, songs and cartoons add interest to each chapter and depth to the reader's understanding of the world that the individual or family lived in.

Free Online Access: A purchase of a print volume includes free online access.

The Working Americans series has become an important reference for public libraries, academic libraries and high school libraries. These volumes will enrich the reader's understanding of American history, through the eyes of its people, and will be a welcome addition to all types of reference collections.

GREAT EVENTS FROM HISTORY

Award-winning, multi-volume reference series detailing the most important events throughout history, worldwide.

Salem Press' Great Events From History series offers a far-reaching view of history, organized around significant events. It is ideal for public and undergraduate libraries and is widely used in high schools for curriculum support. Each multi-volume set in Great Events examines the most significant events in the period covered. Librarians and reviewers alike praise this series for its breadth of content and in-depth analysis. The series includes articles that are two to three pages in length, bridging the gap between full-length, scholarly studies and the short entries found in encyclopedias. Within each set, events are arranged chronologically, forming a time line without regard to region.

Appendices include a time line, a glossary, web site listings, a chronology, and four indexes: geographical, categorized, personage, and subject. In addition, each essay is cross referenced to other essays within the set, as well as to relevant essays in the companion series, Great Lives from History.

FREE ONLINE ACCESS!

All the titles from the Great Events series are available online through our platform, Salem History. The purchase of a printed title in this great series is all you need to get the content of that set online. Plus, if you already own titles in the Great Events series, you qualify for online access as well. Simply call us to help you get started.

Great Events from History: The Ancient World (Prehistory-476 C.E.)

The essays in this set provide coverage of events involving prehistoric cultures and social and cultural developments in all areas of the world from prehistory to 476.

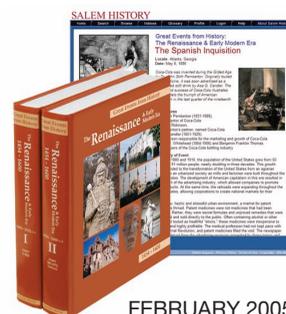

See Also:
Documents in World History:
The Ancient World pg. 44

APRIL 2004
2 volumes; 1,200 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-155-7
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

Great Events from History: The Renaissance & Early Modern Era (1454-1600)

The 330 essays in this set discuss the most important events and developments that occurred between the years 1454 and 1600, including the rise of the Ottomans and the Wars of the Roses.

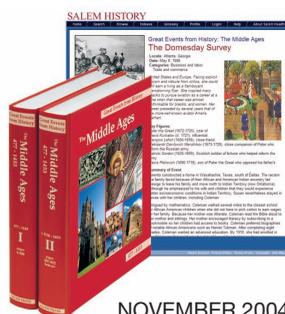

FEBRUARY 2005
2 volumes; 1,108 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-214-1
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

Great Events from History: The Middle Ages (477-1453)

This two-volume set explores the significant events that occurred between 477 and 1453, including the invention of the printing press and the fall of Constantinople.

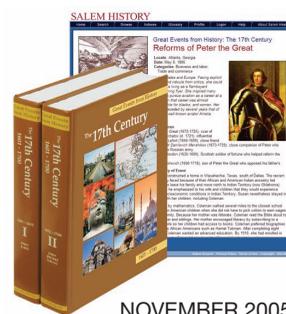

See Also:
Defining Documents in World History:
The Middle Ages pg. 45

NOVEMBER 2004
2 volumes; 1,094 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-167-0
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

Great Events from History: The 17th Century (1601-1700)

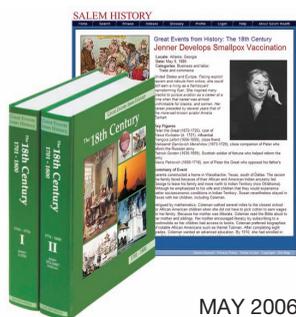

Included in this set are milestones in the geopolitics of the 17th century – from the Thirty Years' War to the War of the League of Augsburg, and from Europeans' arrival in Australia to the establishment of the Louisiana Colony.

NOVEMBER 2005
2 volumes; 1,068 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-225-7
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

Great Events from History: The 18th Century (1701-1800)

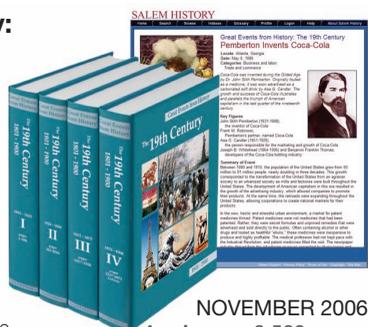

The events covered in this two-volume set include the important geopolitical events of the era—from the War of the Spanish Succession through the American and French Revolutions.

MAY 2006
2 volumes; 1,236 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-279-0
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

Great Events from History: The 19th Century (1801-1900)

These four volumes provide coverage on the most important developments from 1801 through 1900, including the struggle to end slavery, the Boxer Rebellion in China, and the expansion of democracy in the Western world.

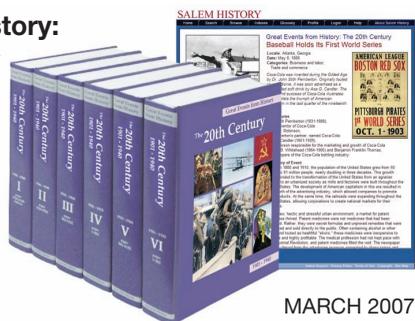

NOVEMBER 2006
4 volumes; 2,582 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-297-4
PRINT LIST PRICE: $395

BEST SELLER!

Great Events from History: The 20th Century (1901-1940)

This six-volume set profiles 1,037 of the most important events during the early years of the 20th century, including World War I, the Russian Revolution, and the rise of the Nazi party.

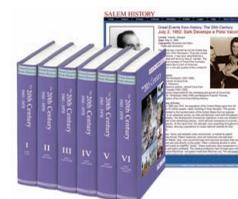

MARCH 2007
6 volumes; 4,100 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-324-7
PRINT LIST PRICE: $495

BEST SELLER!

Great Events from History: The 20th Century (1941-1970)

The second in a three-part series on the 20th century, these six volumes include such important events as World War II, the Vietnam War, and the Holocaust.

MARCH 2007
6 volumes; 4,474 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-331-5
PRINT LIST PRICE: $495

BEST SELLER!

Great Events from History: The 20th Century (1971-2000)

Coverage in this set includes the end of the U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War in 1973, the breakup of the Soviet Union in 1991, and the completion of sequencing the human genome in 2000.

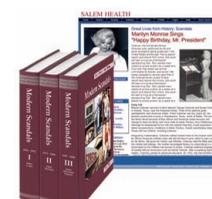

APRIL 2008
6 volumes; 4,310 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-338-4
PRINT LIST PRICE: $495

BEST SELLER!

Great Events from History: Modern Scandals

This three-volume set covers 388 of the most important and most publicized scandals throughout the world since the beginning of the 20th century.

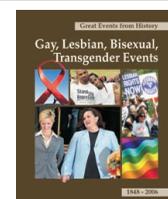

MARCH 2009
3 volumes; 1,392 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-468-8
PRINT LIST PRICE: $295

BEST SELLER!

Great Events from History: Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender Events

Chronicles important historical events that have identified, defined, and legally established the rights of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender communities.

DECEMBER 2006
2 volumes; 822 pages
ISBN: 978-1-58765-263-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

“...detailed and interesting...this is an important addition to any library’s reference section.”

—ARBA

Great Lives From History

Award-winning, multi-volume reference series detailing the most important lives throughout history, worldwide.

Our Great Lives from History series provides biographies of important people from all historical periods and from every part of the globe. The series is recognized by the library community for thoroughly covering achievements of thousands of individuals in numerous disciplines, including not just science and geography, but also liberal arts.

Major world leaders appear here, as well as giants of religious faith, popes and saints, military leaders and monarchs, inventors and artists who left their imprint on political, spiritual, and cultural institutions. What makes this resource unique, however, is the inclusion of figures who have received little or no attention in the past.

The series includes essays ranging from 1,500 to 3,000 words in length (roughly three to six pages) and offer standard ready-reference top matter offering easy access to biographical information, including the individual’s name (including other names by which the individual might be known), dates of birth and death, and area of achievement.

The body of the essay is broken into four parts: “Early Life” provides facts about the individual’s upbringing and the environment in which he or she was reared. “Life’s Work,” the heart of the essay, is a straight-forward, generally chronological account of the period during which the individual’s most significant achievements were accomplished. “Significance” provides an overview of the importance of the individual’s accomplishments, and discusses why it is important to study the individual. Finally, “Further Reading” lists several sources for further study.

Several features distinguish this series as a whole from other biographical reference works. The front matter in all volumes includes a complete list of contents; pronunciation keys appear for all difficult names; sidebars offer insights into key episodes or quote from primary source documents associated with these figures; and all sets include detailed indexes by area of achievement, geographic locale, personages, and subject.

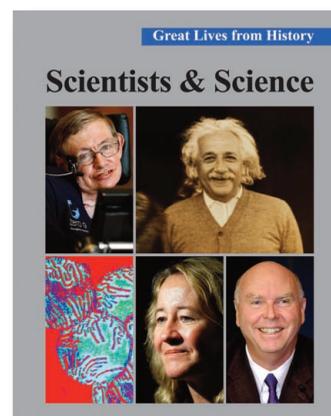

Get FREE ONLINE ACCESS when you buy the print!

Each title in the Great Lives from History series comes with free online access on our database, <http://online.salempress.com>, when you buy the print.

Great Lives from History: Scientists and Science

This comprehensive work highlights 350 of the greatest scientists in history, with an introduction to their scientific significance; birth and death dates and places; and specialty fields of science. Biographies represent a strong, global, cross-gender focus, and each biography offers a sidebar focusing on a significant breakthrough or endeavor. The coverage is broad, and includes distinguished individuals from the fields of algebra, anatomy, biochemistry, cosmology, developmental biology, genetics, logic, marine biology, nuclear physics, paleontology, relativity, quantum mechanics, virology, and zoology. Appendixes include a general bibliography, a time line of events, a web site directory, and a biographical directory of scientists.

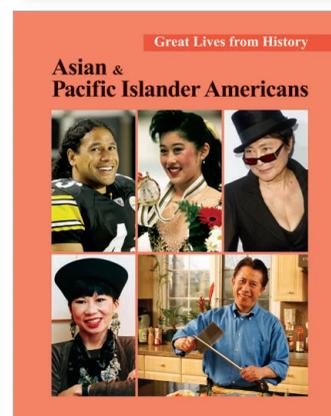

NOVEMBER 2012
 3 Volumes; 1,230 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-59765-968-3
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-972-0
LIST PRICE: $395

Great Lives from History: Asian and Pacific Islander Americans

Covers prominent individuals from colonial times through the present, offering a fascinating perspective on Asian and Pacific Islander American history in the United States. Many of the figures are household names, famous for their work in such fields as entertainment, sports, civil rights, politics, and literature. Others have received less attention but made important contributions in such fields as education, journalism, business, and science. The subjects of the essays are Asian and Pacific Islander Americans who have undertaken a wide range of endeavors from late colonial times into the twenty-first century—coverage that is essential in any liberal arts curriculum.

AUGUST 2012
 3 Volumes; 1,016 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-860-0
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-864-8
LIST PRICE: $395

Great Lives from History: Latinos

“All academic and public libraries should add this reference work to their collection for patrons wanting well-researched data on extraordinary Latinos.” – ARBA

A fascinating perspective on Latino history in the United States, with coverage of 518 influential figures from the 19th century through today. Many individuals are household names, famous for such high-profile professions as entertainment, music, politics, and sports, while others have received less attention but made important contributions to civil rights and science or helped pave the way for others in their community in areas such as education, law, and business.

FEBRUARY 2012
 3 volumes; 1,056 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-810-5
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-814-3
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $395

Great Lives from History: Jewish Americans

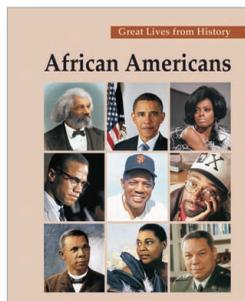

“Overall, the set is a useful addition to the Jewish biographical bookshelf” – ARBA

This set profiles Jewish Americans who undertook a wide range of endeavors from colonial times into the twenty-first century—coverage that is essential in any liberal arts curriculum. All essays offers easy access to biographical information, including name, field of work, and dates of birth and death. The body of the essay highlights Early Life, facts about the individual’s upbringing; Life’s Work, a chronological account of how the individual gained recognition in his or her field; Significance, an overview of the individual’s accomplishments; and discusses why it is important to study this individual.

APRIL 2011
 4 Volumes; 1,400 Pages
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-741-2
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-746-7
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $495

History & Social Science

BEST SELLER!

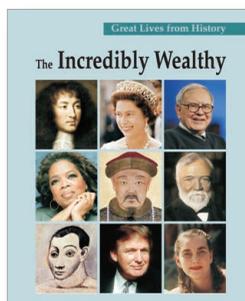

Great Lives from History: African Americans

"This work serves as a useful quick reference for supporting patrons researching African Americans in history or modern times." —Booklist

Provides comprehensive coverage of important African Americans throughout history. Essays offer easy access to biographical information, including the individual's field of work, dates of birth and death, and complete details on the individual's upbringing; how the individual gained recognition in his or her field and an overview of their accomplishments and significance.

AUGUST 2011
5 Volumes; 1,760 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-747-4
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-754-2
Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $595

BEST SELLER!

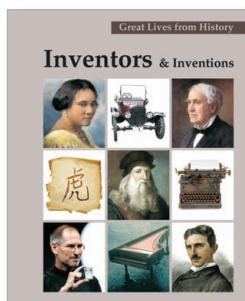

Great Lives from History: The Incredibly Wealthy

"Researchers inquiring who the most affluent individuals are will be enlightened by this work." —ARBA

Highlights wealthy people who earned their fortunes in a wide range of endeavors, from ancient times into the twenty-first century—coverage that is essential in any liberal arts curriculum. Essays highlight the individual's historical importance, including Early Life, First Ventures, Mature Wealth, Legacy, Sources of Wealth, and Bequeathal of Wealth.

JANUARY 2011
3 Volumes; 1,168 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-664-4
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-669-9
Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $395

BEST SELLER!

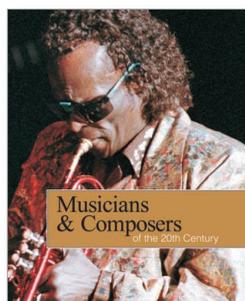

Great Lives from History: Inventors & Inventions

"This set includes many useful tools for researchers and would be suitable for the student as well as for the layperson." —Booklist

This set profiles inventors recognized for shaping modern technology and the way we live today. Essays highlight the individual's historical importance and focus on the subject's early life, most significant achievements, the individual's place in history and how their inventions changed the way we live.

NOVEMBER 2009
4 Volumes; 1,376 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-522-7
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-529-6
Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $395

BEST SELLER!

Musicians and Composers of the 20th Century

"Provides valuable basic information, as well as multiple easy-access routes to it. Highly recommended." —Library Journal

Worldwide coverage examines composers, performers, instrumentalists, vocalists, and teachers, in a wide array of musical genres, including blues, classical, country, gospel, jazz, Latin, musical theater, opera, punk, rap, reggae, rock, and many more. Interesting and thought-provoking essays discuss each musician's historical significance, life, music and musical legacy.

MAY 2009
5 Volumes; 1,906 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-512-8
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-528-9
Print Purchase Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $399

Great Athletes

"Best Reference Sources of 2009." —Library Journal

In 13 volumes, this set offers 1,400 easy-to-read biographies that will engage and inform high school and academic researchers. Libraries have the choice of purchasing the entire set or single volumes. Volumes include Baseball, Basketball, Boxing & Soccer, Football, Golf & Tennis, Olympic Sports, and Racing & Individual Sports. A one-volume Cumulative Index is free with the purchase of any volume.

SEPTEMBER 2009
13 Volumes; 5,036 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-473-2 (entire set)
Print Purchase Includes Online Access (entire set only)
13 VOLUME SET PRICE: $1,040

*Visit www.salempress.com for more information on individual volumes.

Great Lives from History:

The Ancient World (Prehistory-476 C.E.)

Offers in-depth biographies of the architects of today's civilizations. including world leaders and giants of religious faith as well as essays on philosophers, explorers, poets, scholars, scientists, and others.

See Also: Defining Documents in World History: The Ancient World pg 44

Great Lives from History:

The Middle Ages (477-1453)

Provides comprehensive biographies of the individuals central to the medieval world. Coverage includes emperors, conquerors, kings, khans, religious leaders and so much more.

See Also: Defining Documents in World History: The Middle Ages pg. 45

Great Lives from History:

The Renaissance & Early Modern Era (1454-1600)

Readers can follow along as innovators Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael forever changed the views on art, and explorers like Columbus and Magellan explored the boundaries of the as-yet unknown world.

Great Lives from History:

The 17th Century (1601-1700)

The comprehensive in-depth essays in this set include figures from all areas of achievement, including architects, artists, diplomats, educators, explorers, writers, doctors, mathematicians, musicians, military leaders, religious leaders, and scientists.

Great Lives from History:

The 18th Century (1701-1800)

Includes coverage of such historic and important figures as Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, Louis XV, and Catherine the Great, alongside figures who have received little or no coverage in the past, including Peg Woffington and Yongheng.

Great Lives from History:

The 19th Century (1801-1900)

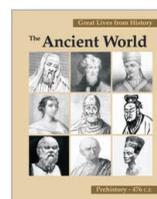

Explores the lives and achievements of important 19th century men and women worldwide, including such notables as Vincent van Gogh and Charles Darwin, as well as lesser know figures such as Elizabeth Cabot Agassiz and Zeng Guofan.

Great Lives from History:

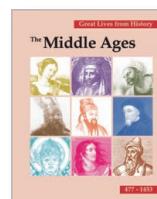

The 20th Century (1901-2000)

In ten expansive volumes, this set offers 1,350 critical essays on important men and women, from political leaders such as Bill Clinton and Mikhail Gorbachev to artists Salvador Dali and Paul Klee.

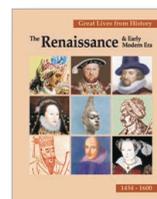

APRIL 2004
2 volumes; 1,128 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-152-6
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

NOVEMBER 2004
2 volumes; 1,314 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-164-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

APRIL 2005
2 volumes; 1,190 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-211-0
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

NOVEMBER 2005
2 volume; 1,184 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-222-6
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

MAY 2006
2 volumes; 1,302 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-276-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $175

OCTOBER 2006
4 volumes; 2,840 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-292-9
PRINT LIST PRICE: $395

SEPTEMBER 2008
10 volumes; 5,260 pages
 Print Purchase Includes Online Access
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-345-2
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-452-7
PRINT LIST PRICE: $795

History & Social Science

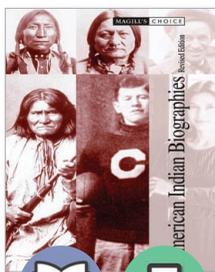

American Indian Tribes

“The current work is an excellent sourcebook for researchers, students, and professionals and is highly recommended for all public and academic libraries and special collections.” —Library Journal

Numerous American Indian tribes are surveyed from ancient times through the 20th century in this reference collection. The coverage begins with overview essays on the 10 major cultural/geographical areas: Arctic, California, Great Basin, Northeast, Northwest Coast, Plains, Plateau, Southeast, Southwest, and Subarctic. These are followed by more than 300 alphabetically arranged entries on individual tribes, from the northeastern Abenaki to the Mexican Zapotec. The set concludes with nine appendixes: festivals and pow-wows; museums, archives, and libraries; organizations, agencies, and societies; populations of U.S. reservations; U.S. reservations; Canadian reserves and bands; time line; mediagraphy; bibliography and subject index.

October 2000 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-89356-063-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-250-9 | $130

American Indian Biographies

“...an asset in any library that supports an American history curriculum.”—Booklist

American Indian Biographies consists of 391 alphabetically arranged essays containing biographical sketches on figures in North American Indian history, extending from the arrival of European colonists on North American shores to the early 21st century. Profiled here are historical, religious, social, and political leaders, warriors, and reformers, as well as contemporary activists, writers, artists, entertainers, scientists, and athletes. Entries cover the best-known figures in American Indian history and contemporary life with biographical depth and full historical and cultural context. Each essay provides the individual's birth and death places and dates, alternative names, tribal affiliations, and significance. Each essay is signed and concludes with cross references to other articles in the set.

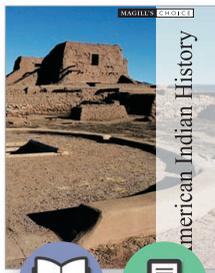

March 2005 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-233-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-312-4 | $70

American Indian Culture

Every essay in this set addresses a cultural phenomenon characteristic of the indigenous peoples of North America. The entries cover the range of culture from lifeways, religious rituals, and material culture to art forms and modern social phenomena. Although the emphasis is on the traditional cultural heritage of North American indigenous peoples, modern social trends are surveyed and analyzed as well: such essays cover alcoholism, the impact of disease, education, family life, current demography, gaming, tourism, and urban Indians.

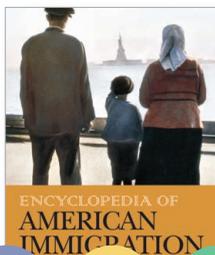

May 2004 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-192-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-315-5 | $217

American Indian History

This collection surveys Native American history from ancient times to the twentieth century. Entries cover specific topics and incidents from a Native American perspective, in categories of Pre-Columbian history, Colonial history, Eighteenth century history, Nineteenth century history, Twentieth century history, Court cases and legal decisions, Wars and battles, Reservations and relocation, Organizations, Religion and missionary activities, National government and legislation, Native government, Treaties, and Protest movements.

August 2002 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-067-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-249-3 | $130

BEST SELLER!

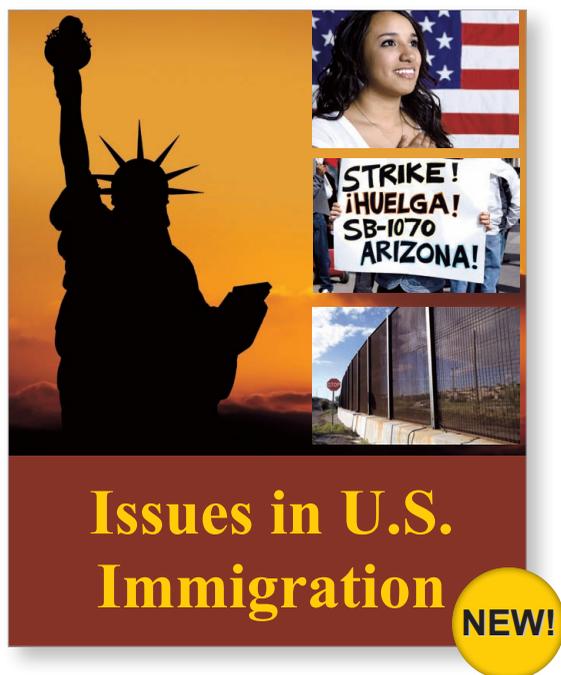

Encyclopedia of American Immigration

“...both high school and college, scholars and general readers will find these volumes of great interest.” —ARBA

In addressing all the diverse demographic, economic, legal, political, and social aspects of immigration, this three volume set provides both a comprehensive picture of the role of immigration in American history and perspectives on modern immigration. The 500+ entries in this set cover Immigration History, Ethnic Groups, Historical Events, Regional Overviews, Immigration Policy, Supreme Court Rulings, Government Agencies and Biographies of a wide variety of notable immigrants.

March 2010 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-599-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-603-3 | $395

This new edition offers a clear and innovative approach to the study of immigration in American history. Its broad coverage and unbiased approach make it the go-to starting point for research on a wide variety of issues surrounding immigration throughout history.

It's been eight years since the last edition of Issues in U.S. Immigration (formerly titled Immigration in U.S. History). In that short period of time, major events have escalated the immigration debate in both politics and popular opinion. From the Secure Fence Act in 2006, to the controversial Arizona Bill SB-1070 in 2010, to President Obama's 2013 Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals and the current talks on Immigration Reform in Washington DC, this new edition includes many new entries with up-to-date, comprehensive coverage of this important issue in current events and throughout history.

The set's 215+ articles explore immigration from a wide variety of perspectives on pivotal moments in history such as the earliest British settlements of British North America in the 17th century, to the immediate aftermath of the September 11 terrorist attacks, to the current Immigration Reform debate in American politics.

Border Control, Law Enforcement, Court Cases, Demographics, Discrimination, Economic & Labor Issues, Events, Family Issues, Government & Politics, Illegal Immigration, Language & Education, Laws & Treaties, Nativism & Racism, Refugees, Religion, Sociological Theories and Stereotypes are all covered, to offer a single, comprehensive source for immigration research and study.

Each of the alphabetically arranged articles in Issues in U.S. Immigration opens with the type of ready-reference top matter for which Salem Press's reference works are well known. The first entry following every title is a brief passage that defines or identifies the article's subject. Articles on such subjects as events, court cases, organizations, and laws have additional entries that provide dates and places, as relevant. The next item in every article is a brief italicized statement summarizing its subject's significance. Readers can thus see the most essential information about every topic at a glance.

A new feature in this edition is a collection of state essays discussing regional differences within the United States. Averaging nearly 1,000 words in length, essays focus on the unique immigration histories of each state and provide tables summarizing demographic data. Essays on Washington DC and New York City are also included due to their significant immigrant populations.

Issues in U.S. Immigration offers several features to help readers find the information they need. Indexes include Category and General Subject to make easy work of locating information quickly and easily. Finally, every article is followed by an annotated list of Further Readings and cross-references to other articles on closely related subjects.

New Second Edition

Issues in U.S. Immigration

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 900 pages
- 230 Articles
- 175 Photographs
- Immigration Statistics
- 50 State Summaries
- Further Reading Notes
- Cross-References
- General Bibliography
- Categorized List of Topics
- Index of Court Cases
- Index of Laws & Treaties
- Personages Index
- Subject Index

FEBRUARY 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-708-5

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-709-2

LIST PRICE: $195

Available formats:

See Also:

Working Americans: Immigrants pg. 57

BEST SELLER!

History & Social Science

The 50 States

IN DEPTH, COMPREHENSIVE PROFILES OF 50 GREAT STATES
History | Timeline | Maps | Statistics | Economy | Environments | Rankings
VOLUME 1: Alabama to Montana

Recent

One of Salem's most popular titles, back with a 3rd edition! Free Statistical Tables... See Below!

- New sortable Comparative Ranking Tables allow users to sort and rank states and regions of the U.S. by hundreds of different criteria, all free online with your print purchase.
- Each state chapter is now supplemented with informative Survey Rankings. Here, users can find out which states are the happiest, have the best and worst living standards, are the most entrepreneurial, are the best or worst to raise a family, have the best and worst job growth and so much more.
- A brief History of the State along with a Time Line with additional historical facts
- County List, with populations and areas, plus County Maps & Statistics
- List of Cities & Towns with 10,000+ residents
- Colorful Maps of Cities, Towns, and Major Physical Features

Nearly 40 Statistical Tables for Each State

- Vital Statistics - infant mortality rates, average lifespan, marriage, divorce, and death rates
- Economic Data - housing, land use, gross state products, personal income, agricultural data
- State Government Revenue & Expenditures
- Political data, transportation, recreation, crime, and law enforcement

New Third Edition The 50 States

Edited by Rodney Carlisle, Ph.D., and David Garoogian

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes
- 51 Essays
- 152 Maps
- 225 Photographs
- 25 Appendixes
- Subject Index
- 1,200 Pages
- 2,065 Tables
- 102 Drawings
- 51 Time Lines
- Bibliography
- Web Resources

OCTOBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-208-0
eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-209-7

LIST PRICE: $225

Available Formats:

Try the Sortable Online Tables Out Now!

Visit http://salempress.com/Store/50states/50states_rank1-1.htm

“This edition is an easy recommendation; students from upper middle school through college as well as public library patrons will be very well served by it... even for smaller budgets, it's a steal.” -Library Journal

“This book is well organized, provides a great deal of information about individual states in one compendium, and makes an excellent resource for the general audience.” -ARBA

History & Full Color Maps

Illinois History

216 • Illinois

Along the Mississippi River as far as Arkansas. This expedition also explored the Illinois River on its return journey north. In 1680, the French explorers René-Robert Cavelier, sieur de La Salle, and Henri de Tonti founded Fort Cavoyeur near the modern city of Peoria, followed two years later by Fort Saint Louis near the modern city of Ottawa. After a century of French settlement, the area became British territory at the end of the French and Indian War. British policy was unfavorable to the economic life of the rest of the state.

Early History The earliest humans to inhabit the area were hunters and gatherers who roamed the southern part of the region ten thousand years ago. Over the next several thousand years, cultures developed that built permanent villages and depended primarily on the growing of corn. By the year 1300, the Mississippian culture, a highly developed society based on the raising of corn, squash, and beans, dominated central North America. This society, the largest Native American culture north of Mexico, built large, fortified cities and extensive earth-mound monuments. The largest of these monuments were found at Cahokia, the culture's religious center, located in southwestern Illinois.

By the time Europeans arrived in the New World, a large number of Native American peoples, belonging to the Algonquian language group, inhabited the region. Among these were the Kickapoo, Sauk, and Fox in the north; the Potawatomi, Ottawa, and Ojibwa near Lake Michigan; the Illinois, a confederation of the peoples in the central prairie; and the Cahokia and Tamaroa in the south. These societies relied on agriculture and buffalo hunting for survival. By the end of the first third of the nineteenth century, all these peoples had sold, ceded, or been forced off their native lands and had settled in other areas.

Exploration and Settlement The first Europeans to visit the Illinois area were led by the French explorers Louis Joliet and Jacques Marquette in 1673 as they traveled south from Wisconsin

Over 40 Statistical Tables

Illinois • 219

ECONOMY
Year	State product	Net product	State share
1990	$277.4 billion	$3.67 trillion	4.89%
2000	$464.3 billion	$9.75 trillion	4.76%
2002	$480.2 billion	$10.41 trillion	4.67%
2003	$495.2 billion	$10.52 trillion	4.72%
2004	$528.9 billion	$11.60 trillion	4.54%

Source: U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, Survey of Current Business, July, 2005.

Gross state product by industry, 2003
Industry	In billions of dollars	Percentage	Rank among all states
Construction	$20.3	3.8%	16
Manufacturing	69.2	13.1%	14
Wholesale trade	54.0	10.0%	13
Retail trade	51.4	9.6%	12
Finance & insurance	46.8	8.8%	11
Professional services	38.1	7.1%	10
Health care & social assistance	28.6	5.4%	9
Government	43.9	8.2%	10
Total state product	$479.1	8.9%	11
Total U.S. product	$530,900.2
State share of U.S. total	4.57%
Rank among all states	9

Total figures include industries not listed separately. Amounts are in chained 2000 dollars. Source: U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, Survey of Current Business, July, 2005.

Personal income per capita, 1990-2004
Year	1990	2000	2004
Per capita income	$20,924	$32,185	$34,201
U.S. average	$19,477	$29,840	$32,097
Rank among states	10	9	14

Source: U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, Survey of Current Business, April, 2005.

Energy consumption, 2001
Source	In billions of Btu	Percentage	Rank among all states
Total energy consumption	5,870	100%	7
Total U.S. energy consumption	56,275
State share of U.S. total	10.4%
Rank among states	7

Per capita consumption (In millions of Btu)
Total state per capita consumption: 309
Total U.S. per capita consumption: 338
Rank among states: 35

End-use sectors
Sector	In billions of Btu	Percentage	Rank among all states
Residential	928	15.8%	11
Commercial	829	14.1%	10
Industrial	1,173	20.0%	11
Transportation	959	16.3%	10

Source: U.S. Energy Information Administration, State Energy Data Report, 2001.

Nonfarm employment by sectors, 2004
Sector	In thousands	Percentage	Rank among all states
Total	3,807,000	100%	11
Construction	497,000	13.1%	11
Manufacturing	697,000	18.3%	11
Trade, transportation, utilities	1,120,000	29.4%	11
Information	121,000	3.2%	11
Finance, insurance, real estate	400,000	10.5%	11
Professional & business services	726,000	19.1%	11
Education & health services	728,000	19.1%	11
Leisure, hospitality, arts, organizations	257,000	6.8%	11
Other services, including repair & maintenance	250,000	6.6%	11
Government	844,000	22.2%	11

Figures are rounded to nearest thousand persons. "Not" includes mining and natural resources, not listed separately. Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2005.

Rankings In Print & Sortable Online

1852 • Demographics

State	Rank				Percent change in population
	1980	1990	2000	2010	1980-1990	1990-2000	2000-2010	1980-2010
Alabama	22	22	23	23	5.8	10.1	1.9	17.9
Alaska	50	49	48	47	36.9	14.0	4.3	55.2
Arizona	29	24	20	18	34.8	40.0	12.0	86.8
Arkansas	35	33	33	32	2.8	13.7	3.0	19.5
California	1	1	1	1	26.0	14.6	6.0	46.6
Colorado	28	26	24	22	14.0	36.6	7.0	57.6
Connecticut	25	25	25	25	5.8	3.6	2.9	12.3
Delaware	47	47	45	45	12.1	17.6	6.0	35.7
District of Columbia	7	4	4	4	32.7	25.5	8.8	67.0
Florida	13	11	10	9	18.6	26.4	7.8	52.8
Hawaii	39	41	42	42	14.9	9.3	4.2	28.4
Idaho	41	42	39	39	6.7	28.3	7.7	42.7
Illinois	5	6	5	5	7.4	8.7	2.4	18.5
Indiana	12	14	14	14	1.0	9.7	2.6	13.3
Iowa	27	29	30	32	4.7	5.4	1.0	11.1
Kansas	32	32	32	33	4.8	8.5	1.7	15.0
Kentucky	23	23	23	26	9.7	9.6	2.6	21.9
Louisiana	19	21	22	24	0.4	5.9	1.0	7.3
Maine	38	38	40	40	3.2	3.8	3.3	10.3
Maryland	18	19	19	19	13.4	10.8	4.0	28.2
Massachusetts	11	13	13	13	4.9	5.5	1.1	11.5
Michigan	8	8	8	8	9.4	6.5	1.8	17.7
Minnesota	21	20	21	21	12.4	3.7	0.0	16.1
Mississippi	31	31	31	31	2.2	19.3	2.0	23.5
Missouri	15	15	17	17	4.1	9.4	2.8	16.3
Montana	44	44	44	44	1.6	12.9	2.7	17.2
Nebraska	35	35	35	35	0.5	8.4	2.1	11.0
Nevada	45	39	35	35	50.1	66.3	16.8	133.2
New Hampshire	42	40	41	41	0.5	11.4	5.2	17.1
New Jersey	9	9	9	10	3.2	8.6	3.4	15.2
New Mexico	37	37	36	36	16.3	20.1	4.0	40.4
New York	2	2	3	3	2.5	5.5	1.3	13.3
North Carolina	10	10	11	11	12.8	21.3	6.1	30.2
North Dakota	40	42	42	48	-2.1	0.5	-1.2	-2.8
Ohio	6	7	7	7	9.5	4.7	0.9	15.1
Oklahoma	29	28	27	28	4.0	9.7	2.1	15.8
Oregon	30	29	28	27	7.3	20.4	5.1	32.8
Pennsylvania	4	3	3	3	6.2	3.4	1.0	10.6
Rhode Island	40	45	45	45	5.0	4.5	3.1	14.6
South Carolina	24	25	26	25	11.7	15.1	4.6	31.4
South Dakota	45	45	46	46	0.8	8.5	2.1	11.4
Tennessee	17	17	16	16	6.2	16.7	3.7	26.6
Texas	3	3	2	2	19.4	22.8	7.9	50.1
Utah	36	35	34	34	17.9	29.6	7.0	54.5
Vermont	48	48	49	49	10.0	8.2	2.3	20.5
Virginia	14	12	12	12	12.8	14.4	2.4	29.6
Washington	20	18	15	15	17.8	21.1	5.5	44.4
West Virginia	34	34	37	37	-0.9	0.8	0.4	0.4
Wisconsin	16	16	18	20	4.0	9.6	2.7	16.3
Wyoming	49	50	50	50	-5.4	8.9	2.6	7.0
District of Columbia	—	—	—	—	-4.9	5.7	3.2	4.0
United States	—	—	—	—	9.8	13.1	4.3	27.2

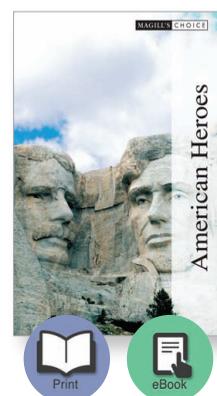

*Change in less than 0.05 percent.
Source: U.S. Census Bureau, Current Population Reports, 2010

American Heroes

“...a useful, well-designed reference source that is highly recommended.” —ARBA

American Heroes surveys more than 200 U.S. heroes from the American Revolution through the present, in 39 areas of achievement, including Agriculture and Astronomy, Aviation and Space Exploration, Biology, Business, Civil Rights, Computer Science, Diplomacy, Education, Engineering, Environmentalism, Exploration, Government and Politics, Invention and Technology, Law and Jurisprudence, Literature, Mathematics, Medicine, the Military, Religion, Native American Affairs, Nursing, Philanthropy, Philosophy, Physics, Public Health, Religion and Theology, Social Reform, Sports, Theater and Entertainment, and Women’s Rights. Essays discuss the individual’s early life, career and achievements, and major contributions. A classic quotation of the hero precedes the body of the essay. A comprehensive subject index is joined by a category index and an ethnicity index to round out the set.

August 2008 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-457-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-461-9 | $217

American Villains

“The structure and organization provide easy access to specifics about people whose stories have become legend.” —ARBA

American Villains explores the lives, deeds and punishments of 177 of the most infamous villains of our time. What makes this set unique is that it focuses on U.S. criminals who are not generally covered in American biographical surveys. While there are many books that cover fictional villains in videogames, comic-books, and movies, few cover real villains of history in one convenient set. Essays cover a broad range of personages, including Assassins, Corrupt Politicians, Murderers, Outlaws, Political Revolutionaries, Scientists and Doctors, Serial Killers, Terrorists, and Traitors and Spies. Essays discuss the individual’s early life, criminal career, legal action and outcome and historical impact.

August 2008 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-453-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-455-8 | $130

American Presidents

“While students can find facts about the presidents and primary documents through numerous subscription databases and online sites, the depth and breadth of coverage in American Presidents will give researchers a strong advantage.” — School Library Journal

The 42 essays are arranged chronologically by administration. Essays range from 6 to 40 pages and each includes a sidebar on the Vice President and First Lady. Other sidebars include parts of speeches and other primary source material. Additional helpful materials includes a reprint of the U.S. Constitution which provides the full context of the duties and limitations of the office of president; the law of presidential succession; a time line of important events by administration and an alphabetical list of entries to help readers find a particular entry.

March 2006 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-270-7 | $160

American First Ladies

“American First Ladies is enlightening and highly readable. The revised edition is recommended for college, high-school, and public libraries...” — Booklist

This volume contains 46 comprehensive essays on every First Lady through Laura Bush. Each biographical chapter features two sidebars, one on the President and an anecdote. American First Ladies also contains a number of valuable research tools. A Chronological List of First Ladies summarizes vital information on each First Lady from 1789 to 2004 and is followed by a Chronological List of Presidents. An appendix of Libraries, Museums, Historic Sites, and Web Sites provides visitor information for places that are on display or open to the public and includes web addresses.

March 2006 | One Volume | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-271-4 | $142

History & Social Science

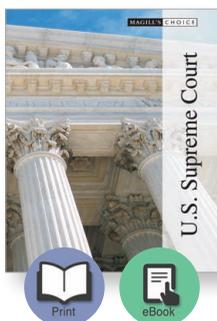

U.S. Court Cases

“This new set gives a fresh perspective on these important cases...” —CHOICE

A comprehensive collection of essays covering more than 670 rulings by the U.S. Supreme Court and other federal and state courts, it is the largest collection of articles on individual court cases available in any compact reference work. The set opens with a series of 11 overview essays explaining the historical and legal context in which American courts operate. The second section contains more than 670 articles on individual court cases, 13 new to this edition, arranged alphabetically under the names by which the cases are best known, such as Brown v. Board of Education, Plessy v. Ferguson, and Roe v. Wade.

August 2010 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-672-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-676-7 | $225

U.S. Supreme Court

“Admirably fulfills its goal of providing a source of concise, up-to-date, and authoritative information about this unique part of American government.” —ARBA

Covers issues such as the court's response to the aftermath of 9/11, the complications of the 2000 presidential election, and the U.S. involvement in Iraq. U.S. Supreme Court also contains essays on types of law, individual pieces of legislation, and clauses and amendments to the U.S. Constitution. The core of every essay is a clear discussion of its subject and relevance to the Supreme Court.

February 2007 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-363-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-408-4 | $217

The U.S. Legal System

“A basic resource that will be of value to most library collections.” —School Library Journal

This set examines the training, practices and ethics of attorneys; the organization, procedures and workings of the various kinds of courts; the selection, work and ethics of judges; the responsibilities of other court officers; types of laws; and types of law enforcement bodies. Each essay provides historical background information and case examples, and concludes with a list of cross-references to related articles in the set, and selected readings that direct readers to books, journal articles and web sites.

April 2004 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-189-2 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-314-8 | $130

U.S. Laws, Acts, and Treaties

“...this set is highly recommended for school, college, university and public libraries.” —ARBA

Offers a unique, one-stop resource for basic information and historical context on 433 major acts of Congress and U.S. treaties, from the Articles of Confederation through the Homeland Security Act of 2002. These in-depth essays cover both the provenance and the main provisions of these core laws and treaties. The set's chronological arrangement allows readers to compare and contrast laws passed in the same era.

March 2003 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-098-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-254-7 | $217

The Bill of Rights

“...recommended for all high schools where research on constitutional issues is more in-depth.”

— Gale Group

A comprehensive survey of all aspects of the U.S. Bill of Rights, from its origins to its role in modern American history. Special attention is given to the organic relationship of the Bill of Rights to the original Constitution and its ongoing interpretation and incorporation by the U.S. Supreme Court. Coverage includes sections on The Bill of Rights, The Amendments, and Issues. Reprints of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and individual Amendments are also included.

May 2002 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-062-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-182-3 | $130

Weapons & Warfare

“Well organized and accessible resource, which would be a good addition to high school, academic and public library collections.” —Booklist

Weapons & Warfare focuses on the technical development of weapons, strategy, and tactics, allowing students of history, political science, and technology to gain a broad understanding of the technological and strategic advances made over time and geography. Weapons articles discuss development, nature and use of each weapon type. Warfare articles discuss political considerations, military achievements, weapons, uniforms, armor, military organization, doctrine, strategy and tactics. Finally, Culture/Concept overviews approach the subject from several perspectives.

February 2010 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-594-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-598-2 | $395

The Cold War

“...With solid scholarship and impeccable organization, this worthwhile set encompasses an expansive amount of material.” – School Library Journal

The Cold War presents 180 essays on specific events and developments of the Cold War. Essays cover the most important world conflicts and crises of nearly a half century, along with the economic, cultural, and even athletic conflicts, as well as the literary and film genres built around stories of espionage and intrigue that were epitomized in the fictional secret agent James Bond. A substantial introduction examines the origins of the Cold War and the rise of American and Russian power during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

December 2010 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-730-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-734-4 | $225

The United States at War

“Information is easy to find, easy to read, and organized to help students make connections.” —School Library Journal

Selected by the New York Public Library for its 2006 “Best Reference List,” The United States at War covers all major U.S. conflicts from 1775 through 2005. This two-volume set offers compact surveys of the United States’ most important military conflicts, from the Revolutionary War through the Iraq War of 2003. Each essay contains standard ready-reference top matter and an extensive bibliography on the conflict.

May 2005 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-236-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-313-1 | $130

Magill’s Guide to Military History

“The most comprehensive single work on military history in print. Essential.” —Library Journal Editor’s Choice, 2001 –Booklist

Magill’s Guide to Military History presents a survey of wars, battles, people, groups, and civilizations that played an important role in worldwide military history, from ancient times to the 21st century. The entries are presented in alphabetical order, with date, location, military significance, and the results of wars and battles. The set includes a time line of wars and battles, as well as a bibliography and listing of military history Web sites.

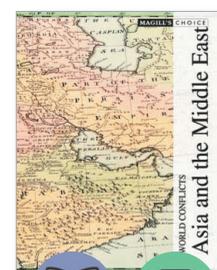

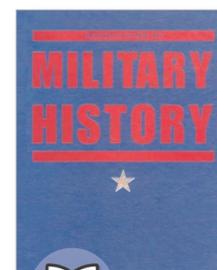

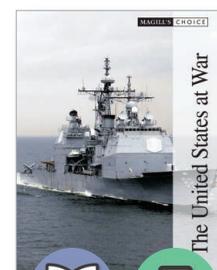

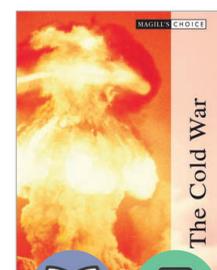

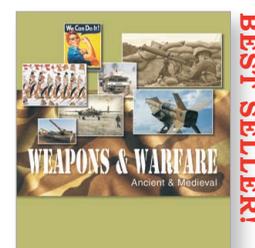

April 2001 | Five Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-89356-014-0 | $473

World Conflicts: Asia & the Middle East

“...helpful in middle schools when history and social studies teachers cover current events and is highly recommended for high school libraries.” —Gale Group

This set examines crisis areas in the nations of the Middle East and South, Southeast, and East Asia, offering in-depth analysis and background on the countries facing the most difficult problems. Each essay opens with an overview of the most pressing problems of the country, followed by an analysis of the origins, nature, and history of these problems. Features include at least one map per region, time lines, a statistical profile of each country, and a glossary.

May 2003 | Two Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-136-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-252-3 | $130

USA in Space

“Packed with information about the space program and is written for a general audience. It will be a practical addition to a public, high school, or general academic collection.” —ARBA

USA in Space collects 280 essays on the major space programs, piloted and robotic missions, satellites, space centers, space planes, the history of rocket science, the International Space Station, science probe missions and issues from the earliest missions to 2006. Articles are arranged in alphabetical order by name of program or mission, and by chronological order within groupings. Each essay ends with a list of cross-references to other essays in the set.

January 2006 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-259-2 | $331

African American History

“...for larger high school and public libraries this is a useful resource.” —School Library Journal

This set covers the full sweep of the rich history of African Americans, with articles on the major economic, political, social, and cultural events and developments of nearly four centuries. The alphabetical arrangement of the essays enables readers to find topics quickly, and the set offers a variety of additional features to make research easy: cross-references at the end of each essay, detailed personage and general subject indexes, and lists of topics by both subject categories and dates.

August 2005 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-239-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-358-2 | $217

Ancient Greece

“Libraries will find this useful for the recurring ancient Greece assignment. Academic libraries...will also find it useful, particularly if they do not already own the parent sets.” —Booklist

The 315 essays in this set survey Greek history, culture, and civilization and include general overviews of art, architecture, daily life, death and burial, education and training, government and law, language and literature, medicine and health, the performing arts, religion and ritual, science, sports and entertainment, technology, trade and commerce, war and weapons, women’s life and writing systems. Biographical entries cover statesmen, military leaders, writers, and philosophers. Descriptive entries examine literature, battles, and philosophical movements.

August 2006 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-281-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-58765-412-1 | $217

Encyclopedia of the Ancient World

“Editor’s Choice.” —Booklist

“The content is timely and well-written, but what makes this set unique, and a must-have for libraries of every sort, are the finding aids. This is the type of resource librarians wish were available on every topic.” —RUSQ

This sweeping work covers world cultures from prehistory through the year 700 C.E. Its three volumes stretch beyond the boundaries of the ancient world of Greece, Rome and Egypt to provide true world coverage. It is broad in scope, yet easy to use, with guides for pronunciation, geography, word usage, and time lines included. The set begins with 26 overview essays, from Agriculture to Writing Systems. This is followed by 1,169 alphabetically arranged essays on persons, cultures, wars, battles, documents or works, traditions or cultural phenomena, structures or artifact.

November 2001 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-0-89356-038-6 | $341

The Value of a Dollar

“An illuminating compendium...” —Library Journal

This informative guide records the actual prices of thousands of items that American consumers purchased from the Civil War to the present. Using this data, readers will get a broader understanding of American life through the wallets of real Americans. Includes Historical Snapshots, Wages, Pricing Trends, and more.

February 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-254-7 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61915-292-9 | $155

Encyclopedia of the Continental Congress

This new two-volume set provides an in-depth examination of the first Continental Congress in 1774 and the first Federal Congress in 1789, including their impacts and roles in the shaping and foundation of early American society and government. Contains over 600 entries, an historical timeline, and appendices outlining Congresses, their members, and their accomplishments.

January 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-175-5 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-176-2 | $245

Encyclopedia of Constitutional Amendments

“A useful addition to public and academic library collections.” —Library Journal

A complete profile of each of our nation’s 27 Constitutional Amendments, from the Bill of Rights to the Abolition of Slavery to Women’s Suffrage and more. Each Amendment chapter offers a complete Overview & Timeline, a description of America At That Time, a Who’s Who section, primary documents, and lists of footnotes, sources, and further readings.

September 2012 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-999-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-003-1 | $245

Encyclopedia of Gun Control & Gun Rights

“A good updating of a solid source of material on gun rights and gun control.” —Booklist

This guide provides over 300 entries in a balanced, unbiased approach to this controversial issue. Includes a detailed Introduction providing background on the debate, State Constitutional Gun Rights Provisions, Statutory and Constitutional Provisions Relating to the Purchase, Ownership, and Use of Firearms, and a List of Organizations with contact information.

June 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-672-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-673-5 | $165

Encyclopedia of War Journalism

“An excellent starting point for beginning researchers.” —CHOICE

This third edition examines the development, history, and current state of war journalism. From the Mexican War in 1846 to the current Middle East conflicts, this important reference tool contains over 800 entries covering wartime reporters, photographers, and artists, as well as primary documents, an historical timeline and 20 additional appendices.

May 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-745-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-746-7 | $165

Human Rights in the United States

“Invaluable for anyone interested in human rights issues.” —ARBA

This two-volume encyclopedia surveys the legal protection of human dignity in the U.S., examines the sources of human rights norms, cites key legal cases, explains the role of international organizations, and charts global, regional, and UN measures. Includes expansive coverage of over 100 primary documents, an historical timeline, and 9 additional appendices.

April 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-290-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-301-7 | $250

From Suffrage to the Senate: America’s Political Women

“An excellent reference source on women leaders... highly recommended.” —ARBA

These two volumes chronicle American women’s path to political power and social equality, from suffrage to the first African-American woman in the U.S. Senate and beyond. Includes over 800 entries, biographies, primary documents, and more on the individuals, organizations, movements, legislative victories, and court cases that changed the face of American politics.

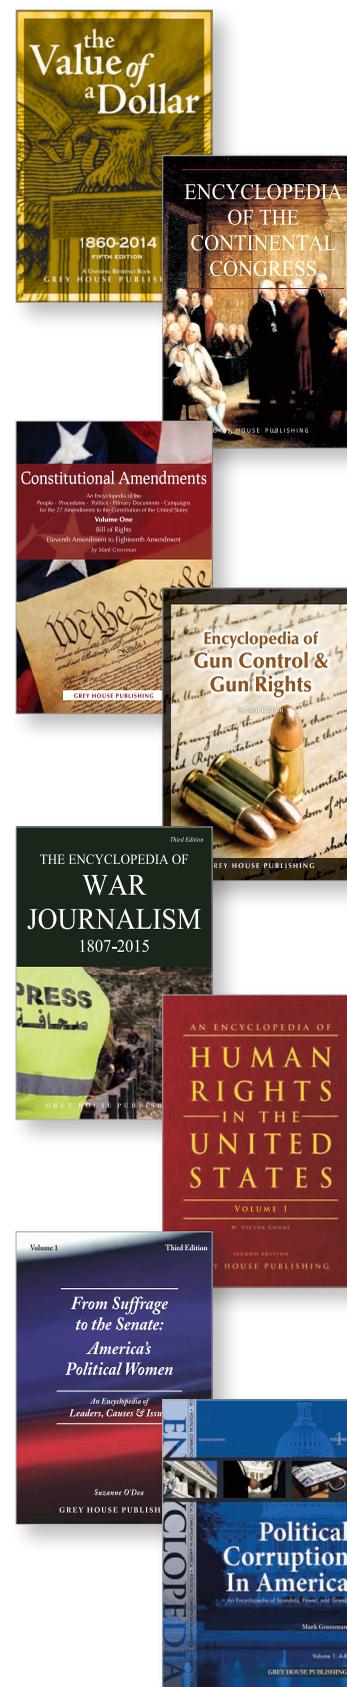

February 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-010-9 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-104-5 | $255

Political Corruption in America

“Highly Recommended” —Library Journal

This guide covers the complete scandal-filled history of American political corruption. Over 350 entries explore the people, crimes, investigations, and court cases behind 200 years of political scandals. Includes nine appendices providing overviews of scandal groups, as well as illustrations, photos, and primary documents.

March 2008 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-297-3 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-308-6 | $255

History & Social Science

New Careers & Contemporary Biography Series

These exceptional resources help students learn about today's cutting-edge careers from real professionals! Each Careers title has a companion Contemporary Biography title, to give students a wide range of information on career opportunities, plus biographies of mentors in their field. This new series gives your students a true inside-look at their career options in a wide range of in-demand fields!

- A Day in the Life
- Education & Training
- Employment Outlook
- Areas with the Highest Employment Levels
- Work Environment
- Earnings & Advancement
- Networking Contacts
- Conversations with Real Professionals

“Detailed and well-organized... Recommended for high-school and academic libraries.”

—Booklist

Real-world information that every job-seeker needs to know!

Careers in Human Services

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 30 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables
- Conversations with Real Professionals

MARCH 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-778-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-779-5

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers in Technical Services & Equipment Repair

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 30 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables
- Conversations with Real Professionals

APRIL 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-780-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-781-8

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers in Human Services

NEW!

Written for students in high school or undergraduate programs, Careers in Human Services explores a variety of growing fields to help young adults gain a head start in learning more about the many career opportunities available and to help those make a better-informed decisions when selecting a career path or field of study.

This title features 30 occupations in human services, social, and educational services, including:

Activities Therapist • Career & Technical Education Teacher • Childcare Worker • Healthcare Social Worker Librarian • Preschool Teacher and Secondary & Middle School Teacher • Social Service Aide • Speech & Language Therapist • Plus much more!

Chapters provide an inside-look at the career options within a particular profession, including the Sphere of Work, A Day in the Life, Work Environment, Education & Training, Earnings & Advancement, Areas with the Highest Employment Levels, Employment Outlook, Business Contacts, and “What I Wish I Had Known” from Real Professionals.

This ongoing series serves as a stepping stone in understanding specific careers and provides a wealth of information on the education and training needed within each profession along with a look towards the future of the field with an informative employment outlook.

Careers in Technical Services & Equipment Repair

NEW!

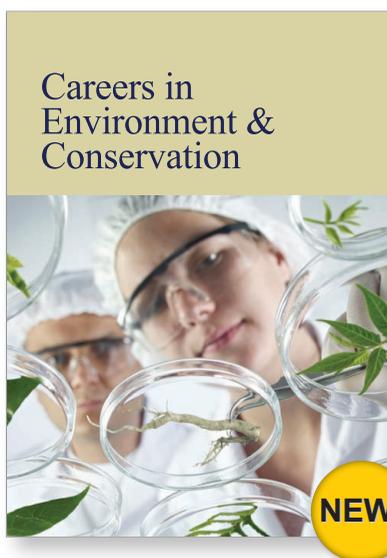

Careers in Technical Services & Equipment Repair provides a current overview and a future outlook of specific occupations in the technology and equipment maintenance industries.

Careers in Technical Services & Equipment Repair examines more than 30 fields in the technology and equipment maintenance field such as:

Aircraft Mechanic • Computer Service Technician Laser Technician • Home Appliance Repair • Robotic Technician • Industrial Machinery Mechanic Engineering Technician • Nuclear Medicine Technologist Telecommunications Equipment Repair • Plus many more!

Each chapter includes detailed information on Education and Coursework, Daily Tasks, Earnings and Employment Outlook, Related Occupations, and advice from Real Professionals.

The Careers series is designed to cater high school and undergraduate college students as well as those searching for a new career, whether in the same field or a completely unrelated one. These titles examine the thriving industries and the exact careers where job seekers can excel and help them make the best decision on which career path or area of study to pursue.

Written for students in high school or undergraduate programs, Careers in Environment & Conservation explores a variety of growing fields to help young adults gain a head start in learning about the many career opportunities available for those who want to pursue a career in environmental science or conservation.

Careers in Environment and Conservation highlights 25 career paths in environment and conservation, including

- Botanist
- Energy Conservation Technician
- Environmental Engineer
- Forestry Worker
- Geologist
- Soil Scientist
- Wind Energy Engineer
- Zoologist

Individual chapters provide real-world insight into these professions, including A Day in the Life, Work Environment, Education & Training, Earnings & Advancement, Employment Outlook, Networking Contacts, Areas with the Highest Employment Levels alongside Conversations with Real Professionals.

Careers in Environment & Conservation

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 25 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

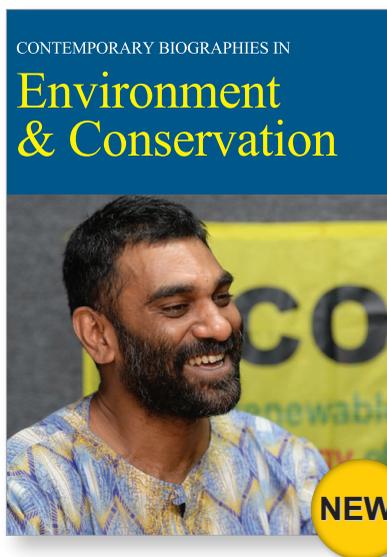

OCTOBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-535-7

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-536-4

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

A collection of biographies of notable figures in environmental science and conservation, this resource provides insight into the career paths and impact of these important figures.

Insightful and in-depth profiles feature:

- Majora Carter, Urban Revitalization Strategist
- John Grotzinger, Geologist
- Barry Commoner, American Biologist and environmentalist
- Russell E. Train, Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
- Caroline Lucas, British Politician & Green Party Member
- Tzeporah Berman, Environmental Activist

An amazing collection of living leaders in the field, this resource will provide important insight from a wide array of mentors for students and researchers considering a career in the environmental sciences.

Contemporary Biographies in Environment & Conservation

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 250 Pages
- 30 Essays

NOVEMBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-539-5

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-540-1

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers in Business

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 25 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

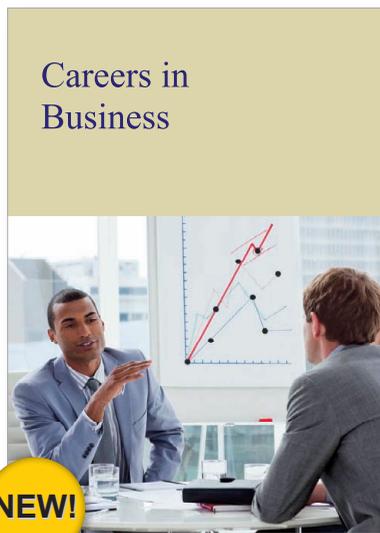

DECEMBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-537-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-538-8

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

NEW!

Individual chapters provide real-world insight into these professions, including A Day in the Life, Work Environment, Education & Training, Earnings & Advancement, Employment Outlook, Networking Contacts, Areas with the Highest Employment Levels alongside Conversations with Real Professionals.

Written for students in high school or undergraduate programs, Careers in Business Administration explores a variety of growing fields to help young adults gain a head start in learning about the many career opportunities available for those who want to pursue a career in business.

Careers in Business Administration highlights 25 career paths in business, including:

- Accountant
- Advertising & Marketing Manager
- Budget Analyst
- Credit Manager
- Human Resources
- Management Analyst
- Retail Store Sales Manager
- Wholesale & Retail Buyer

Contemporary Biographies in Business

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 250 Pages
- 30 Essays

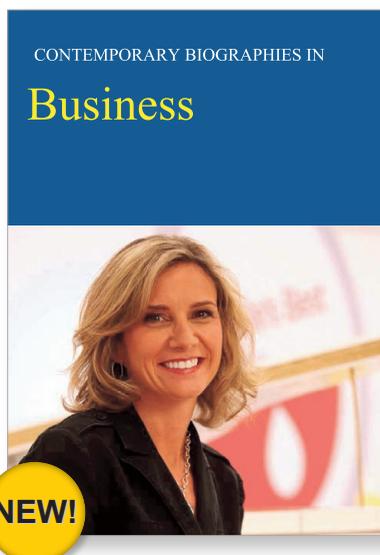

DECEMBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-541-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-542-5

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

NEW!

An amazing collection of living leaders in the field, this resource will provide important insight from a wide array of mentors for students and researchers considering a career in business or business administration.

A collection of biographies of notable figures in business, this resource provides insight into the career paths and impact of these important figures.

Insightful and in-depth profiles feature:

- Gina Bianchini, Entrepreneur
- Peter Diamond, Economist and educator
- Michelle Gass, President of Starbucks Europe
- Beth Mooney, CEO of KeyCorp
- Dambisa Moyo, Economist, author
- Mikael Ohlsson, President and CEO of IKEA
- Carmen Reinhart, Economist
- Virginia M. Rometty, CEO of IBM
- Julie Smolyansky, CEO of Lifeway Foods
- Susan Wojcicki, Businesswoman and Google executive

BEST SELLER!

Careers in Hospitality & Tourism

NEW!

“Overall, this book will be helpful to students and adults deciding on a career path. It supplies a good overview of the work done in each job.” –ARBA

The hospitality and tourism industry is thriving more than ever, not only in America, but worldwide with over 14 million people currently employed. Careers in Hospitality & Tourism provides an extensive look into the various occupations in the field to offer students an excellent starting off point for research into the many options when considering a career in these fields.

Chapters provide a detailed overview of each profession, including a Day in the Life, Work Environment, Education & Training, Earnings & Advancement, Areas with the Highest Employment Levels, Networking Contacts and Conversations with Real Professionals in the Field.

This title examines 20 occupations in hospitality and tourism which encompasses the management, marketing and operations of restaurants, lodging, attractions, recreation events and other travel related services. Careers covered in the text include:

- Chef
- Cosmetologist
- Fitness Trainer
- Florist
- Gardener
- Hotel Manager
- Interior Designer
- Pilot
- Sailor
- Travel Agent
- and many more

Salem’s Careers series provides easy-to-use overviews and employment outlooks on the fastest growing professions in the United States, so students and job seekers can make better-informed decisions when selecting a career path or field of study.

Careers in Hospitality & Tourism

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 365 Pages
- 25 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

MARCH 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-477-0

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-478-7

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

CONTEMPORARY BIOGRAPHIES IN

Hospitality & Tourism

NEW!

This resource allows the reader to learn about the pioneers in the service industries, these stars can serve as important mentors to job seekers in this expanding field.

Contemporary Biographies in Hospitality & Tourism features 38 profiles of notable people in aviation, restaurants, recreation events, lodging, gaming and travel. The coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- Chef and author, José Andrés
- Hockey executive, Brian Burke
- Celebrity chef and television personality, Tom Colicchio
- CEO of Lifeway Foods, Julie Smolyansky
- Maitre fromager, Max McCalman
- CEO of Campbell Soup Company, Denise Morrison
- CEO; Co-Founder of Yelp, Jeremy Stoppelman
- and many more

The series provides detailed, insightful biographies of important figures in notable fields in one, easy-to-read volume.

Contemporary Biographies in Hospitality & Tourism

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 213 Pages
- 38 Essays

JULY 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-481-7

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-482-4

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers

Careers in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 40 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

MAY 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-475-6

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-476-3

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

Careers in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services

Careers in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services is designed to allow students to explore their futures and set career goals with a detailed look into the many, varied professions in law and criminology. Rife with detailed information on the legal environment, networking contacts, career overviews, and more, this title is extremely beneficial for high school, undergraduate and graduate students as well as non-specialists and researchers.

This title examines 20 occupations in law, criminal justice & emergency services, including:

- Courts & Court Administration
- Judge & Attorney
- Law Enforcement & Investigation
- Corporate Security
- Computer Security
- Corrections

Chapters provide an inside-look at the career options within a particular profession, including the Sphere of Work, A Day in the Life, Work Environment, Education & Training, Earnings & Advancement, Areas with the Highest Employment Levels, Employment Outlook, Business Contacts and “What I Wish I Had Known” from Real Professionals.

The new Careers series by Salem Press examines thriving industries and the exact careers where job seekers can excel and help them make the best decision on which career path or area of study to pursue.

Contemporary Biographies in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 30 Essays

AUGUST 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-479-4

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-480-0

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

CONTEMPORARY BIOGRAPHIES IN

Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services

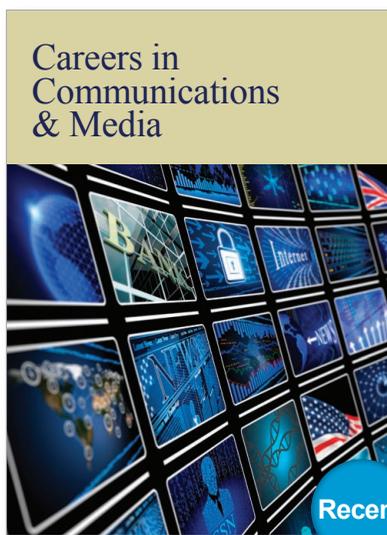

Delve into the lives of great figures within the Law and Criminology fields with Contemporary Biographies in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services. This title profiles important individuals, their lives and careers, from the past to the present who made this field what it is today.

Contemporary Biographies in Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services profiles 30 notable figures in law and criminology. The coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- Information security specialist and CEO of Kaspersky Lab, Eugene Kaspersky
- Professor and head of the department of law at the US Military Academy, Maritza Sáenz Ryan
- Canadian politician, lawyer and leader of the official opposition in Canada, Thomas Mulcair
- Lawyer and government official, Paul D. Clement
- US soldier and Medal of Honor recipient, Dakota Meyer
- Lawyer and politician, Elizabeth Warren
- and many more

In addition, an appendix consisting of 10 historical biographies of “Law, Criminal Justice & Emergency Services Greats” is included, as well as selected works and a profession index.

BEST SELLER!

Careers in Communications & Media

Recent

Careers in Communications & Media provides a current overview and a future outlook of specific occupations in the communications and media industries. Merging scholarship with occupational development, this single comprehensive guidebook provides communications and media students and readers alike with the necessary insight into potential careers, and provides instruction on what job seekers can expect in terms of training, advancement, earnings, job prospects, working conditions, relevant associations, and more.

This title examines 22 fields in communications and media such as:

Advertising & Marketing Manager • Art Director
Cinematographer • Copywriter • Graphic Designer • Journalist • Multimedia Artist Production Coordinator • Public Relation Specialist • Software Developer • Sound Engineer Technician • Web Developer

The Careers series caters to high school and undergraduate college students as well as those searching for a new career, whether in the same field or a completely unrelated one. This on-going series serves as a stepping stone in understanding specific careers and provides a wealth of information on the education and training needed within each profession along with a look towards the future of the field with an informative employment outlook.

Careers in Communications & Media

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 44 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

NOVEMBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-230-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-231-8

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

CONTEMPORARY BIOGRAPHIES IN

Communications & Media

Recent

Contemporary Biographies in Communications & Media displays just how vast the industry is and delves into the lives and careers of current animators, magazine editors, magazine publishers, TV directors, and many more.

This volume features 30 notable people in the fields of communications and media. The worldwide coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- Newspaper Executive, Jill Abramson
- Playwright, Film & TV Writer, Director & Producer, Alan Ball
- Photographer, René Burri
- Television Director & Producer, James Burrows
- Fashion Magazine Director, Grace Coddington
- Courtroom Reporter, Linda Deutsch
- Animator, Voice Actor, Writer & Producer, Seth MacFarlane
- Publishing Executive, Linda Johnson Rice
- Television Anchor, Producer & Journalist, Robin Roberts
- and many more

In addition, an appendix consisting of 10 historical biographies of “Media Greats” is included, as well as selected works and profession indexes.

Contemporary Biographies in Communications & Media

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 240 Pages
- 30 Essays

NOVEMBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-234-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-235-6

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers

Careers in Healthcare

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 400 Pages
- 44 Essays
- Statistics & Outlooks
- Sidebars & Tables

NOVEMBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-232-5

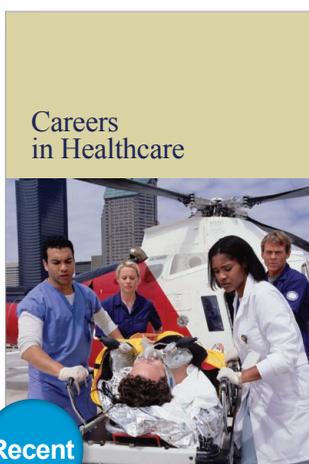

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-233-2

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“Careers in Healthcare is specifically designed for a high school and undergraduate audience and written to align with secondary or high school curriculum standards. This work is most appropriate for high school libraries and public libraries that field career questions for high school and college students.”
—ARBA

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, 16 million Americans are currently employed in the industry, and that number is expected to grow steadily over the next decade. Of their list of the twenty fastest-growing occupations, half were in the medicine and healthcare industry.

Careers in Healthcare gives students, researchers, and job seekers a thorough guide on this flourishing industry. This title draws from a variety of sources and lists growing careers affiliated with the field. Interviews, advice, essays, core context, and more provide the reader with a complete understanding of the field and related professions in order to steer potential students to the right career path or field of study.

Careers in Healthcare comprises twenty-six lengthy chapters on a broad range of branches and divisions within the industry, including traditional and long-established fields such as Dentist and Registered Nurse, as well as in-demand allied health fields such as Medical Assistant, Cardiovascular Technician, Physical Therapist, and Home Health Aide.

Perfect for students and researchers trying to determine which career path to pursue or which field of study to begin, this on-going series provides a wealth of information for job-seekers, undergraduates and high school students.

Contemporary Biographies in Healthcare

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 250 Pages
- 30 Essays

NOVEMBER 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-236-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-237-0

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Recent

Look into the lives of people who spear-headed the healthcare industry with Contemporary Biographies in Healthcare. Professions examined range from radiologist to personal fitness trainer to epidemiologist and more.

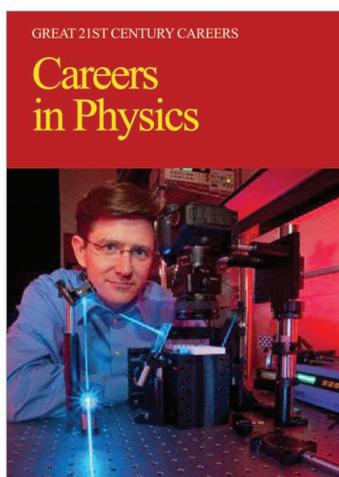

Contemporary Biographies in Healthcare features 30 profiles of notable people in the fields of allied health and healthcare. The coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- American cardiologist, Arthur Agatston
- Personal fitness trainer, Billy Blanks
- Indian cardiologist, Naresh Trehan
- Algerian-American radiologist, Elias A. Zerhouni
- Swiss pharmaceutical executive and physician, Daniel Vasella
- Plastic Surgeon and Burn Care Specialist, Fiona Wood
- American epidemiologist, David L. Haymann
- and many more

These insightful, diverse biographies provide students and researchers with access to information on the lives and contributions from a wealth of mentors in the field.

In addition, an appendix consisting of 10 historical biographies of “Healthcare Greats” is included, as well as selected works and a profession index.

BEST SELLER!

For those interested in the STEM field or who aspire to work in it, Careers in Physics is a one-stop source for critical information on this thriving industry. Discover the ins and outs of a career in physics with in-depth coverage, advice, and interviews in fields such as Astrophysics, Civil Engineering, Cryogenics, Quantum Physics, and many more.

Careers in Physics comprises more than twenty in-depth essays on a broad range of branches and subfields within physics and over twenty corresponding occupational profiles that highlight a particular career within that branch or subfield.

All essays are written by authors with expertise in science or a related field. The essays on the fields of physics include:

- Core Concepts
- Applications Past & Present
- Impact on Industry
- Social Context and Future Prospects

The corresponding occupation profiles include:

- Education and Coursework
- Daily Tasks & Technology
- Earnings and Employment Outlook
- Related Occupations

The on-going Careers series serves as an influential professional occupation guide for not only high school and undergraduate students, but anyone researching growing job fields like Media & Communications, STEM, Tourism & Hospitality, and more.

Careers in Physics

Edited by Donald R. Franceschetti

AT A GLANCE

- 44 Essays
- 60+ Photos and Graphs
- 65+ Sidebars
- List of Nobel Prizes in Physics
- List of Potential Employers
- List of Schools for Obtaining Degrees
- List of STEM Undergraduate Majors
- Occupational Resources on the Web
- Subject, Name & Occupational Index

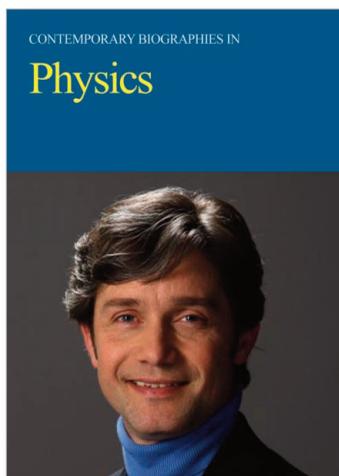

FEBRUARY 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-992-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3761-3

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Contemporary Biographies in Physics is a collection of biographies of notable figures in the industry. Culled from H.W. Wilson's monthly magazine, Current Biography, this title gives an overview on the successes and feats of notable greats, both from the present and past.

Contemporary Biographies in Physics features 32 profiles of notable people in the field of physics. The coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- NASA Astrophysicist, Alan P. Boss
- U.S. Secretary of Energy, Steven Chu
- Oceanographic Explorer, Fabien Cousteau
- Theoretical Physicist, Brian Greene
- Nobel Prize Winner, Koshiba Masatoshi
- Astrophysicist, Alica Soderberg
- Biophysicist, Luca Turin
- and many more

Designed to provide students and researchers with a single source for detailed information on the leaders in the field of physics, this resource will provide students with a better understanding of the educational development and career pathways—the rigors and rewards of a life in science—of the contemporary scientist to better prepare themselves for a scientific career.

Contemporary Biographies in Physics

Edited by The Editors of Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 360 Pages
- 32 Biographies
- 32 Photos and 32+ "Pull Quotes"
- 10 Historical Biographies of "Great Physicists"
- Geographical Index
- Personage Index

FEBRUARY 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-996-6

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-998-0

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers

Careers in Chemistry

Edited by Donald R. Franceschetti

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 355 Pages
- 44 Essays
- 60+ Photos and graphs
- 65+ Sidebars
- List of Nobel Prizes in Chemistry
- List of Potential Employers
- List of Schools for Obtaining Degrees
- List of STEM Undergraduate Majors
- Occupational Resources on the Web
- Subject, Name & Occupational Index

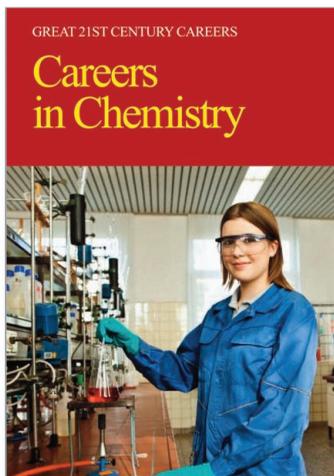

FEBRUARY 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-993-5

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3762-0

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

With new technological advances every day, Careers in Chemistry proves its use in displaying the top fields where students and job seekers can thrive in the industry. Field overviews and occupation profiles are supplemented with key interviews from professionals, job advice, facts, and much more on a wide range of related careers to provide students with a wealth of information on their career options in this in-demand field.

Careers in Chemistry profiles over 20 branches or fields of chemistry such as Agricultural Chemistry, Cosmetics Chemistry, Food Chemistry, and Forensic Science. It also contains over 20 corresponding occupational profiles that highlight a particular career within that branch or field.

All essays are written by authors with expertise in science or a related field. Essays on the fields of chemistry include:

- Core Concepts
- Applications Past & Present
- Impact on Industry
- Social Context and Future Prospect

The corresponding occupation profiles include:

- Education and Coursework
- Daily Tasks and Technology
- Earnings and Employment Outlook
- Related Occupations

The Careers series is a must-have for job seekers and students looking to carve out their professional path or make informed decisions on the best course of study to embark on in order to realize their professional aspirations.

Contemporary Biographies in Chemistry

Edited by the Editors of Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 364 Pages
- 31 Biographies
- 31 Photos and 31+ "Pull Quotes"
- 10 historical Biographies of "Great Chemists"
- Geographical Index
- Personage Index

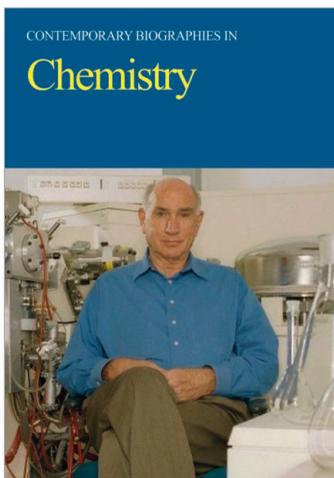

FEBRUARY 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-997-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-999-7

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Contemporary Biographies in Chemistry gives readers a thoughtful overview of the field, through the lives of 31 influential present-day figures as well as historical greats in molecular biology, genetics, biochemistry, materials science, and more.

Contemporary Biographies in Chemistry features 31 profiles of notable people in the field of chemistry. The coverage is broad and includes figures such as:

- Chemist, Jacqueline K. Barton
- Pharmacologist, Don H. Catlin
- Geneticist, Svante Paabo
- Atmospheric Scientist, Susan Solomon
- Chemist, Koichi Tanaka
- Plant Geneticist, Florence Wambugu
- Astronaut, Peggy Whitson
- and many more

In addition, an appendix consisting of 10 historical biographies of "Great Chemists" is included, as well as geographical and personages indexes.

The overarching series of Contemporary Biographies focuses on pivotal figures and industry pioneers. These up-to-date profiles draw from a variety of sources and are an invaluable source for researchers, teachers, students, and librarians.

BEST SELLER!

“A key reference for budding engineers, mathematicians, and computer techies... the narrative writing style will keep students engaged.”

–School Library Journal

Following in the footsteps of Salem’s acclaimed Great Lives from History series, the brand-new Innovators series profiles the most innovative and important individuals in history, many of whom have never been covered in any Salem Press set before. Each of these extended biographies offers concise and informative top matter that includes an introductory summary of the person’s significance; birth and death dates and places; and specialty fields. Biographies represent a strong, global, cross-gender focus, and each biography offers a sidebar focusing on the company/organization for which the subject is best known.

Computer Technology Innovators examines 125 individuals and personalities who had an innovative and influential impact on the development and evolution of computer technology, with an emphasis on early pioneers, such as inventors and engineers, and influential founders and executives of computer companies. Subjects include Paul Allen (co-founder of Microsoft), Seymour Cray (designer of supercomputers), Jack Kilby (co-creator of the integrated circuit), and Steve Jobs (co-founder, former chairman and CEO of Apple).

Computer Technology Innovators

Edited by The Editors of Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 471 Pages
- 125 Essays
- 125 Sidebars on Special Topics
- 160+ Illustrations and Photos
- Publisher’s Note
- General Bibliography

MARCH 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3805-4

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3806-1

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“These volumes should serve as authoritative resources and are recommended for high school, large public and academic libraries.”

–Booklist.

Following in the footsteps of Salem’s acclaimed Great Lives from History series, the brand-new Innovators series profiles the most innovative and important individuals in history, many of whom have never been covered in any Salem Press set before. Each of these extended biographies offers concise and informative top matter that includes an introductory summary of the person’s significance; birth and death dates and places; and specialty fields. Biographies represent a strong, global, cross-gender focus, and each biography offers a sidebar focusing on the company/organization for which the subject is best known.

The first title in the series, Internet Innovators examines 125 individuals and personalities who had an innovative and influential impact on the development and evolution of the Internet, with an emphasis on dot com founders and leaders. Subjects include Julian Assange (founder of Wikileaks), Pierre Omidvar (founder of eBay), Gary Kremen (founder of Match.com), Ray Tomlinson (inventor of email), and Mark Zuckerberg (co-founder, chairman, and CEO of Facebook).

Internet Innovators

Edited by The Editors of Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 471 Pages
- 125 Essays
- 125 Sidebars on Special Topics
- 160+ Illustrations and Photos
- Website Directory
- Biographical Directory

MARCH 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3807-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3808-5

LIST PRICE: $95

Available formats:

Careers

Survey of American Industry and Careers

Edited by The Editors of Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 6 Volumes; 2,208 Pages
- 384 Tables and Sidebars
- Bibliography
- List of Fortune 500 Companies
- Index of Jobs and Careers

OCTOBER 2011

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-768-9

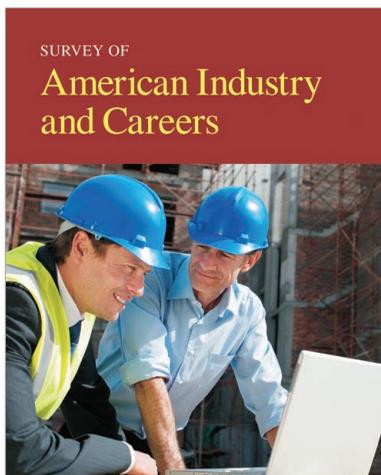

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-775-7

LIST PRICE: $695

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“...an excellent choice for public libraries. These volumes can stand with other occupation and career resources to round out any library’s career-information center.”

—Booklist

The scope of this set is broad and includes newer industries such as Alternative Power, Biofuels, Computer Systems, Environmental Engineering, Internet and Cyber Communications, Computer gaming and many more.

Essays include a snapshot of the industry, a discussion of the nature of the industry and its fundamental goals, purposes, goods and services, and the history of the industry.

The largest section of each essay is devoted to the industry’s market segments, which discusses the following information: Potential Annual Earnings; Clientele Interaction; Amenities, Atmosphere and Physical Grounds; Typical Number of Employees; Traditional Geographic Locations; Pros and Cons of Working in a Small/Midsize/Large Business; and Typical Costs. An industry outlook, which identifies trends and details the benefits of employment in the industry, finishes each essay.

Historical Encyclopedia of American Business

Edited by Richard L. Wilson

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,056 Pages
- 477 Essays
- 228 Photos
- 9 Maps, 14 Charts and Graphs
- 121 Sidebars and Tables

APRIL 2009

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-518-0

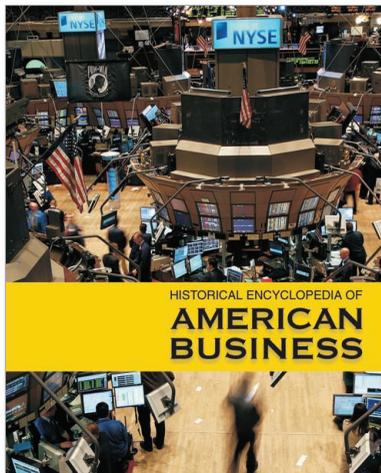

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-527-2

LIST PRICE: $364

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“...this new work offers clear and concise material that would be of great value to most high school or public library collections.” —Gale

This set addresses the full breadth of American business history. There are overviews on different sectors of the economy, such as agriculture and banking; individual industries such as advertising and electronics; and general topics like business cycles, consumer boycotts, and outsourcing. There are also overviews on general legal topics such as bankruptcy and patent laws.

Essays are arranged alphabetically, and every essay begins with a summary of the topic’s significance. All essays at least 500 words in length have “Further Reading” lists, and bibliographical citations in longer essays are annotated.

Volume three offers a category list, an annotated general bibliography, a glossary of business terms, and a time line. An index of personages and a general subject index complete this comprehensive work.

Add these important industry titles to your collection and your job seekers will thank you! Inside each title, researchers will find the key players in the industry, which associations to research, where to look for internships, which companies are in their area for potential job interviews, plus extensive data on where are the best places to live, and work, in the country.

America's Top-Rated Cities

"The most comprehensive compilation of statistics on cities available...Highly Recommended." –JBFL

Provides current, comprehensive statistical information and other essential data on the top 100 cities voted best for business and living in the United States. City Reports show concise social, business, economic, demographic, and environmental profiles of each city, and cost-based statistical data, comparative statistics, and four additional appendices are also included.

June 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-264-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-294-3 | $295

The Directory of Business Information Resources

"A mandatory purchase for public, academic and business libraries." –ARBA

This directory is most up-to-date source for finding information on 98 business areas, with over 20,000 listed organizations and resources. Includes lists of magazines and journals with full business-to-business coverage, brand-new social media data, databases, directories, websites, newsletters, conventions, key contact information, and more.

January 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-547-0 | $195

The Directory of Venture Capital & Private Equity Firms

"A better value than its principal competitor." –CHOICE

With contact and investment information on 2,300 firms, over 10,000 managing partners, and over 11,500 investments, this directory is the most comprehensive resource for VC firms on the market today. This new edition contains expanded Mission Statement, Group Preference, Investment Criteria, and Average/Minimum Investment sections, as well as five new Indexes.

February 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-550-0 | $395

Complete Television Radio & Cable Industry Directory

"This paperback is invaluable." –Library Journal

This directory has been the go-to source for U.S. and Canadian station data and broadcast industry contacts for over seven decades. This third edition provides data on over 20,000 stations and organizations, industry statistics, a detailed Industry Overview, and complete contact information for all key contacts.

November 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-287-5 | $350

The Grey House Performing Arts Directory

"A large amount of information for job seekers and professionals." –CHOICE

Organized by discipline, this guide provides detailed information on over 8,500 dance and opera companies, instrumental music programs, vocal groups, theatre companies, and performing arts facilities. Complete contact information for every entry is provided, as well as a chapter of Information Resources with hundreds of associations, databases, web sites, and more.

September 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-290-5 | $250

Food & Beverage Market Place, 2016

"Essential for researchers in the food industry." –ARBA

This three-volume set is the most comprehensive guide to the 40,000 companies that make up the billion-dollar food & beverage industry. Detailed listings include key contacts, websites and emails, brand names, company size and so much more.

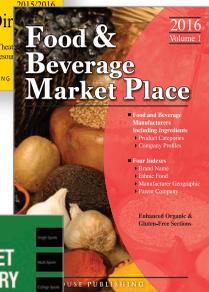

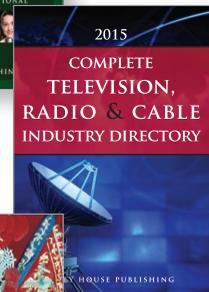

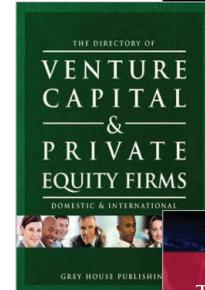

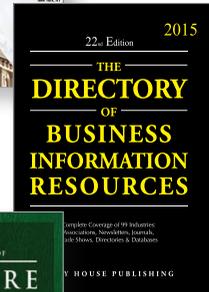

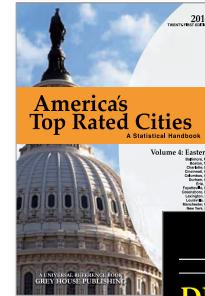

June 2015 | Three Volumes | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-732-0 | $595

Sports Market Place Directory

"An excellent edition. Highly recommended." –Booklist

Offers direct access to the who, what, when & where of the sports industry. Thousands of updates to this new edition provide immediate access to single and multi-sport organizations, media, sponsors, event agencies, professional services, manufacturers, and facilities.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-562-3 | $265

Careers

“This excellent reference work is extremely broad in scope yet covers a vast amount of material on the topic.”

—CHOICE (Encyclopedia of Energy)

“A rich resource for reference collections in both academic and public libraries.”

—Library Journal (Encyclopedia of Global Resources)

“Well written... Recommended as a good addition to high school and public library collections.”

—Booklist (Biomes & Ecosystems)

“The variety and scope of the topics examined in this set make it an important addition for science collections.”

—*School Library Journal
(Encyclopedia of Global Warming)*

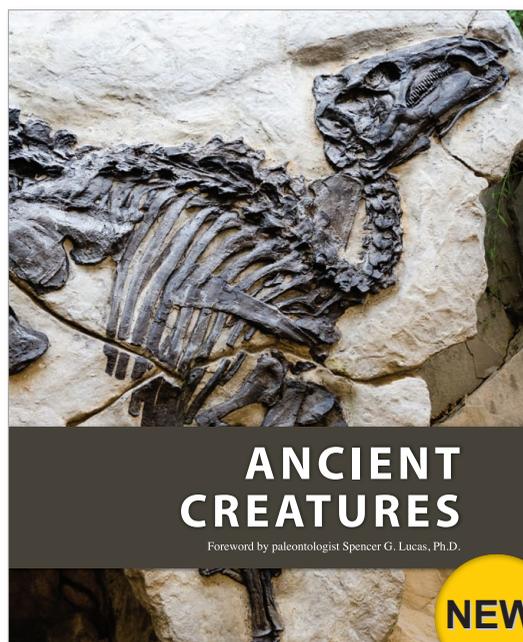

Salem Science

Provides a wide variety of resources to help students and researchers explore paleontology, ecology, biology, earth science, the solar system, the environment, applied science, mathematics and so much more. These important sources provide the tools you need to support your science and STEM curriculums and research needs.

Ancient Creatures.....	85
Forensic Science.....	86
Biomes & Ecosystems.....	87
Earth Science.....	88
Environmental Issues.....	90
The Solar System.....	90
Global Warming.....	91
Global Resources.....	91
Energy.....	92
Applied Science.....	93
Mathematics.....	94
Natural Disasters.....	95
Environmental Science Titles from Grey House.....	96

Get FREE ONLINE ACCESS when you buy the print!

Virtually every title in the Science series comes with free online access on <http://online.salempress.com>. Unlimited Users and Remote Access included!

From Abelisaurus to Zigongosaurus, this new encyclopedia provides students, teachers, and general interest readers a comprehensive look at dinosaurs and ancient creatures that roamed the Earth more than 65 million years ago.

Each entry includes key information either in chart or picture form that lists the name, pronunciation, and its meaning, as well as scientific classification, location of the fossil on a map of the world, estimated size in comparison to an average human, and the time period in which the animal existed.

The extensive explanations on each animal follow, and include a detailed introduction, classification, anatomy, reproduction and population, intelligence, diet, behavior, habitat and other life forms, research, bibliography on relevant sources, websites for further research, and a vocabulary chart on pertinent words. Each comprehensive essay includes the latest information on each creature, including new discoveries in paleontology, and current scientific classifications and usage, such as terminology to describe a dinosaur's species or group, and also ways to determine a particular dinosaur's intelligence. Each dinosaur has a 3-D CGI picture representation of what the animal would have looked like in its habitat.

Written for upper level high school and undergraduate students, this new resource will provide with a wide array of advanced scientific and biological information on these interesting creatures.

Ancient Creatures

Edited by Spencer G. Lucas, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 1 Volume; 700 Pages
- 100 Entries
- Time Period Essays
- Classification Group Essays
- Hundreds of full-color Photos, Charts & Graphs
- Comparative Ranking Charts
- Complete List of Contents
- General Bibliography
- Subject Index

OCTOBER 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-687-3

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-688-0

LIST PRICE: $235

Available formats:

Science

Forensic Science

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,300 Pages
- 500 Articles
- Glossary
- Category Index
- Subject Index
- 150 Sidebars & Tables
- 300 Photos, Charts, Maps, etc.
- General Bibliography
- Online Resources Directory
- Biographical Directory
- Organization Directory
- Television Shows
- Timeline of Major Events

MAY 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-729-0

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-730-6

LIST PRICE: $364

Available formats:

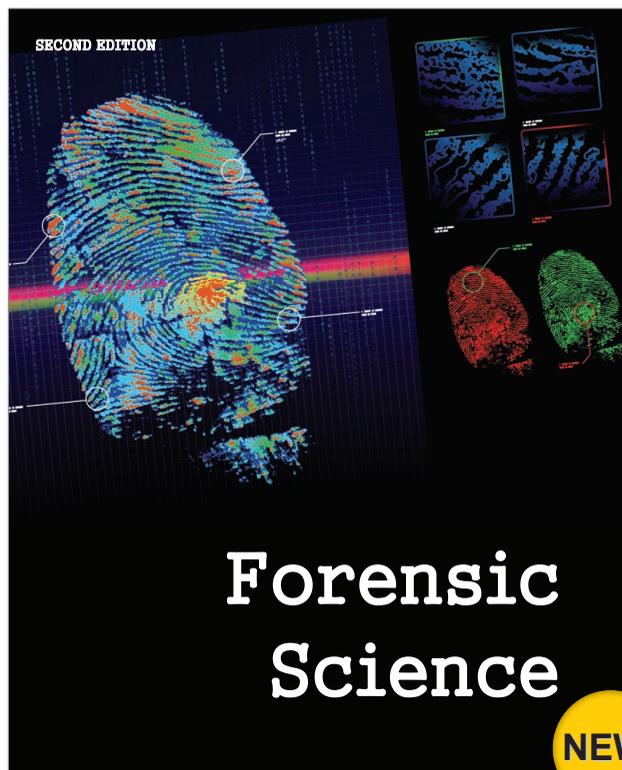

“This publication could—perhaps should—be used to design an entire program in forensic science.”

—CHOICE

Outstanding Academic Title, 2009

—CHOICE

BEST SELLER!

A comprehensive reference source on the theory, techniques, and applications of the various forensic sciences.

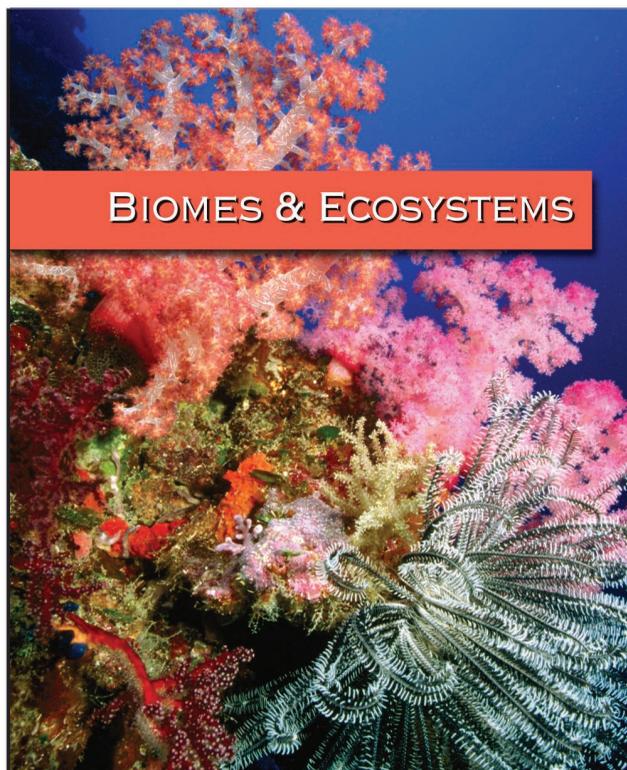

This new set addresses one of the fastest-growing subjects in academic curricula—the forensic sciences. Over the past decade, there has been an explosion of both public and academic interest in the application of scientific techniques to investigations of crime.

The topic list of Salem’s new reference set has been carefully constructed to cover the full range of the forensic sciences, whose incredible variety can be seen in the titles of some of the set’s core essays: Forensic accounting, Forensic anthropology, Forensic botany, Forensic entomology, Forensic geoscience, Forensic nursing, Forensic pathology, Forensic photography, Forensic psychology, Forensic sculpture, and Forensic toxicology.

The set also provides detailed essays on specific types of investigations, such as arson, child abduction and kidnapping, homicide, and computer crime; both general and specific investigative techniques, such as autopsies, ballistics, chromatography, crime scene documentation, fingerprint analysis, and polygraph analysis; specialized equipment, such as bomb and nuclear detection devices; and types of evidence, such as fire debris, fibers and filaments, glass, and blood residue and stains.

The set includes brief articles on some of the most important federal legislation, selected Supreme Court decisions and a variety of important legal principles to help to illuminate the legal dimensions of the forensic sciences.

Forensic Science provides extensive coverage of specific historical subjects that present fascinating case studies in the application of forensic science. These range from overviews of ancient criminal cases and mysteries and ancient science in law and courtrooms to examinations of such high-profile modern cases.

BEST SELLER!

Illustrates the biology, geography, history and ecological importance of biomes and ecosystems around the world.

This academic, multi-author reference work serves as a general and non-technical resource for students and teachers to understand the importance of biomes and ecosystems; to discover the biology and geography of these places around the world; to learn the history of biomes and ecosystems; and to initiate educational discussion brought forth by the specific social and topical articles presented in the work.

Biomes and Ecosystems is a comprehensive review of key biological and geographic classifications tied to the high school and college curriculum. The reference work covers the broad scope of biomes and ecosystems around the world, from puddles on the street to coral reefs in Australia, from rain forests in Brazil to the tundra in Siberia. Each article will delve into the properties that make the subject a biome or ecosystem, and how those features work together. Especially targeted toward high school students, this outstanding reference work is edited to make the content readily accessible as well to patrons of public, academic, and university libraries.

Biomes & Ecosystems

Edited by Robert Warren Howarth

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volume set; 1,440 Pages
- 552 Essays
- 450 Photos
- Chronology
- Glossary
- Resource Guide
- Topic Finder
- General Index

April 2013

Print ISBN: 978-1-4298-3813-9

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-4298-3818-4

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

“Recommended. High school students and general readers.”

—CHOICE

“The articles are well written and cover the biomes and ecosystems in depth. Recommended as a good addition to high school and public library collections.”

—Booklist

Science

Earth Science

Edited by Joe Spradley,
David Kenneth Elliott, Steven I.
Dutch and Dr. Margaret Boorstein

AT A GLANCE

- 8 Volumes; 2,600 Pages
- 4 Subsets of 2 Volumes Each
- 487 Essays
- 300+ Photos/Illustrations
- Bibliography
- List of Electronic Resources
- Category Index
- Subject Index

MAY 2012/OCTOBER 2012

Print ISBN (entire set): 978-1-58765-989-8

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-990-4

LIST PRICE: $895

Available formats:

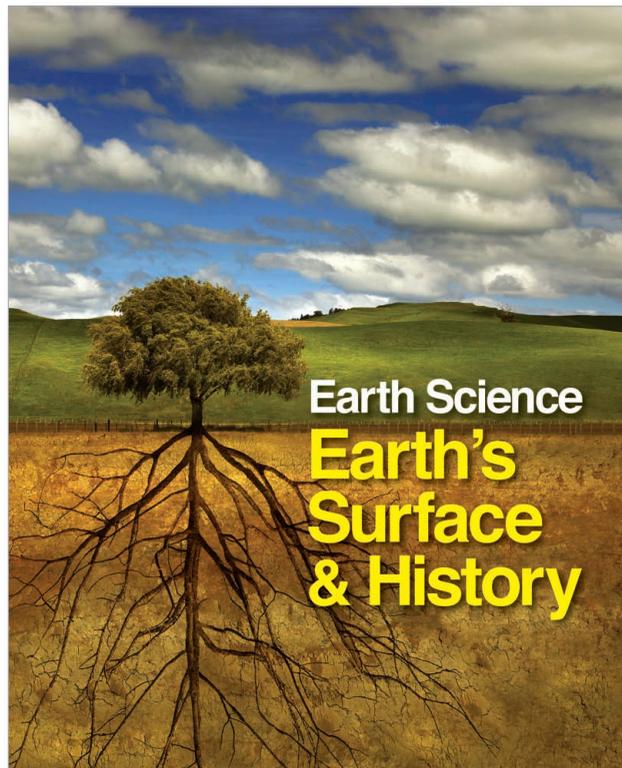

“A unique reference tool with thorough topical coverage that meets the needs of users at the advanced high-school and college levels. It would also be a useful acquisition for larger public libraries.”

–Booklist

“Recommended for high school, public, and college libraries.”

–Reference & User Services
Quarterly

An in-depth look at the most important and widely discussed issues relating to Earth science—organized so libraries can select only the areas they want.

Earth Science, comprising 487 lengthy essays on basic topics in geology, geophysics, atmospheric sciences, oceanography, environmental science, paleontology and planetology, is designed to provide an introduction to our latest understanding of the Earth's physical features and dynamic processes, as well as those of the solar system in which it resides. Plus, it has the added bonus of being organized into four separate subsets, which allows libraries to select only the content they want.

All of the essays begin with ready-reference top matter, including a summary statement in which the contributing author explains why the topic is important to the study of the Earth. A listing of principal terms and their definitions helps to orient the reader to the essay. The text itself is broken into informative subheadings that guide the readers to areas of particular interest. An annotated and updated bibliography close each essay referring the reader to external sources for further study that are of use to both students and non specialists. Finally, a host of cross-references directs the reader to other essays that offer information on related topics.

At the end of every volume, several appendices are designed to assist in the retrieval of information. As mentioned above, the alphabetical list of contents lists all essays alphabetically by title, followed by page numbers. The set also includes more than 300 illustrations—tables, charts, drawings, and photographs—that display basic principles, phenomena and geological features of our world and the solar system.

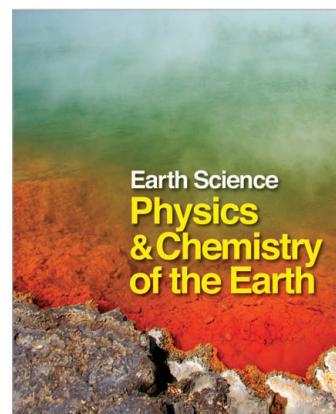

This multi-volume set is also available in 4 different Subsets.

Each subset contains 2 volumes and focused on a specific aspect of Earth Science.

Earth Science: Physics & Chemistry of the Earth

A detailed look at the dynamics of the earth's mass and how its chemistry produces change. Its scope is broad. For instance, the set goes beyond the basics of climate change to explore many underlying factors surrounding the issue, including geothermometry and geobarometry, glacial events, and mass extinction theories. The set also explores earthquakes, their engineering, hazards, predictability, and the role of fault and mantle dynamics.

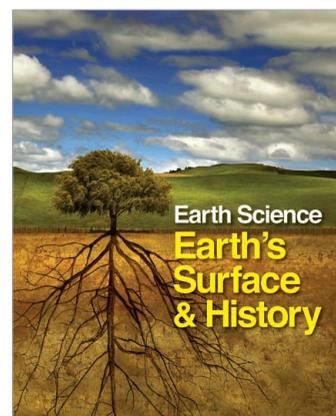

MAY 2012
2 Volumes; 660 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-973-7; Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-976-8
LIST PRICE: $295

Earth Science: Earth's Surface & History

This subset explores the land masses and seas of the world. It describes mountain ranges, the oceans, continental movement, and a wide variety of features that have influenced life on earth. Detailed explorations of the evolution of dinosaurs, fish, birds, plant life and humans, as they were influenced by the earth's surface, fill this set. Fantastic disruptions, from Mount St. Helens to the ice ages, are woven into the story of how the earth influences everything.

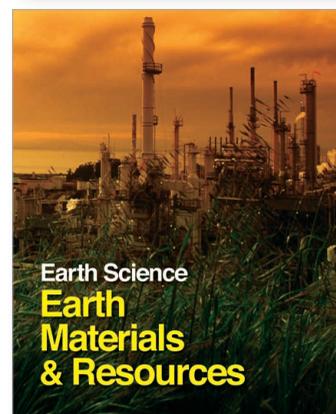

MAY 2012
2 Volumes; 807 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-977-5; Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-980-5
LIST PRICE: $295

Earth Science: Earth Materials & Resources

An encyclopedic review of the material world in which we live and the uses to which those materials can be put. Everything from gold to hazardous waste is described and put in the context of humans' life on earth. Water, soil, minerals, radioactive substances, oil and gas, and an array of substances present on earth and mined from it are described in depth. In every case, the science behind the use of the resource is examined in full.

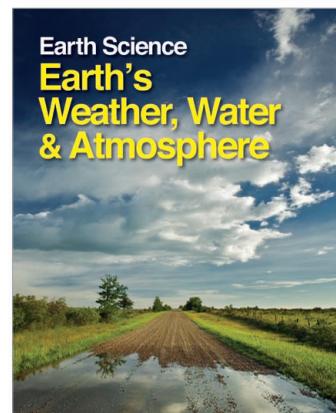

OCTOBER 2012
2 Volumes; 705 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-981-2; Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-984-3
LIST PRICE: $295

Earth Science: Earth's Weather, Water & Atmosphere

This subset is a brilliant exploration of the fluids on the surface of the earth and the gases that surround us. The interaction among these is fantastically complex and intriguing. The work explores the evolution of these interactions during the earth's history, theories regarding the future of the atmosphere and oceans and specific causes and effects that are at work.

OCTOBER 2012
2 Volumes; 775 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-985-0 Includes Online Access
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-988-1
LIST PRICE: $295

Science

Encyclopedia of Environmental Issues

Edited by Craig W. Allin

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volumes; 1,585 Pages
- 772 Essays
- 300 Photos
- 65 Sidebars/Charts/Graphs/Illustrations/Maps
- Glossary
- Subject & Category Index
- Directory of Organizations

MAY 2011

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-735-1

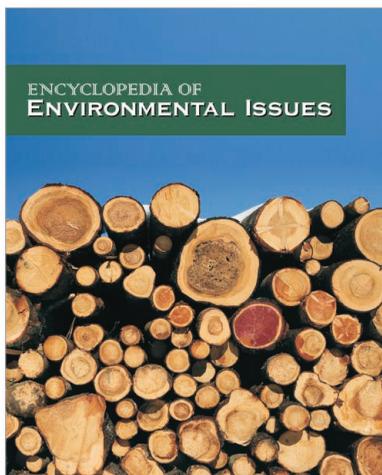

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-740-5

LIST PRICE: $495

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

An up-to date A-Z guide on science, policy and social issues related to the global environment.

The set contains 772 articles on a wide variety of topics, including endangered animal species, air pollution, national parks, environmental legislation, oil spills, alternative energy sources, and global climate change. In recognition of the fact that people spend an overwhelming proportion of their time in human-made environments, essays also cover such topics as sick building syndrome, noise pollution, smog, and urban planning.

The majority of the articles consist of overviews of a variety of issues, concepts and terms relevant to the study of environmental matters.

These articles range from broad concepts such as ecology to specific issues like the conflict between loggers and defenders of the endangered spotted owl in the Pacific northwest of the United States. Additional entries include biographies, events, books, legislation and international treaties, court cases, and organizations.

The encyclopedia also includes nearly 300 photographs and 65 charts, graphs, tables, and maps that illuminate the events and concepts detailed in the essays.

The Solar System

Edited by David G. Fisher and Richard R. Erickson

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,056 Pages
- 180 Essays; 58 new
- "See Also" Cross-References
- Complete List of Contents
- Glossary & Bibliography
- Web Sites
- Subject & Category Index

JULY 2009

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-530-2

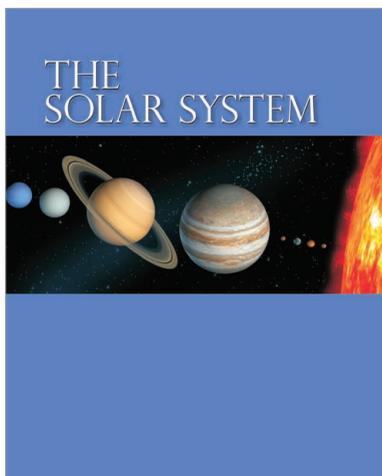

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-534-0

LIST PRICE: $364

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

Essential coverage of all aspects of Earth's solar system, from every feature of the major planets to their satellites, interplanetary phenomena, and cosmological context.

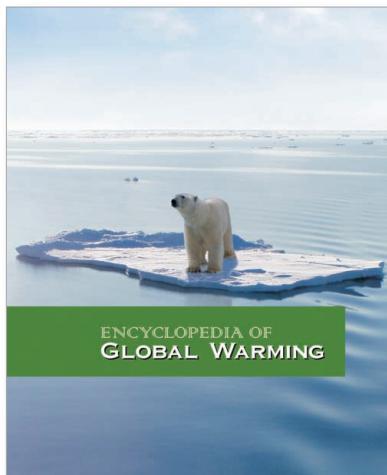

Designed to meet the needs of both general readers and students, The Solar System covers 180 major topics on Earth's solar system.

Essays fall into the following categories: the Cosmological Context, Earth, the Jovian System, Life in the Solar System, Mars, Mercury, Natural Planetary Satellites, Neptune, Planets and Planetology, the Saturnian System, Scientific Methods, Small Bodies, the Solar System as a Whole, the Stellar Context, the Sun, Uranus, and Venus.

Each entry begins with an "Overview" section detailing basic information about the subject and discusses the main facts about the topic. "Knowledge Gained/Methods of Study/Applications" details how the topic is investigated, what scientific knowledge we have accumulated, or the uses of the knowledge we have gained. "Context" addresses the topic from the larger perspective of the history of solar system science and its relevance for humankind.

The set is heavily illustrated, with over 300 photos, along with a general bibliography, a list of web resources, a comprehensive glossary, and a full subject index.

BEST SELLER!

“The variety and scope of the topics examined in this set make it an important addition for science collections.”
—School Library Journal

The categories in this set include animals; Arctic and Antarctic; astronomy; chemistry; climatic events; conferences and meetings; diseases and health effects; economics and industries; energy; ethics; human rights; fossil fuels; geology; laws and treaties; oceanography; organizations and agencies; physics and geophysics; pollution and waste; science and technology; and water resources.

There are six types of essays: “Term” essays describe a term and explain its significance; “Overview” essays provide overviews of a scientific, policy, or social phenomenon;

“Organization” discuss significant organizations; “Biographical” essays discuss key individuals; “Top-Twenty Emitter” essays provide information on the 20 nations with the highest annual greenhouse gas emissions; and “Law and Treaty” essays cover provisions.

Encyclopedia of Global Warming

Edited by Steven I. Dutch

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,212 Pages
- Biographical List of Key Figures
- 540 Essays
- 147 Sidebars/Tables/Maps/Charts
- 212 Photographs
- Popular Culture About Global Warming

DECEMBER 2009

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-563-0

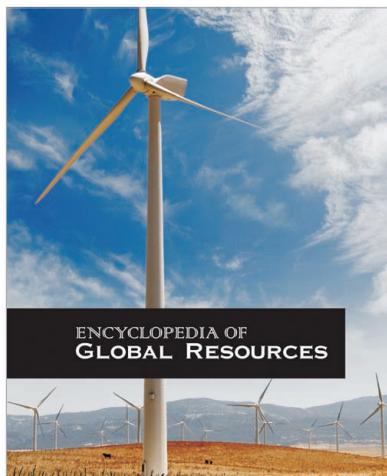

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-567-8

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“A rich resource for reference collections in both academic and public libraries.”
—Library Journal

Encyclopedia of Global Resources provides a wide variety of perspectives on both traditional and more recent views of Earth’s resources. The entries are diverse, with articles covering fisheries, forests, aluminum, the Industrial Revolution, the U.S. Department of the Interior, and placer mineral deposits. Top resources are covered, as well as major events, milestone historical events and government laws.

The essays in this set range from one to six pages in length. The core of the set is 119 articles on specific mineral and other non-living resources. These articles begin with informative subheads, including “Where Found” and “Primary Uses,” and continue with subsections that address “Description, Distribution, and Forms,” “History,” “Obtaining the Resource,” and “Uses.” Every article is signed, and each has summary information at the beginning and cross-references to other articles in the set at the end.

Encyclopedia of Global Resources

Edited by Craig W. Allin

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volumes; 1,504 Pages
- Tables of Countries and State Resources
- 575 Essays; 143 New
- 235 Charts/Graphs/Tables
- 256 Photos

APRIL 2010

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-644-6

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-649-1

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

Science

Encyclopedia of Energy

Edited by Morris A. Pierce

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volumes; 1,560 Pages
- 585 Essays
- 355 Photos
- Chronology
- Glossary
- Resource Guide
- Subject Index

OCTOBER 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-849-5

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-854-9

LIST PRICE: $495

Available formats:

“This excellent reference work is extremely broad in scope yet covers a vast amount of material on the topic of energy in a nontechnical, highly readable manner.”

—CHOICE

BEST SELLER!

A comprehensive look at a timely topic, the four volumes of Encyclopedia of Energy discuss the various aspects of energy in 585 easy-to-read essays.

This academic, multi-author reference work serves as a general and non-technical resource for students and teachers to understand the importance of energy; to appreciate the influence of energy on societies around the world; to learn the history of energy; and to initiate educational discussion brought forth by the specific social and topical articles presented in the work.

From Alaska to China to Brazil and around the world, energy is the fuel of modern civilization. The United States alone, which constitutes 5 percent of the world's population, consumes 24 percent of the world's energy. Tracing the routes and roots of energy through history, especially since the Industrial Revolution, and explaining the current levels of energy use and production across the globe, this encyclopedia is the definitive reference to essential energy and power information. From “clean coal” to oil to windpower, from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe, the Encyclopedia of Energy is a world round-up of energy-related curricular disciplines, including: history, sociology, environmentalism, public policy, science, engineering, and business.

Especially targeted toward high-school students, this outstanding reference work is edited to tie into the high-school curriculum, making the content readily accessible as well to patrons of public, academic, and university libraries. Pedagogical elements include a Topic Finder, Chronology, Resource Guide, Glossary, Appendix, and thorough index. Presented in four volumes in an A-to-Z format, the Encyclopedia of Energy is richly illustrated with photos, charts, and tables, all comprising a unique resource.

New Arrangement! Designed to present highly focused, directed content that is particularly relevant as graduates seek careers in fields with the most demand and fastest job growth.

All Fields of Study: Applied Science

The original five-volume A-Z set contains over 300 alphabetically arranged articles on a broad range of applied-science fields from long-established engineering fields to cutting-edge fields such as micro- and nanotechnologies, addressing applied sciences in areas as diverse as aerospace, communications, energy, information, medical, military, transportation, forensic, and even food technologies.

MAY 2012
5 Volumes; 2,171 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-781-8
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-788-7
Print Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $595

BEST SELLER!

Buyers of the original 5-volume A-Z set get free access to each of the three subsets online at no additional cost.

To enable readers to focus on an aspect of Applied Science, we have grouped the essays into three STEM fields of study. The articles in each volume examine the relationship between science and technology, providing insight into the many ways in which science affects daily life. Each article includes the following categories:

- Summary Statement
- Background and History
- Applications & Products
- Careers & Coursework
- Further Readings
- Definition and Basic Principles
- How It Works
- Impact on Industry
- Social Context & Future Prospects
- Web Sites

Readers will also find Key Terms and Concepts, Fascinating Facts, and a number of helpful diagrams.

“...a useful addition to a collection serving younger students with an interest in the connection between science and technology.” –ARBA

Science & Medicine

Provides in-depth coverage of 110 wide-ranging fields of science and medicine, including Applied Physics, Biosynthetics, Climatology, Environmental Microbiology, Chaotic Systems, Genetically Modified Food Production, Genomics, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Parasitology, Pharmacology, Polymer Science, Pulmonary Medicine, Radio Astronomy, Proteomics, Probability, Radiology, Scanning Probe Microscopy, Space Science, Toxicology, Virology, Xenotransplantation and many more.

NOVEMBER 2013
1 Volumes; 887 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-240-0
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-241-7
Print Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $195

BEST SELLER!

Recent

Technology

Uncovers the history and science in the fields of technology, including Artificial Organs, Air Quality Monitoring, Computer Graphics, Digital Logic, Earthquake Prediction, Energy Storage, Explosives Technologies, Fiber-Optic Communications, Risk Analysis, Recycling Technologies, Software Engineering, Numerical Analysis and more.

NOVEMBER 2013
1 Volumes; 760 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-242-4
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-243-1
Print Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $195

BEST SELLER!

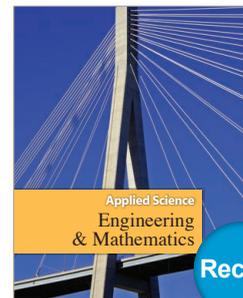

Recent

Science

Engineering & Mathematics

Examines the fields and science of engineering, including Civil Engineering, Bridge Design, Cell & Tissue Engineering, Erosion Control, Architecture, Audio Engineering, Biomechanics, Plastic Engineering, Superconductivity, Urban Planning, Water Supply Systems, Hydroponics, Fractal Geometry and many more.

NOVEMBER 2013
1 Volumes; 782 Pages
Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-244-8
eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-245-5
Print Includes Online Access
LIST PRICE: $195

BEST SELLER!

Recent

Encyclopedia of Mathematics & Society

Edited by Sarah J. Greenwald and Jill E. Thomley

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,056 Pages
- 490 Essays
- 175 Photos
- 125 Sidebars
- Category List of Articles
- Chronology of Mathematics
- Glossary of Mathematics
- Resource Guide
- Subject Index

OCTOBER 2011

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-844-0

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-848-8

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

Award Winner!
Best Reference 2011
Library Journal

“This reference work is highly recommended for academic, public, and possibly high school collections.”

—American Reference Books Annual

BEST SELLER!

A fascinating exploration of how mathematics affects our daily lives from sociological, economic, and historical perspectives.

Mathematics is at the root of modern civilization, from measuring temperature on a frigid day to driving a car to using a digital camera; enthusiasts might say applied mathematics rules the world. The Encyclopedia of Mathematics & Society presents some 490 articles showing the math behind our daily lives, explaining to students how and why math works, and allowing readers to better understand how disciplines such as algebra, geometry, calculus, and others affect what we do every day. This outstanding reference is appropriate for both high school and undergraduate programs, making the content readily accessible to public library patrons as well.

Article topics include: architecture and engineering; arts, music, and entertainment; business, economics, and marketing; communications and computers; friendship, romance and religion; games, sports, and recreation; government, politics, and history; history and development of curricular concepts; mathematics around the world; mathematics culture and identity; medicine and health; space, time and distance; travel and transportation; and weather, nature, and environment.

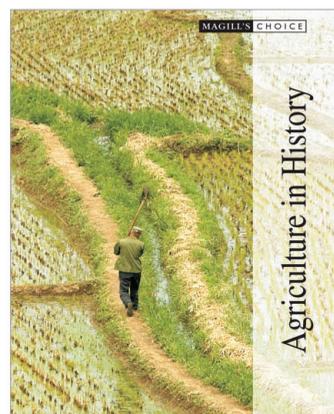

The articles are written in clear language and presented in a uniform, easily readable format. Every article begins with standard, ready reference top matter which includes the category, fields of study (such as geometry, measurements, communication) and a brief summary. The heart of the essay discusses the interconnections of mathematics, including its meaning, history and usage. Every essay ends with a list of sources for further reading and see-also cross-references.

Agriculture in History

“...a solid, readable set, great for high-school and public libraries.” —Booklist

Agriculture in History presents 150 essays on the rise and development of agriculture throughout the world. The set opens with a series of articles on the rise of agriculture in northern Africa and Asia as far back as 9000 B.C.E, and covers the emergence of agriculture in all the world’s populated regions. Entries provide a summary of the event, its historical significance and impact and provide sources for further readings.

AUGUST 2009
 3 Volumes
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-551-7
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-555-5
LIST PRICE: $217

Magill’s Encyclopedia of Science: Plant Life

“...It should be considered as a candidate for larger science reference collections where comprehensive treatment is desirable.” —Gale Group

A scientific yet easy-to-understand survey of topics pertaining to the plant kingdom and botany classes, Plant Life surveys 379 topics, from cell structure to classification, to economic, medicinal, cultural, and environmental issues. Approximately 150 charts, photographs, sidebars, maps, tables, diagrams, graphs, and labeled line drawings offer the essential visual content so important to students of the sciences.

NOVEMBER 2002
 4 Volumes
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-084-0
 eBook E-ISBN: 58765-258-5
LIST PRICE: $457

Magill’s Encyclopedia of Science: Animal Life

“Top Ten Science Reference.” —Booklist

This set offers accessible, easy-to-understand scientific information on insects, reptiles and mammals. Topics include anatomy, behavior, classification, ecology, evolution, habitats, physiology, reproduction and development, and scientific methods. A glossary, a biographical list of scientists, list of journals and organizations, a general bibliography, a time line, and a geographical list of animals round out this work.

DECEMBER 2001
 4 Volumes
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-019-2
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-257-8
LIST PRICE: $457

Notable Natural Disasters

“A great addition to any collection.” —Library Journal

Overview essays on disaster types explain the disaster in scientific terms and discuss the science behind the phenomenon. The overviews are followed by entries on the 100 worst disasters in history. These narrative-style essays offer facts, figures, and interesting stories. Each event entry begins with a general description of location or the popular designation for the disaster, plus the most accurate date for the event.

APRIL 2007
 3 Volumes
 Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-368-1
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-409-1
LIST PRICE: $217

Science

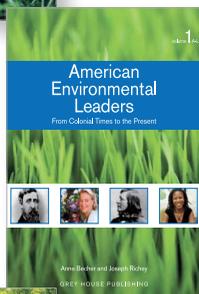

Environmental Resource Handbook

“Contains a great deal of valuable information.” —ARBA

This handbook provides necessary resources for environmentalists, educators, researchers, and environmental science students. Section I contains detailed contact data for over 7,000 environmental programs and organizations, including associations, government agencies, conferences, national parks, research centers, and more. Section II provides over 100 tables and charts on toxic chemicals, recycling, air quality, water quality, and more for all major U.S. cities. Additional appendices, indexes, and a glossary are also included.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-115-1 | $155

American Environmental Leaders

“Highly recommended for high school, academic and public libraries.” —Library Journal, Starred Review

A comprehensive and diverse collection of biographies of the most important figures in American environmentalism, this resource provides extensive coverage of over 400 environmental men and women from the past 200 years, including scientists, advocates, businessmen, musicians, politicians, actors, and more. Illustrations, photos, an historical timeline, primary documents (such as articles, speeches, and legislation), an annotated bibliography, and a general index are also included.

September 2008 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-119-8 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-230-0 | $255

The Environmental Debate

“Highly recommended for undergraduates and up.” —CHOICE

This unique collection of primary documents examines the evolution of concern about environmental degradation, pollution, and resource conservation in America from the Colonial period to the present. Documents include the writings of naturalists, scientists, conservationists, philosophers, lawyers, politicians, sociologists, and poets, as well as government reports, legislation, and court cases. Also includes a timeline, illustrations, photos, and a Resources section with hundreds of environmental organizations.

January 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-676-6 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-677-3 | $165

Weather America

Best Reference Book of the Year —Library Journal

Published every 10 years, this valuable resource provides extensive data on over 2,000 weather stations across the nation, weather trends, climatological changes, and weather events. Featured sections include Weather Rankings, Major Storm Events, and Weather Station Data, with data tables for National and Cooperative Stations. Enhanced features include four color maps, comparative weather charts, all-time weather records, and more.

February 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-598-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-599-8 | $195

The Encyclopedia of Rural America

“This unique source deserves a place in every library.” —Library Journal

History, sociology, and public policy combine to deliver the encyclopedia that has become the standard reference work in American rural studies. Over 300 entries document major themes, concepts, and industries that make up rural America, from the industrial sector and government policy to the arts and humanities. This updated edition includes over 70 new essays, as well as an historical timeline, illustrations, photos, and primary documents.

July 2008 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-115-0 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-228-7 | $255

U.S. Land & Natural Resources Policy

“A valuable resource and reference.” —ARBA

This comprehensive overview traces the origin and evolution of policy debates surrounding U.S. public lands and the natural resources they contain, as well as the current debate and future direction of policy. Coverage includes state data, national data, industry resources, Department of the Interior resources, an historical timeline, an Appendix of U.S. Land Acts & Laws, and primary documents detailing 30 debates and historical court cases.

October 2011 | Print ISBN: 978-1-59237-684-1 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-59237-685-8 | $165

SALEM HEALTH

A comprehensive collection of titles that covers all aspects of human health, from addictions to diseases to psychology and our award-winning medical guide. All Salem Health titles provide easy-to-understand, up-to-date, and accessible information on a wide range of important consumer health issues.

“It’s seldom that I can unreservedly recommend a product for all libraries everywhere. I certainly can for Salem Health. An extraordinary reference resource.”
 –Library Journal eReviews

Get FREE ONLINE ACCESS when you buy the print!

Virtually every title in the Salem Health series comes with free online access on Salem Health Online. Unlimited Users and Remote Access included!

NEW! A comprehensive, accessible resource covering all aspects of adolescent health, including Drugs & Addictions, Going Online, Sexual Health, Health Myths, Your Mind & Body, and so much more.

This new title from Salem Health is a comprehensive guide for those experiencing puberty or those who want to learn more about the crucial development of adolescents from age 13 to 19.

Adolescent Health provides over 600 essays on the most important topics surrounding teen health. Written by medical professionals, these easy-to-understand articles reach across nearly 20 categories of health related issues important to teens, including:

- Advice from Teens
- Disabilities & Disorders
- Diversity
- Drugs, Alcohol & Addiction
- Going Green
- Going Online
- Grief & Loss
- Health: Diseases & Conditions
- Health Myths
- Infections
- Nutrition & Staying Fit
- Relationships: Dating, Family, Friends
- School & Jobs: Skills for Success
- Sexuality & Sexual Health
- Staying Safe
- Vaccines and Vaccination
- Your Body
- Your Mind/Emotional Health

Salem Health:

Adolescent Health

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,000 Pages
- 600 Essays
- 100 Sidebars on Special Topics
- 100 Photos & Illustrations
- Complete List of Contents
- Glossary
- Web Sites of Interest
- Category Index
- Subject Index

JULY 2015
 Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-545-6
 eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-546-3
LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

Health

New 7th Edition

Magill's Medical Guide

Edited by Bryan C. Auday, Ph.D.;
Michael A. Buratovich, Ph.D.;
Geraldine F. Marrocco, Ed.D.,
APRN, CNS, ANP-BC; and
Paul Moglia, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 5 Volumes; 3,000 Pages
- 1,200 Entries; 77 New
- 700+ Sidebars and Tables
- 400+ Photographs and Illustrations
- Glossary
- List of 900+ Diseases and Other Medical Conditions
- Pharmaceutical List
- Health Care Providers List
- List of Medical Journals
- General Bibliography
- Resources List of Organizations
- Web Site Directory
- Personages Index
- Subject Index

JANUARY 2014

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-214-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-215-8

LIST PRICE: $425

Available formats:

“It’s seldom that I can unreservedly recommend a product for all libraries everywhere. I certainly can for Salem Health. An extraordinary reference resource.”

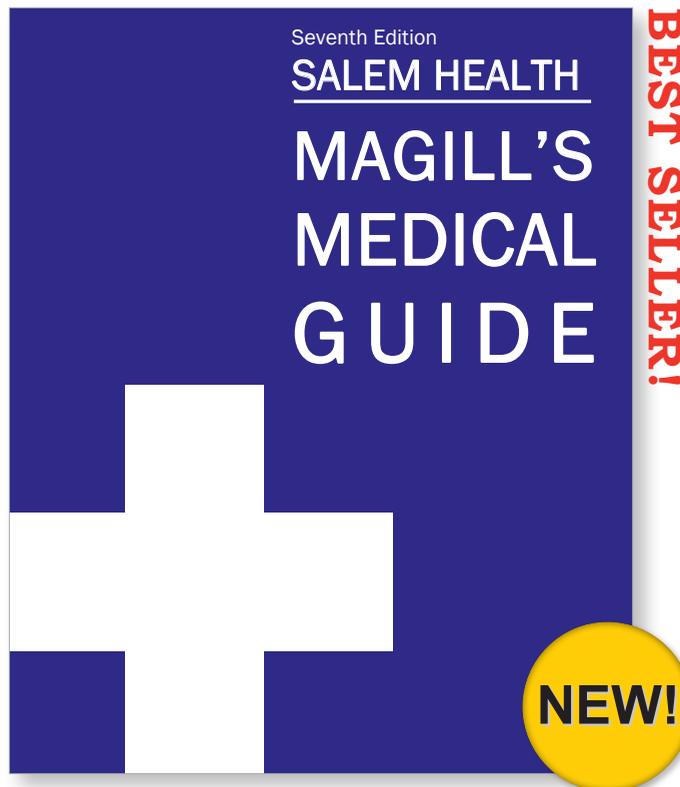

–Library Journal

“Recommended for public libraries, special libraries, and academic libraries.”

–Booklist

“This work has a place in all reference collections.”

–CHOICE

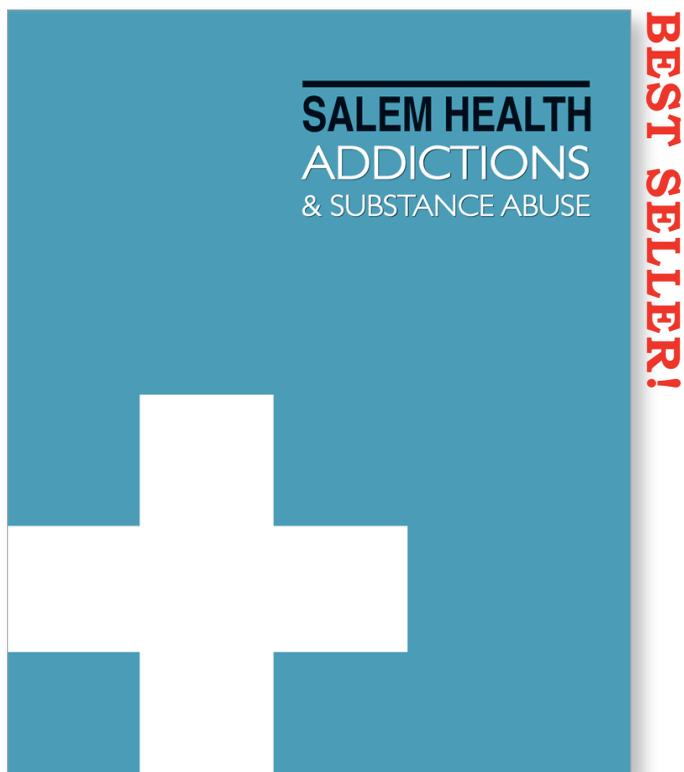

Covers diseases, disorders, treatments, procedures, specialties, anatomy, biology, and issues in an A-Z format, with sidebars addressing recent developments in medicine and concise information boxes for all diseases and disorders.

Since 1995, Magill's Medical Guide has had a reputation for providing general readers with the most authoritative yet accessible reference source that helps bridge the gap between medical encyclopedias and dictionaries for professionals and popular self-help guides. The Guide is a staple in high school, college, public and medical school libraries.

A perfect mix of accessibility and depth, Magill's Medical Guide provides general readers with an authoritative reference. It is an up-to-date and easy-to-use compendium of medical information suitable for student research, as well as general readers, including patients and caregivers.

Among the 1,200 entries in this edition are 77 new topics. Many of these topics address new issues in treatment, physiology, diseases and urgent health concerns and healthcare issues within society, including Abuse of the Elderly, Affordable Health Care Act, Alopecia, Anaphylactic Shock, Antibiotic resistance, Assisted suicide, Basal Cell Carcinoma, Collodion Baby, First Responders, Genetic Imprinting, Informed Consent, Korsakoff's Syndrome, Meckel's Diverticulum, Mesenchymal Stem Cells, Neuroethics, Palliative Care, Raynaud's Phenomenon, Tardive Dyskinesia, Traumatic Brain Injury, Ulcerative Colitis, Vitamin D Deficiency, Wernicke's Aphasia, and William's Syndrome.

This comprehensive two-volume set covers all aspects of both substance and behavioral addictions and their related issues.

The set contains 325 alphabetically arranged essays on a variety of topics, including substances of abuse, treatment and addiction overviews, organizations and foundations dedicated to treatment and prevention, physiological and psychological issues and behaviors, trends and statistics, and social contexts and concerns related to substance abuse and treatment such as advertising and media influence, aging, ethnicity, and children and substance abuse.

The essays, written for nonspecialists by medical professionals and medical writers, will appeal to science and premedical students, students of psychology and addictive behaviors, students of drug abuse epidemiology and public health issues, public library patrons, and librarians building collections in science, health, and medicine, or related fields.

Essays are alphabetized and vary in length from one to five pages. Essays begin with ready-reference top matter that contains the topic category and definition. Substance abuse essays include the following sections: Causes, Risk Factors, Symptoms, Screening and Diagnosis, Treatment and Therapy, and Prevention. Essays covering associated organizations, programs, and treatment centers offer the following sections: Background, Dates established or founded, and Mission and Goals. Essays covering diagnosis, physiology, prevention, psychological issues, social issues, treatment, and other topics related to behavioral addictions and substance abuse include subsections chosen by the author as they suit the particular topic.

Salem Health: Addictions & Substance Abuse

Edited by Robin Kamienny Montvilo,
R.N., Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 790 Pages
- 325 Essays
- 58 Sidebars on Special Topics
- 93 Photos
- Complete List of Contents
- Chronological List of Entries
- General Bibliography
- Substances of Abuse
- Pharmaceutical Treatments
- Support Groups and Organizations
- Treatment Centers and Programs
- Time Line
- Glossary
- Web Sites of Interest
- Category Index
- Subject Index

AUGUST 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-959-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-963-8

LIST PRICE: $275

Available formats:

“This is an excellent overview of the substance abuse and addiction field for general readers and students.”

—American Reference Books Annual

Health

New Fourth Edition
Salem Health:
Psychology & Behavioral Health

Edited by Salem Press

AT A GLANCE

- 5 Volumes; 2,500 Pages
- 600 Articles
- 150 Sidebars
- Pharmaceutical List

MARCH 2015

Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-543-2

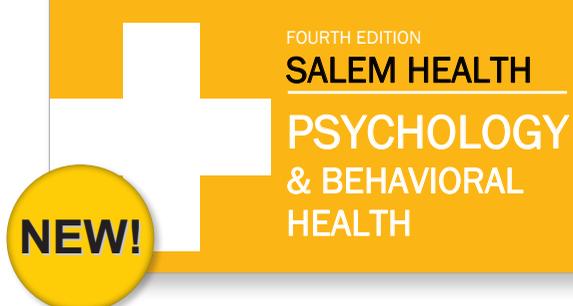

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-61925-544-9

LIST PRICE: $495

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“These volumes are a great resource for general patrons and students alike and will make a nice addition to public and college libraries.” —Booklist

This newly updated set covers not only the history of the field and the core aspects of behaviorism, cognitive psychology, and psychoanalytic psychology but also diagnoses, disorders, treatments, tests, notable people, and issues, including many popular concepts. Essays address how culture, ethnicity, and gender affect psychological theory and beliefs. They cover topics such as multicultural psychology and the effect of culture on diagnosis, and other important and developing issues in psychology.

The essays in this set range from one to eight pages in length. Every entry begins with standard information, including any relevant dates, the type of psychology and the field(s) of study. Biographical entries also include an “Identity” line indicating nationality and specialty.

Psychology Basics

Edited by Nancy A. Piotrowski, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 2 Volumes; 1,008 Pages
- 127 Articles
- Biographical List of Psychologists
- Nobel Prizes for Discoveries

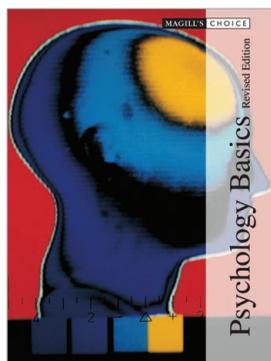

OCTOBER 2004

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-199-1

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-317-9

LIST PRICE: $130

Available formats:

“Highly recommended for high-school, public, and academic libraries...” —Booklist

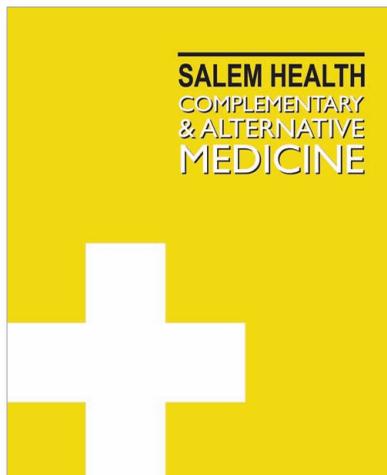

Psychology Basics highlights theories and concepts in cognition, consciousness, depression, development, emotions, experimentation, intelligence, language, learning, memory, motivation, personality, psychobiology, psychopathology, psychotherapy, perception, social psychology, stress, thought, and treatments.

Each alphabetically arranged article offers a clear discussion of its topic. Descriptive subheadings divide the text, all terminology is explained and context is provided to make the information accessible to general readers. Every entry ends with an annotated bibliography of secondary sources and cross-references to related articles. Entries range from four to eight pages in length.

All essays conclude with a list of cross-references to any related articles within Psychology Basics. At the end of Volume Two is a glossary of crucial terms with concise definitions, a “Biographical List of Psychologists,” a directory of web resources, and a comprehensive subject index.

BEST SELLER!

“...this work is recommended for both academic and medium to large public libraries.”

–American Reference Books Annual

The set contains over 700 essays on a variety of topics, including acupuncture, aromatherapy, crystal healing, detoxification, herbal medicine, magnet therapy, probiotics, Qigong, traditional Chinese herbal medicine, vegan diets, and vitamins and minerals. The history of both complementary and alternative medicine is included, as are key figures such as Deepak Chopra. Other essays discuss important issues such as alternative versus traditional medicine.

Essays begin with ready-reference top matter. A brief overview explains the topic in greater detail. Other sections include “Mechanism of Action,” “Uses and Applications” and “Scientific Evidence.” All entries end with a byline, a list sources for further reading, and cross-references to related essays in the set.

The set also includes sidebars, drawings, tables, and photographs to enhance the information provided, and several helpful appendixes. A category index appears at the end of each volume, and personages and comprehensive subject indexes can be found at the end of volume four.

Salem Health:

Complementary & Alternative Medicine

Edited by H. Richard P. Capriccioso, M.D., and Paul Moglia, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volumes; 1,680 Pages
- 247 Photos

MARCH 2012

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-870-9

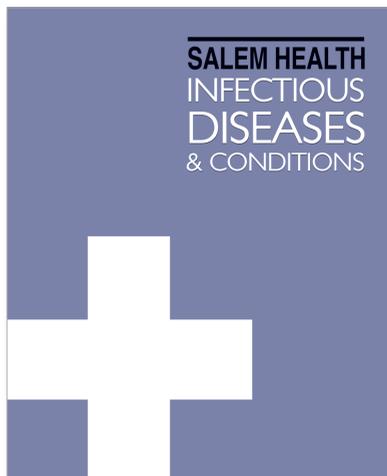

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-875-4

LIST PRICE: $495

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“Highly recommended. Lower undergraduates through graduate students, professionals/practitioners, and general readers.” –CHOICE

The set contains 610 essays on all aspects of infectious diseases, including pathogens and pathogenicity, transmission, the immune system, vaccines, diagnosis, prevention, treatment, and social concerns such as bioterrorism.

These essays will interest science and premedical students, students of epidemiology and public health, public library patrons, and librarians building collections in science and medicine.

All essays begin with ready-reference top matter. Pathogen essays discuss the route of transmission, natural habitat, pathogenicity and clinical significance. Diseases and Conditions essays include the causes, risk factors, symptoms, treatment, and prevention. All other essays include topical subheads, and impact.

Finding aids include a glossary of scientific and medical terms and concepts, a bibliography for all published sources for additional research and a list of organizations and support groups. Other appendixes include a list of professional journals, a list of web resources, and a Pharmaceutical List, categorized by type of drug.

Salem Health:

Infectious Diseases & Conditions

Edited by H. Bradford Hawley, M.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,330 Pages
- 345 Sidebars/Tables/Drawings

NOVEMBER 2011

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-776-4

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-780-1

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

Health

Salem Health:

Genetics & Inherited Conditions

Edited by Jeffrey A. Knight, Ph.D.

AT A GLANCE

- 3 Volumes; 1,236 Pages
- 459 Essay; 239 New

MAY 2010

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-650-7

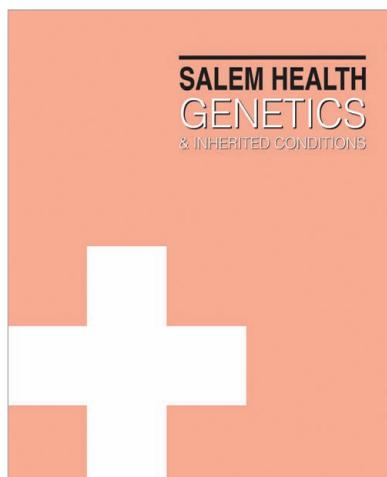

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-654-5

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“Libraries that purchased Encyclopedia of Genetics (2002) may wish to add this new title for its more extensive focus on diseases and syndromes.” —CHOICE

This set alphabetically arranges 459 essays on diseases, biology, techniques, methodologies, genetic engineering, ethics, and social issues.

Written for nonspecialists, it will interest health care consumers, premedical students, public library patrons, and librarians building scientific collections.

Essays vary in length from two to six pages. All entries begin with a line defining that topic's category. Essays on diseases and inherited conditions are divided into the sections “Definition,” “Risk Factors,” “Etiology and Genetics,” “Symptoms,” “Screening and Diagnosis,” “Treatment and Therapy,” and “Prevention and Outcomes.” All other essays begin with a statement of significance, provide a list of key terms, and feature topical subheadings to guide readers through the text.

Salem Health:

Cancer

Editorial Board: Jeffrey A. Knight, Ph.D.; Wendy White-Ryan, M.D., FAAP; Laurie Jackson-Grusby, Ph.D.,

AT A GLANCE

- 4 Volumes; 1,408 Pages
- List of Cancer Centers and Hospitals

OCTOBER 2008

Print ISBN: 978-1-58765-505-0

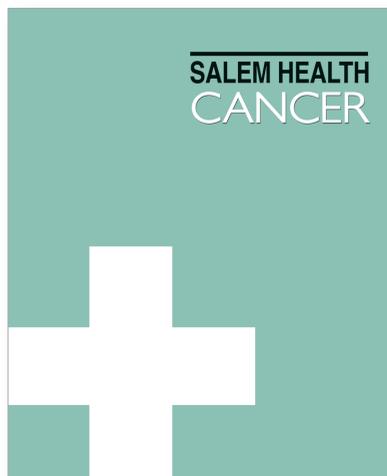

eBook E-ISBN: 978-1-58765-510-4

LIST PRICE: $395

Available formats:

BEST SELLER!

“Highly recommended for high school, public and college libraries.”—Gale

Salem Health: Cancer alphabetically arranges 835 essays on all aspects of cancer.

The essays address diseases, conditions, symptoms, cancer-related syndromes, chemotherapy, cancer centers, genetics, the biology of cancer, medical specialties, tests, alternative therapies, lifestyles, healthy and preventive strategies, and the many social and personal issues surrounding cancer.

Written by physicians, nurses, and professional medical writers whose credentials and degrees are clearly listed in the byline to every essay, this comprehensive reference publication will be of interest not only to public library patrons but also to premedical students and those building collections for the patient population.

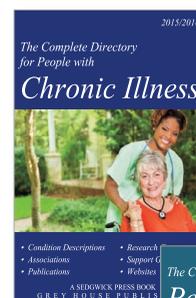

Essays range from one to five pages in length. All essays present a capsule definition of the topic and list sources of further information. The information is presented in one of six standard essay formats. Appendixes include a list of carcinogens, tables that identify drug names, a glossary, a bibliography, and a subject index.

The Complete Directory for People with Chronic Illness

"This is the place to start for general information on chronic illness." —Booklist

This widely hailed directory is structured around the 80 most prevalent chronic illnesses, such as Asthma, Autism, Cancer, Down Syndrome, Hypertension, Mental Illnesses, Obesity, Sleep Disorders, War Syndromes, and more. Every chapter contains a brief description, lists of treatments, and important resources for organizations, state agencies, newsletters, books, research centers, support groups, hotlines, and web sites.

July 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-548-7 | $165

The Complete Directory for Pediatric Disorders

"Recommended for public and consumer health libraries." —Library Journal

This important reference tool provides consumers with medical information on over 200 common pediatric and adolescent conditions, disorders, diseases, and disabilities. Descriptions detail classification, symptoms, causes, and treatments, and thousands of important resources such as national agencies, state associations, online services, libraries, research centers, support groups, and hotlines are also included.

April 2015 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-551-7 | $165

The Complete Mental Health Directory

"An authoritative, comprehensive tool for any reference desk." —Library Journal

This comprehensive resource provides valuable information, support systems, and lists of mental health professionals to individuals suffering from mental health disorders. Contains 30 disorder-specific chapters, a Diagnostic Category Cross-Reference Table, an updated chapter on Mental Health Statistics, and over 4,000 additional resources, including associations, organizations, professional support services, hotlines, mental health facilities, and more.

May 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-269-1 | $165

The Complete Directory for People with Disabilities

"A welcome addition to any library's reference collection." —ARBA

All those with a disability, from vision problems to physical disabilities to asthma, will find ways in this directory to succeed at work, school, and in their community. This new 2015 edition includes thousands of new entries on specialized independent living centers, rehabilitation facilities, state and federal agencies, support groups, assistive devices, employment and education programs, books, travel groups, and more.

August 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-281-3 | $165

The Complete Learning Disabilities Directory

"Stands out as a singularly important resource." —ARBA

Published for over a decade, this directory provides valuable information to professionals, families, and individuals in the learning disabilities community. Over 6,000 listings include associations, organizations, national and state programs, schools, colleges, learning centers, publications, classroom resources, testing materials, exchange programs, web sites, contact information, and much more.

September 2014 | ISBN: 978-1-61925-285-1 | $165

Diabetes in America: Analysis of an Epidemic

"An important and accessible reference." —Library Journal

This comprehensive guide charts geographic and demographic information about people with Diabetes nationwide, by state, and by federal congressional district. Contains national, state, and congressional district profiles about Diabetes across the country, which include a four-color map and detailed statistics on Number of Diabetics, Prevalence, Percent Uninsured, Number of Hospital Encounters, Hospitalization Costs, Total Annual Medical Costs, and more.

April 2013 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-172-4 | eBook ISBN: 978-1-61925-173-1 | $350

Older Americans Information Directory

"Rich in resources... it is a valuable reference for public and academic libraries." —ARBA

This directory is an invaluable resource offering up-to-date information on the prevalent social, health, and financial issue facing older Americans in the 21st century. Includes immediate access to important resources for older Americans, including national, regional, state, and local organizations, as well as government agencies, research centers, information centers, legal resources, discount travel information, assisted living centers and facilities, and more.

April 2014 | Print ISBN: 978-1-61925-257-8 | $165

Terms and Foreign Distribution

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Federal ID #13-3044945

To Order any Salem Press or Magill's Choice Title:

U.S. Mail & Phone Information

By Mail:
Salem Press
4919 Route 22
PO Box 56
Amenia, NY 12501-0056

By Phone: 201-968-0500
By Fax: 201-968-0511
Email: csr@salempress.com
Web site:
www.salempress.com

Shipping & Handling (U.S.):
Books are shipped library rate,
unless otherwise specified.

U.S. Remittance Information

Send check or money order in
U.S. Dollars payable to:
Grey House Publishing
4919 Route 22, PO Box 56
Amenia, NY 12501-0056

By Phone: 800-562-2139
By Fax: 518-789-0556
NJ, NY & FL, please add applicable sales tax.

Send Returns To:
Grey House Publishing
5979 North Elm Avenue
Millerton, NY 12546

Canada Mail & Phone Information

By Mail:
Grey House Canada
555 Richmond Street West
Suite 301, PO Box 1207
Toronto, ON M5V 3B1
By Phone: 416-644-6479

Toll Free: 866-433-4739
By Fax: 416-644-1904
Email: info@greyhouse.ca
Web site:
www.salempress.com

Shipping & Handling:
Books are shipped UPS
Ground, unless otherwise specified. 5% GST or HST tax will be added where applicable.
GST#83506612

Canadian Remittance Information

Send check or money order in
U.S. Dollars payable to:
Grey House Canada
555 Richmond Street West
Suite 301, PO Box 1207
Toronto, ON M5V 3B1

Toll Free: 866-433-4739
By Phone: 416-644-6479
By Fax: 416-644-1904

Send Returns To:
Grey House Publishing
5979 North Elm Avenue
Suite 113
Millerton, NY 12546
Call 800-221-1592
For returns policy.

Salem Press is not responsible for bank fees or conversion rate charges that may result from payment by credit card.

PRICING

Prices and offers subject to change without notice.

RETURN POLICY

Every Salem Press title carries a full money back Guarantee of Satisfaction. Full refund will be made on any returns received in resalable condition only, within six months of invoice date. Defective or damaged volumes will be replaced. Please include invoice with return. For more information please contact your Salem Press Representative.

DISCOUNT SCHEDULE (U.S. ONLY)

Discount Schedule for Libraries and Institutions in the U.S. (per order):
2-5 titles 5%
6 or more titles 10%
Prepub Prices are not subject to additional discounts.
All discounts from list price only.

Product descriptions subject to change.
Replacement volumes are billed at list price.

Terms:

Net 30 days. Prices and offers subject to change without notice.

Standing Order/Continuation Orders:

Available on selected titles.

Catalog Cards:

Supplied free for most titles upon request.
We now offer processing.

Customer Service:

For all inquiries:
Toll Free: 201-968-0500 or 800-221-1592
Fax: 201-968-0511
E-mail: csr@salempress.com
Website: www.salempress.com

FOREIGN DISTRIBUTORS

Please contact the distributor for your country listed below or contact Salem Press Customer Service department at 800.221.1592. Fax to 201.968.0511.

United Kingdom, Europe, Middle East, Australia and Africa

Mail: The Eurospan Group
3 Henrietta Street
Covent Garden
London WC2E 8LU, England
Phone: (44) 20-7240-0856
Fax: (44) 20-7379-0609
Website: www.eurospangroup.com

India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Nepal and Sri Lanka

Mail: Aditya Books Pvt. Ltd.
B-116, Sector-67, Noida-201301
Distt. Gautam Budh Nagar (U.P)
India
Phone: 0091-0120-2484151
Fax: 0120-2484150
Email: orders@adityabooks.in Website: www.adityabooks.in Mexico and Latin America

Mail: The Eurospan Group
3 Henrietta Street
Covent Garden
London WC2E 8LU, England
Phone: (44) 20-7240-0856
Fax: (44) 20-7379-0609
Website: www.eurospangroup.com

Japan

Mail: Yushodo Co., Ltd.
27 Sakamachi, Shinjuku-ku
Tokyo 160-0002, Japan
Phone: (81) 3-3357-1412
Fax: (81) 3-3356-8730
Email: intl@yushodo.co.jp

Southeast Asia including Brunei, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Korea, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam

Mail: Alkem Company (S) Pte Ltd.
1 Penjuru Close
Singapore 608617
Phone: (65) 6265-6666
Fax: (65) 6261-7875
Email: eltear@alkem.com.sg
Website: www.alkem.com.sg

Field Representatives

If you would like to have a representative visit your library to review our catalog, please visit <http://www.salempress.com/representatives.html> to locate the contact information of the rep in your area.

SALEM PRESS

4919 Route 22, PO Box 56
Amenia, NY 12501-0056

Literature

History & Social Science

Careers

Science

Health

Online Access With Your Print Buy!

WWW.SALEMPRESS.COM (800) 221-1592